GEORGIA FOOTBALL

THE TRADITION OF UNBRIDLED EXCELLENCE DEMONSTRATED BY THESE INDIVIDUALS AND MANY OTHERS SPANS MORE THAN A FULL CENTURY. THERE IS NO TRADITION MORE WORTHY OF ENVY, NO INSTITUTION WORTHY OF SUCH LOYALTY AS THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA. WE RALLY BEHIND THE MEN WHO NOW WEAR THE RED AND BLACK WITH TWO WORDS. TWO SIMPLE WORDS THAT EXPRESS THE SENTIMENTS OF THE ENTIRE BULLDOG NATION: GO DAWGS.

"Better Never Rests"

Kirby Smart is in his eighth year directing the Bulldogs who are 93-16 in this span including back-to-back national championships in 2021 and 2022. This offseason, Georgia took a deep dive on the New Zealand All Blacks, the world's most successful rugby team, or quite frankly, any sports team in history.

Most Consecutive Weeks At No. 1

This season, Georgia established an SEC record for Most Consecutive Weeks at No. 1 in the Associated Press Top 25 poll. The Bulldogs spent 24 weeks at No. 1 and this ranked second all-time in the College Football Playoff era.

Most Wins By Bulldog Senior Class

The Bulldog senior class has a chance to collect its record 50th win in the Capital One Orange Bowl. Also, these Bulldogs went 22-0 at home.

WIN: What's Important Now

Sixth-ranked Georgia (12-1) is making its 27th consecutive bowl appearance, which is the nation's longest streak and dates to 1997. The Bulldogs will face fifth-ranked Florida State (13-0) in the Capital One Orange Bowl in Miami, Fla. This will be Georgia's 62nd bowl game (second most of any team in the country), and the Bulldogs are looking to win their seventh consecutive bowl game. Georgia's all-time record in bowls is 37-21-3. Also, the 2023 Georgia senior class has tied the school mark for victories with a 49-4 record. The 2022 class went 49-5.

The Bulldogs hold a 6-4-1 advantage in the series with FSU who enters the bowl game on a 19-game winning streak (second-longest active streak in the FBS). These teams last met in the 2003 Sugar Bowl when Georgia picked up a 26-13 victory in New Orleans to finish 13-1 and No. 3 in the final polls. This will be the Bulldogs' fifth appearance in the Capital One Orange Bowl where they are 3-1. Georgia won its last appearance here, a 34-11 rout of No. 2 Michigan in a 2021 College Football Playoff semifinal. The victory over UM started a school record 29-game winning streak. This year, Georgia completed its third straight undefeated regular season to become the first program to do that in the Associated Press poll era that began in 1936.

Balance Signals Success

The Bulldogs are one of only two teams in the country who are ranked in the top 10 in both Scoring Offense and Scoring Defense. The Bulldogs rank ninth in Scoring Defense at 16.6 ppg and ninth in Scoring Offense at 38.4 ppg. The other team is Notre Dame as they are eighth in both categories (16.6 ppg/39.1 ppg.). Meanwhile, FSU is sixth in Scoring Defense (15.9) and 13th in Scoring Offense (37.0).

One of the keys to Georgia's success is its third down defense. The Bulldogs lead the country with opponents converting just 26 percent of the time. In SEC action, Georgia opponents were a combined 28-for-95 on third downs (29 percent). The Bulldogs are second nationally in converting third downs (55 percent).

Bulldogs Again Among The Leaders In Scoring Defense

Since the arrival of Kirby Smart in 2016, the Bulldogs have featured talented defenses and twice led the nation in Scoring Defense. This season, Georgia is ranked ninth nationally allowing 16.6 points/game.

Year	Pts./Game	NCAA	Record	Shutouts
2016	24.0	35th	8-5	0

We've Gone Streaking

☛ The Bulldogs have extended the nation's longest active bowl streak to 27 consecutive years this season. Georgia has won its last six bowl/CFP appearances.

☛ The Bulldogs are 45-2 in their last 47 games including back-to-back national championships.

☛ Georgia will enter 2024 on a school record streak of 39 consecutive regular season victories that dates to a 31-24 home triumph over Miss. State on Nov. 21, 2020. That's the longest streak in the FBS.

☛ Georgia will enter 2024 having won a school and SEC record-tying 27 regular season SEC games in a row dating to a 31-24 win over Miss. State on Nov. 21, 2020.

☛ Georgia will enter 2024 with a school record 25-game home winning streak, which leads in FBS.

☛ The Bulldogs have won 15 straight games in an opponent's home stadium and that leads in FBS.

Bulldogs Honored With A Pair Of National Awards

Two Georgia standouts were honored with national awards on Dec. 8:

☛ Junior TE Brock Bowers earned his second consecutive Mackey Award for being the nation's top collegiate tight end. This marks the first time that the Mackey has been given to the same recipient twice. Bowers is the team leader in catches (56), yards receiving (714) and touchdown catches (six) in only 10 games played for the 12-1 Bulldogs this season.

☛ Junior WR Ladd McConkey collected the school's first Wuerffel Trophy thanks to his dedication to the community while also being a standout on the field and in the classroom. The 2023 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team member and Campbell Trophy finalist has 29 catches for 456 yards and two touchdowns this year in only eight games played.

Piling Up The Points Again

 The 2023 Bulldogs: Averaging 38.4 points/game (9th nationally)
* Outscored their opponents 499-216, including 263-123 in the opening half
* Own a +283 point differential; 66-for-73 in the Red Zone with 48 TDs, 18 FGs
 The 2022 Bulldogs: Averaged 41.1 points/game (5th nationally)
* Outscored their opponents 616-214, including 341-105 in the opening half
* Second consecutive year led the nation in point differential at +402
* 81-for-83 in the Red Zone (98% led nation) with 57 TDs and 24 FGs
 The 2021 Bulldogs: Averaged 38.6 points/game (9th nationally)
* Outscored their opponents 579-153, including 358-65 in the opening half
* Led the nation in point differential at +426
* 59-for-69 in the Red Zone (86% ranked 50th) with 42 TDs and 17 FGs

Offensive Line Answers The Challenge

* A Joe Moore Award finalist for the third season in a row.
* The Bulldogs are 12-1 and averaging 38.4 points per game. Georgia is averaging 7.12 Yards Per Play and 482.9 Yards Per Game.
* Tallied 611 yards of total offense against No. 9 Ole Miss, including 300 yards of rushing (most since registering 615 and 316 versus Missouri in 2020).
* Racked up 608 yards of total offense in the rout of No. 20 UK.
* Against USC, junior starting RT Amarius Mims went down with an ankle injury and missed the next six games before returning on Nov. 11 against No. 9 Ole Miss.
* During that span, senior Xavier Truss moved from LG to RT and redshirt sophomore Dylan Fairchild came in at LG. Fairchild has started the nine of the last 10 games at that spot. RSo. Micah Morris has also seen time at LG.
* Junior C Sedrick Van Pran has a team-best 43 consecutive starts. Redshirt sophomore RG Tate Ratledge, who like Truss started 15 contests in 2022, and redshirt freshman LT Earnest Greene make up Georgia's other OL starters.
* The team tragically lost OL Devin Willock (Wil-LOCK) in a car accident this past January. Willock played in all 15 games last year with two starts. To honor him, a different OL will wear Willock's #77 jersey each game this year.

Edwards, Milton Finds Daylight & The End Zone

Senior Daijun Edwards leads the rushing attack with 818 yards (5.2 avg.) and 11 touchdowns. His best game came with 146 yards in the win over VU.
* Edwards made his first start in the win over USC after appearing in 39 games.

Fellow senior Kendall Milton has 686 yards (6.1 avg) and 12 scores.
* On senior night against No. 9 Ole Miss, Milton rushed for a career-high 127 yards on nine carries (14.1 avg.) and a career-high two touchdowns. He topped that in the road win over GT, going for a career-high 156 yards on 18 attempts and a pair of scores. He had two scores versus #8 Alabama in the SECCG.

Options Abound At Wideout

Georgia features an array of experienced pass catchers and 21 different Bulldogs have a reception this year. Junior Ladd McConkey did not play in the first four games because of a back injury. He made his season debut at Auburn and has 26 catches for 418 yards and two touchdowns in seven total games this year.
* Made career high seven catches in first start of 2023 versus No. 12 Missouri.
* Then career high six catches for career high 135 yards and scored his first touchdown of 2023 in the win over Florida and was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Week for the first time in his career.
* Earned a spot on the 2023 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team, won the Wuerffel Trophy and was a Campbell Trophy finalist.
* Sophomore Dillon Bell had a memorable game in the road win over No. 18 Tennessee. Bell threw an 18-yard touchdown pass to Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint and caught a 9 yarder for a score (first Bulldog to accomplish that feat since Terry Godwin, 2016 vs. Penn State). Bell finished with a career high five catches for 90 yards and had a 25-yard kickoff return in the victory.
* Transfer Dominic Lovett (Missouri) ranks second on the team with 51 catches for 575 yards and three touchdowns, including a career-long 55 yarder in the win over UF. He had 82 for 1,019 yards and three TDs in two years at UM.
* Senior Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint is third on the team with 32 catches for 502 yards and four touchdowns. Against No. 20 Kentucky, he had a career-high 99 yards on four catches, including a 40-yard score to open the game.
* Junior transfer (Mississippi State) Rara Thomas collected his first TD at Georgia (13th of his career) during a five catch, 63-yard performance versus No. 20 UK. His acrobatic score was a 15 yarder in the corner of the end zone. Thomas has missed the last two games due to a foot injury.

The Power of Bowers Returns

Unanimous All-American junior Brock Bowers is one of the nation's top talents. He recently became the first two-time winner of the Mackey Award and was named a Lombardi Award finalist and a Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year and Biletnikoff Award semifinalist for the second straight year. He has only played in 10 games this season.
* After sustaining an ankle injury during the road win over Vanderbilt, Bowers had surgery on Oct. 16 and returned on Nov. 11 during the win over No. 9 Ole Miss. He snagged three passes in his return, including an 8-yard touchdown.
* Ranks second in Bulldog history in Touchdown Catches (26), fifth in Receiving Yards (2,538) and third in Receptions (175).
* The Napa, Ca., native posted a third straight 100-yard game (a combined 24 rec., 410 yds., 4 TDs) with a seven catch, 132-yard performance against #20 Kentucky that included a touchdown. He was the first Bulldog to have three 100-yard receiving performances in a row since Terrence Edwards in 2002.
* Tallied eight receptions for a career-high 157 yards and a score in the road win over Auburn to earn Mackey Award Tight End of the Week honors.
* 19 rushes for 193 yards and five TDs in his career.
* Two receiving scores and a rushing score in the same game twice (At South Carolina in 2022 and at Vanderbilt in 2021).
* 10 career 100-yard receiving games; three of his career TD catches have covered 75+ yards; his first career TD catch covered 89 yards against UAB.

Getting Defensive

Georgia has had 34 players drafted over the past three seasons including 19 on defense and eight of those defenders have gone in the first round.
* Ranked ninth nationally in Scoring Defense, allowing just 16.6 ppg.
* Has allowed only 93 points in the second half this season for a 7.2 average and allowed a touchdown or less in the second half in seven of 13 contests.
* Allowed just 15.3 ppg in its wins over four ranked opponents.
* Blanked No. 18 Tennessee in the second half and held the Vols to just 2-of-11 on third downs; snapped UT's 14-game home winning streak while allowing the Vols just 10 points. UT was averaging 32.0 ppg coming into the contest.
* Held No. 9 Ole Miss to just 17 points after the Rebels came in with a 38.8 ppg. Ole Miss managed only a field goal in the second half.
* Allowed its first points in the third quarter in week five at Auburn. UGA has outscored opponents 137-19 in the third quarter and 236-93 in the second half.
* True freshman ILB CJ Allen started his first game against #9 OM and led the team with nine stops, including a sack, and was named the SEC and Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Week. He has been filling in for Jamon-Dumas Johnson, who sustained a forearm injury versus No. 12 Missouri and has been out.
* Dumas-Johnson, a 2022 Butkus Award finalist, had seven stops against No. 12 Missouri before his injury. He has 34 stops on the year.
* Junior ILB Smael Mondon was the team leader with 76 stops last year. Mondon shares the team lead this year with 68 stops. Mondon had eight in the past two games against Georgia Tech and #8 Alabama.
* Sophomore LB Jalon Walker collected two sacks in the SECCG to give him 5.5 for the year. Walker had four stops, including 1.5 sacks, during the win over No. 12 Missouri. He has seen time at ILB and OLB this year.
* Sophomore DL Mykel Williams is part of an experienced front that features seniors Zion Logue, Warren Brinson, Tramel Walthour, Nazir Stackhouse and Tyrion Ingram-Dawkins.
* Stackhouse collected his first career interception against No. 12 Missouri in the fourth quarter. Despite his 44-yard return being negated because of a chop block call on the Bulldogs, his pick helped set up Peyton Woodring's final field goal.

More Than One STAR In The Secondary

* Senior Star Tykee Smith is the team's co-leader with 68 tackles, a team-leading 8.5 TFL, two sacks and a team-high four interceptions. He had a career high 10 stops in the rout at No. 18 Tennessee and had 7 at Ga. Tech.
* Sophomore safety Malaki Starks has 51 tackles and two interceptions. He was a Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Jim Thorpe Award finalist and a Chuck Bednarik Award semifinalist.
* Junior DB/safety Javon Bullard is third on the squad with 55 tackles. He had a career-high 10 tackles at Auburn. He ended No. 12 Missouri's final drive with his first INT of 2023 and added another one versus No. 9 Ole Miss.
* Junior DB Kamari Lassiter has started 28 consecutive games and has 37 tackles, including 3.5 tackles for loss, this season. Sophomore Daylen Everette starts on the other side and has 27 stops, including two TFLs.

Starting Role BECKons

Junior Carson Beck, a 6-4, 220-pound native of Jacksonville, Fla., is in his first year as the starting quarterback with a 12-1 record. He is a Manning Award finalist and was a Maxwell Award and Davey O'Brien Award semifinalist.

* 4-1 versus top-20 opponents with a 74.2 Completion Percentage (112-151) for 1,490 yards, 11 TDs, 2 INTs
* Beck is on a school record pace for Completion Percentage at 72.4, which ranks 6th nationally. The Bulldog record was set last year by Stetson Bennett at 68.3.
* Beck's 289 completions ranks second in UGA single season history, trailing only Bennett, 310 in 2022.
*His 3,738 passing yards this year ranks 3rd in school history, trailing Stetson Bennett, 4,127 in 2022 and Aaron Murray, 3,893 in 2012.
*Shredded No. 18 Tennessee on 24-for-30 passing for 298 yards and three touchdowns and converted nine of 13 third downs.
* Directed a 52-17 rout of No. 9 Ole Miss behind 18-of-25 passing for 306 yards and two touchdowns. Georgia tallied a season-high 611 total yards again OM.
* 21 of 32 attempts for 254 yards and two TDs in 30-21 win over No. 12 Missouri.
* Led the Bulldogs' to a 43-20 win over Florida in his hometown of Jacksonville, Fla. He was 19-for-28 for 315 yards and two touchdowns with no INTs to be one of the Manning Award Stars of the Week.
* Became the first Bulldog QB since 2013 (Aaron Murray) to have three straight games of at least 300 yards passing after he went 28-for-35 for 389 yards for four touchdowns (all career highs) in the win over No. 20 Kentucky. He completed his first 13 passes (158 yards, 2 TDs), which ranks third in school history.
* During Georgia's last three possessions against Auburn, Beck was 12-for-15 for 201 yards and one TD. He directed three scoring drives that covered 98, 71 and 75 yards during his first SEC road contest that resulted in a 27-20 win over the Tigers.
* Led Bulldogs to a 24-14 win over USC in the 2023 SEC opener after trailing 14-3 at halftime; posted a then career-high 27-for-35 for 269 yards.

Look At The Specialists

* Freshman Peyton Woodring has attempted all field goals and PATs this season and was a Lou Groza Award semifinalist. He has a team-high 125 points going 21-for-25 on field goals and 62-for-62 on PATs.
* Ranks 8th nationally in Scoring and 3rd among kickers. His 125 points currently ranks 6th best in school history for a kicker.
* Made 16 consecutive field goals, which ranked second best in school history before the streak ended on a 50-yard attempt that hit the upright during the SECCG.
* Woodring has set the Bulldog Freshman Record for Most Points Kicking. The old mark was 95 by Blair Walsh in 2008 when Georgia finished 10-3.
* With the Bulldogs down 7-0 in the opening period, Woodring drilled a 42 yarder at No. 18 Tennessee to help jumpstart the offense.
* Against No. 12 Missouri, he totaled 12 points after drilling all three of his field goals and going 3-for-3 on PATs. His FGs included a career-long 48 yarder to give the Bulldogs' a nine-point cushion at 30-21 with 3:57 left. He was named the SEC Special Teams Player of the Week following the game.
* Woodring has earned SEC Freshman of the Week following wins over AU, #20 UK and VU. He had a season high 15 points in the win over the Wildcats and was named one of the Lou Groza Award's Stars of the Week.
* In his first road game, he connected on two field goals in the win at Auburn.
* Tallied three field goals, including a then career-long 44 yarder, and was 4-for-4 on PATs during a windy victory at Vanderbilt.
* First true freshman Bulldog PK to start a season since Marshall Morgan in 2012.
* Australian punter Brett Thorson, who earned All-SEC Freshman honors in 2022, has a 43.7 average on 31 punts this year, including 20 that resulted in fair catches.
* Pinned the Gators on their own 18, 9 and 6 yard line during the Bulldogs' rout.
* Named to the Ray Guy Award's Ray's 8 following his game versus UT Martin.
* Georgia did not punt at Vanderbilt for the first time since 2022 (Kent State).

Did You Know? Georgia is the only team in the FBS that has not allowed a punt return this season. Coach Smart credits the entire punting unit including gunners Arian Smith and Dominic Lovett along with the coaching staff for their efforts here. The Bulldogs rank fourth nationally in Fewest Punt Return Yards Allowed at 0.0 (three schools have allowed negative punt return yards).

* Senior William Mote handles the snapping duties on special teams. He has gotten the nod at snapper for the last 53 games dating back to the 2020 season.
* Entering 2023, junior Jared Zirkel was 1-for-1 in career field goals (21-yarder at USC last year) and had nine career kickoffs. This year, Zirkel has handled all 95 kickoffs with 62 touchbacks and three going out of bounds.
* Redshirt sophomore Mekhi Mews has been the primary returner with a 26.8 average on 15 KOR and a 10.3 average on 20 PR. He had a 69-yard PR for a TD in the win over Ball State. In the win over Tech, Mews had three KOR for 76 yards.
* True freshman Anthony Evans III has two punt returns for 34 yards this year, including a 28 yarder in the SECCG.

Turnover Margin

The Bulldogs are -1 in Turnover Margin. They have 12 interceptions. Last year, the Bulldogs had 12 picks in 15 games. The Bulldogs had a three INT game against Ball State this year. Freshman DB Kyron Jones also took a tipped ball back for an INT score in the 2023 season opener. Did You Know? Georgia recovered its only fumble this year in the 43-20 rout of Florida on Oct. 28.

Going For It

Georgia is third nationally with a 80 percent success rate on 4th Down Conversions this season, going 8-for-10 with three TDs. The scores came on a 4th-and-goal from the 7 against No. 20 UK, a 4th-and-1 from the Gator 2 and a 4th-and-goal from the 1 versus No. 8 UA. Georgia ranks 91st in its 4th Down Conversion Defense as opponents have been successful 57 percent of the time (16-for-28, no TDs).

In the Kirby Smart era, the Bulldogs have converted on 4th down 62 percent of the time (62-for-100) with 10 TDs while opponents are converting at a 42 percent rate (79-for-188).

Block That Punt...Block That Kick

Currently, there are four Bulldogs who have blocked a kick/punt:

* True freshman DB Joenel Aguero blocked a Florida punt that resulted in a safety this season.
* In 2022, DL Nazir Stackhouse blocked a field goal that was returned 96 yards for a touchdown by teammate Chris Smith in the opening quarter of the SEC Championship Game versus No. 14 LSU.
* OLB Jalon Walker blocked a punt that resulted in a safety versus Kent State last year.
* S Dan Jackson blocked a punt against No. 8 Arkansas in 2021.

Polling Place

At 12-1, the Bulldogs are in the No. 6 spot in the Associated Press Top 25. In fact, the Bulldogs have the longest active run of top-10 rankings now with 48. Georgia began the 2023 season ranked No. 1 and remained there until dropping to No. 6 following the SEC Championship Game in December.

* The Bulldogs' 24-week streak of No. 1 ranked appearances was second best all-time in NCAA history.

* Georgia was the No. 1 ranked team in the 2023 AP preseason Top 25. The Bulldogs became the first team besides Alabama or Clemson to be preseason ranked No. 1 since Ohio State in 2015. The only other time the Bulldogs have been preseason ranked No. 1 in the AP poll came in 2008.

* Georgia started the 2021 season ranked No. 5 and went on to win its first national title since 1980. The Bulldogs followed up with a perfect season in 2022 after starting in the No. 3 spot in the preseason poll.

* Overall, Georgia has been ranked in the AP top 25 for 113 consecutive weeks and that ranks third among active streaks.

* UGA dropped to No. 6 in the US LBM Coaches Poll and also the FWAA Super 16 Poll.

Georgia Claims Third Straight SEC East Title

Georgia captured its 13th SEC Eastern Division title in school history including the sixth in the Kirby Smart era. Georgia has won the East the past three seasons along with three in a row from 2017-19 under Smart. Since the league went to divisions in 1992, the Bulldogs have won 10 division titles outright and shared three others.

Trifecta Of Undefeated SEC Regular Seasons

*In 2021, Georgia posted its first perfect 8-0 mark in league play in school history. The SEC went to eight games when it split into divisions in 1992.

*The average margin of victory in the 2021 SEC games was 31.9 points.

*The 2022 Bulldogs followed it up with another 8-0 SEC mark, and the average margin of victory in those games was 25.5.

*The 2023 Bulldogs made it three straight 8-0 league seasons (the only SEC school ever to accomplish that feat), and the average margin of victory in those was 20.9.

*In school history, Georgia now has gone undefeated in league play 10 times.

Georgia dropped to 4-7 in SEC Championship Games (SECCG) following its latest appearance this year. The Bulldogs won the SECCG in 2002 (Arkansas), 2005 (LSU), 2017 (Auburn) and 2022 (LSU). Overall, the Bulldogs have captured 14 SEC titles, which ranks second most among conference teams.

Former two-time All-SEC running back Knowshon Moreno (2007-08) was honored as the 2023 Georgia Legend at this year's SECCG. The 12th pick of the first round by Denver in 2009, he played six seasons in the NFL.

BULLDOG FAMILY

Coach Smart credits retention is the key to sustaining success. He has pointed out that 26 UGA grads are a part of his 2023 staff. Also, every full-time coach on the 2023 staff was on last year's national championship staff.

He added that this is in part to having a supportive administration and a great culture of people wanting to be a part of the program.

Academic & Community Service Highlights In The Smart Era

* The University of Georgia checked in at No. 16 in U.S. News & World Report's 2023 ranking of the best public universities in the nation, marking the seventh consecutive year that UGA has placed in the top 20. Georgia is one of only two SEC institutions to rank among the top 20.

* In 2022, three-time All-America tight end Brock Bowers was named an Academic All-American.

* Overall, Georgia has had 199 players make the SEC Academic Honor Roll in the Kirby Smart era including a high of 35 on the 2021 national championship team.

* Under Smart, 13 Bulldogs have been named National Football Foundation (NFF) Hampshire Society Members. The society is comprised of football players from all divisions who maintained a cumulative GPA of 3.2 or better throughout their career, were starters or significant contributors and have completed their final year of playing eligibility. The most recent members are Ladd McConkey, Jack Podlesny and Payne Walker in 2023.

* McConkey became the 15th Bulldog to be named a Campbell Trophy finalist and NFF National Scholar-Athlete Award winner. He will receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship and was honored in Las Vegas on Dec. 5. Georgia leads the SEC and is tied for sixth nationally with its 15 honorees.

* In the area community service, McConkey recently became the 23rd Bulldog since 1992 to earn a spot on the AFCA Good Works Team, which honors 22 men annually. Since 2016, the Bulldogs have had seven, including Kearis Jackson in 2022, and Georgia's 23 recipients leads the nation.

* McConkey became the first Bulldog to win the Wuerffel Trophy for his dedication to serving others in 2023.

* A large number of the 2023 squad participated in the Chick-fil-A Dawg Bowl in October, which was a fundraiser led by former Bulldog head coach Mark Richt to raise money and awareness for Parkinson's and Crohn's diseases. The event raised more than $750,000.

* Former Bulldog defensive lineman Travon Walker, who was the No. 1 overall draft pick in 2022 (Jacksonville) recently donated $44,000 to the UGA Athletic Association with the money earmarked for athletic training. It was a part of a series of donations made by his foundation.

* Former All-American and NFL linebacker Jarvis Jones, who currently serves as UGA football's Player Connection Coordinator, is one of three former Bulldog greats selected to the 2023 Athletic Association's Circle of Honor Class. It is the highest honor a Bulldog can receive.

* NFL veteran offensive lineman Fernando Velasco (UGA 2003-07), who served as an Assistant Director of Player Development for UGA from 2017-19, was named to UGA's 40 Under 40 Class of 2023. Currently, he is Director of Player Development for the Atlanta Falcons.

* In September of 2020, it was announced that Kirby and Mary Beth Smart contributed $1 million to UGA to go towards the Athletic Association's new social justice program, scholarships for senior athletes whose seasons were affected by the pandemic and the expansion of the football program.

Development Leads Bulldogs To NFL Career

☛ Georgia's 25 players drafted in the NFL the past two seasons is the most by a single school in consecutive drafts in the modern era (since 1967).

☛ Georgia had a record 15 players selected in the 2022 draft including five in the first round starting with the No. 1 overall pick, Travon Walker, DL (Jacksonville).

☛ Ten Bulldogs were selected in the 2023 NFL draft with three in the first round.

☛ In the Kirby Smart era, 55 Bulldogs have been selected in the NFL Draft.

No. 1 Georgia 48, UT Martin 7

Sept. 2, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – Two-time defending national champion Georgia opened its 2023 season by rolling past UT Martin, 48-7, in front of a sold-out crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium and an SEC+ television audience.

Georgia finished with 559 yards of offense while the defense repeatedly stuffed UT Martin, holding it to 260 total yards. Making his first start, quarterback Carson Beck completed 21 of 31 passes for 294 yards and threw a 54-yard touchdown. He also ran for a four-yard TD late in the second quarter. Beck's top target was tight end Brock Bowers, who finished with five catches for 77 yards and scored on a three-yard run.

The Bulldogs' first points came on Bowers' run, a jet sweep to the right side. Kicker Peyton Woodring made his Bulldog debut on the point-after attempt, putting Georgia up 7-0 with 3:40 remaining in the first quarter.

Georgia's next points didn't come until the 4:29 mark of the second quarter when Beck ran the ball in from the 4. Later in the quarter, Woodring connected on a 23-yard field goal for a 17-0 lead at the half.

Midway through the third quarter, Beck threw a short pass to redshirt sophomore receiver Mekhi Mews who turned it into a 54-yard touchdown and a 24-0 lead with 8:29 left in the quarter.

Georgia's next touchdown was set up by a 47-yard completion to redshirt freshman wideout C.J. Smith up the left side and a 25-yarder to Mews. Freshman running back Roderick Robinson finished the drive with a two-yard touchdown for a 31-0 lead with 5:35 left in the third.

Backup quarterback Brock Vandagriff provided some fourth-quarter fireworks when he connected with junior wideout Rara Thomas for a 56-yard gain. On the next play, Vandagriff found tight end Oscar Delp for a 21-yard touchdown that made it 38-0 with 11:36 remaining.

After Woodring made it 41-7 Bulldogs with a 33-yard field goal with 2:09 to play, Georgia's final points came from the defense when freshman STAR Byron Jones intercepted a pass and returned it 26 yards for a touchdown with 1:59 remaining.

The win was the Bulldogs' 18th in a row overall, 19th in a row on Dooley Field, and Georgia tied the school record for regular-season wins in a row with its 28th, matching the great run of the 1981-83 teams.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"You talk about decision-making, (quarterback Carson Beck) did exactly what he did all camp. He didn't put us in bad situations, he made good decisions, he didn't throw it to the other team, he didn't fumble it. He did some really good things. We have to execute better around him and we have to have some guys make some plays and make some guys miss. That's what we missed early, but when we got on rhythm and starting doing our offense, we did some pretty good things."

Mehki Mews had a game-high 125 all-purpose yards against UT Martin, including 54 on a TD reception in the third quarter.

- Brock Bowers (TE), Sedrick Van Pran (C), Javon Bullard (S) and Jamon Dumas-Johnson (ILB) served as the captains.
- There were three first-time starters on defense: junior Chaz Chambliss (OLB), redshirt sophomore Xavian Sorey (ILB) and sophomore Daylen Everette (CB). There were five first-time starters on offense: junior Carson Beck (QB), sophomore Oscar Delp (TE), redshirt-freshman Earnest Greene III (LT), redshirt sophomore Mekhi Mews (WR) and junior Arian Smith (WR). Also, true freshman Peyton Woodring (PK) made his debut.
- Senior Xavier Truss wore No. 77 (Devin Willock's number) in the UT Martin game in honor of his late teammate. A different Bulldog offensive lineman will wear No. 77 each game this season.
- Georgia has now won 10 straight season openers, including all eight under Kirby Smart. Georgia began the season at home for the first time since 2018 versus Austin Peay. Since then, the Bulldogs kicked off the season with at Vanderbilt, at Arkansas, versus No. 3 Clemson in Charlotte and against No. 11 Oregon in Atlanta.
- The UT Martin game was the official debut of UGA XI or "Boom," who was introduced at the 2023 G-Day game.
- Freshman Kyron Jones registered a pick-six covering 26 yards, the 28th score on either defense or special teams in the Kirby Smart era. It was the first Bulldog pick-six since Kelee Ringo's 79-yarder to help clinch the CFP national championship against top-ranked Alabama on Jan. 10, 2022.

No. 1 Georgia 45, Ball State 3

Sept. 9, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – Six different players scored touchdowns, the defense intercepted three passes and Mekhi Mews returned a punt 69 yards for a score in top-ranked Georgia's 45-3 win over Ball State, in front of a Sanford Stadium sell-out crowd of 92,746 and a SEC Network television audience

After a scoreless opening quarter, the Bulldogs put 31 on the scoreboard in the second to blow open the game. On the third play of the second period, Mews caught a low, line-drive punt, scooted to his right and went untouched on a 69-yard return for a touchdown.

Georgia's defense made the next big play in the game when safety Malaki Starks intercepted a deep ball up the left side. The Bulldog offense took full advantage of the turnover, scoring on a 7-yard pass from Beck to Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint on third-and-goal.

Less than a minute later, linebacker Chaz Chambliss snagged a deflected pass and pulled in his first career interception. Two plays later, wideout Dillon Bell, lined up in the backfield, took a handoff, cut to the outside and sprinted into the end zone for a 21-yard touchdown and a 21-0 lead.

After the defense got another quick stop, the offense worked its way down the field before eventually settling for a 35-yard Peyton Woodring field goal, making it 24-0 with 1:49 on the clock.

Just eight seconds later, STAR Tykee Smith intercepted a pass broken up by Daylen Everette. The Bulldogs turned the takeaway into another touchdown when running back Kendall Milton went over the top from the 1, pushing Georgia ahead 31-0 with 37 seconds left until halftime.

The Bulldogs' fifth touchdown of the day was a 27-yard strike into the back right corner of the end zone from Beck to running back Cash Jones.

Georgia's defense got a stop on fourth-and-1 inside UGA territory late in the third quarter. On the first play of the ensuing drive, running back Roderick Robinson went right for 14 yards. That was followed by a 41-yard completion from Beck to tight end Oscar Delp. On first down on the 12, Robinson scooted in for an easy score with 46 seconds left in the third.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"You're always looking for something, Defense turns to offense. It's like basketball, when you play good defense, you get transition offense. When you play good defense and special teams, you can transition that to offense. We started getting momentum there as the defense got stops and then eventually we got them into a long-yardage situation and we were able to return the punt (for a touchdown). That gave the crowd some juice and our players some juice."

Tykee Smith collected Georgia's third interception late in the first half, leading to the Bulldogs' fourth TD of the second quarter.

- Mekhi Mews' 69-yard punt return for a TD in the 2nd quarter was the first by a Bulldog since 2018 when Mecole Hardman had a 70-yarder against Middle Tennessee.
- Twelve different Bulldogs caught a pass against Ball State, with nine of those recording multiple receptions. Redshirt sophomore running back Cash Jones collected his first career receiving TD, a 27-yarder to make it 38-0 with 6:27 left in the third quarter.
- Georgia scored 21 points off three turnovers – all second quarter interceptions – while the Cardinals failed to score following their one INT.

No. 1 Georgia 24, South Carolina 14

Sept. 16, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – The top-ranked Georgia football team had to work for its first SEC win of the season, rallying from 14-3 down at halftime to defeat South Carolina, 24-14, in front of a Sanford Stadium capacity crowd of 92,746 and a CBS national television audience.

The Bulldogs scored three rushing touchdowns in the second half, and its defense ramped up its pressure on Gamecocks quarterback Spencer Rattler to shift the momentum of the game. Georgia came up with two interceptions in the fourth quarter to help seal the program's 20th win in a row.

Quarterback Carson Beck was 13 of 18 for 98 yards in the first half, and finished the game 27 of 35 for 269 yards. The Bulldogs out-gained the Gamecocks 458-309, including a 189-53 advantage on the ground. Running back Daijun Edwards, in his first action of the season due to injury, led the way with 118 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries.

The Bulldogs trailed for the first time this season after Rattler threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Antwane Wells for a 7-0 lead with 9:56 left in the first quarter. Georgia was able to cut into the lead on its first drive, which ended with a 31-yard Peyton Woodring field goal with 2:02 remaining in the period.

South Carolina seized the momentum right before the half with an 80-yard touchdown drive capped by a two-yard Dakereon Joyner run with 1:00 on the clock.

Georgia received the kickoff to start the second half and went right to work offensively. Powered by a 36-yard completion from Beck to wideout Rara Thomas and a 15-yard run from Kendall Milton, and then capped by a seven-yard touchdown run by Edwards, Georgia cut the South Carolina lead to 14-10 with 12:20 remaining in the third. The offense kept rolling on its second possession of the quarter, marching 49 yards for a 17-14 lead on wideout Dillon Bell's three-yard touchdown run.

Running back Cash Jones closed out Georgia's next drive with a 13-yard run up the right side for the score, giving the Bulldogs a 24-14 lead with 9:10 remaining. Safeties Dan Jackson and Tykee Smith intercepted Rattler passes in the final five minutes to seal the victory.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"The message at halftime was: win one moment at a time, win one moment at a time. If you can win one moment at a time, we can get ourselves back in this thing. ... I told them at halftime, 'Look guys, it's going to happen very simply: one moment at a time.' And they believed it. They kept saying 'one moment, one moment, one moment.' We gained so much momentum in the second half thanks to our fans and thanks to our players making some plays."

Running back Daijun Edwards ran for 118 yards and a touchdown in his first game of the season.

- USC tallied 180 yards on 26 plays in the first half for a 14-3 advantage, but then the Bulldogs blanked the Gamecocks the rest of the way. USC finished with 309 yards on 58 plays. Coming in to today, Georgia had allowed just 10 points on the year.
- With today's 24-14 win, top-ranked Georgia has extended its school record for consecutive victories now to 20. The streak began during the 2021 season (Dec. 31) when the Bulldogs beat #2 Michigan 34-11 in a CFP semifinal at the Capital One Orange Bowl.
- The top-ranked Bulldogs trailed at the half (14-3) for the first time this season and first time since last year's CFP semifinal Peach Bowl in Atlanta against Ohio State 28-24. Georgia rallied for a 42-41 win against the Buckeyes. The last time Georgia failed to score a TD in the first half was last year's Missouri road game when it fell behind 16-6 and eventually rallied for a 26-22 win. The last time Georgia score only three points in the first half was at the 2019 SEC Championship game when it trailed LSU 17-3 and lost 37-10. Today, Georgia came back to win 24-14.
- Senior Tramel Walthour (DL) along with juniors Carson Beck (QB), Kamari Lassiter (DB) and Sedrick Van Pran (C) served as the game captains. Georgia won the toss and elected to defer the football until the 2nd half. There were two first-time starters in junior David Daniel-Sisavanh (S) and senior Daijun Edwards (TB). Edwards had appeared in 39 games coming in today and this was his first action of the season. Junior center Sedrick Van Pran made his team-leading 33rd career start.

No. 1 Georgia 49, UAB 21

Sept. 23, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — Quarterback Carson Beck and tight end Brock Bowers combined for a big night at Sanford Stadium, connecting nine times for 120 yards and two touchdowns in the top-ranked Georgia Bulldogs' 49-21 win over UAB, in front of a capacity crowd of 92,746 and an SEC Network national television audience.

After Georgia took a 28-14 lead into halftime, the Bulldogs (4-0) dominated the third quarter, stretching their lead to 42-14. Beck was done for the night by the end of the third, finishing 22 of 32 for a career-high 337 yards and three touchdowns.

Offensively, Georgia outgained the Blazers 581-336, getting 393 yards through the air and 188 on the ground. Defensively, Georgia held UAB (1-3) to 4.4 yards per play. Eleven different Bulldogs had at least three tackles.

After being held without a touchdown in the first quarter of their previous two games, the Bulldogs went 75 yards for a TD on their opening drive. The first play of the game was a 33-yard completion from Beck to wideout Dominic Lovett, and the drive ended on a screen pass to Arian Smith, who ran for a 12-yard score and a 7-0 lead.

The Blazers forced a turnover late in the first quarter and tied the game in the second on a 16-yard touchdown pass. Georgia responded quickly with a touchdown drive to regain the momentum. On first down from the 4, running back Daijun Edwards carried the ball in for a 14-7 lead with 10:00 on the clock.

Bowers made it 21-7 late in the second quarter with a 41-yard touchdown catch. On UAB's next play, Georgia STAR Tykee Smith picked off a pass at the Blazer 25. It was Smith's third interception in as many games. Four plays later, Edwards ran the ball in from the 3 for his second TD of the game, putting Georgia ahead 28-7 with 1:26 remaining in the half.

The Blazers moved the ball down to the Bulldog 2-yard line in the final seconds of the half, cutting the Georgia lead to 28-14 with a two-yard touchdown.

Georgia scored twice in the third quarter, first on a 1-yard Beck run and later on a 10-yard touchdown catch from Bowers, pushing the lead to 42-14. It was Bowers' fifth career game with at least 100 yards receiving and two touchdowns.

With 9:05 left in the game, running back SeVaughn Clark ran the ball in from the 7 for his first career touchdown, making it a 49-14 game. Zeno ran the ball in from the 3 with 6:08 remaining, cutting the Bulldog led to 49-21.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"It's an honor (to win for the 85th time in 100 games as head coach). It takes a great organization, and we have one. We have an incredible academic setup. We have a wonderful university that people want to attend. We have great leadership in our president and athletic director. It's easy to be successful when you have the setup that we have."

Tight end Brock Bowers had nine catches for 120 yards and two touchdowns in the win over UAB.

No. 1 Georgia 27, Auburn 20

Sept. 30, 2023 • Jordan-Hare Stadium • Auburn, Ala.

AUBURN, Ala. – In its first road contest of the season, the top-ranked Georgia football team came from behind to defeat Auburn, 27-20, Saturday afternoon before 88,043 spectators at Jordan-Hare Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

Quarterback Carson Beck finished 23-for-33 for 313 yards and one touchdown. Tight end Brock Bowers led all receivers with eight catches for a career-high 157 yards, including a 40-yarder for the game-winning score, while running back Daijun Edwards rushed 19 times for a team-high 76 yards and two touchdowns. Linebacker Smael Mondon, Jr. tied his career high with 11 tackles, including seven solo stops and two tackles for loss.

The Tigers struck first with a 27-yard field goal that was set up by quarterback Payton Thorne's 61-yard run to the Georgia 30. Auburn then converted a Beck interception into points, taking a 10-0 lead on Jarquez Hunter's 5-yard touchdown run.

Georgia answered back on the ensuing drive, capping an 11-play drive with a 2-yard Edwards run for a touchdown. On their next drive, the Bulldogs drove into red zone before kicker Peyton Woodring connected from 37 yards out to tie the game at 10 with 5:57 to go before halftime.

Auburn produced its second turnover of the game seconds into the third quarter, forcing a fumble by tight end Oscar Delp. The Tigers started at the UGA 32-yard line and scored soon after on a 9-yard run by backup QB Robby Ashford, putting Auburn up 17-10.

Later in the third, after a 71-yard Auburn punt was downed at the 2, the Bulldogs marched 98 yards for a touchdown. Edwards ran for 16 yards to give Georgia some breathing room, and then scored on a 13-yard run to make it 17-17 with 1:03 left in the quarter.

After completions of 37 and 28 yards to Bowers moved the ball into Auburn territory, Woodring gave Georgia its first lead, 20-17, on a 38-yard field goal with 10:57 left in thee game. Auburn later drew even on a 42-yard kick by Alex McPherson with 6:21 remaining.

Georgia took the lead for good, 27-20, when Beck hit Bowers for a 40-yard touchdown pass with 2:52 left in the game.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"They are resilient as hell and competed. The leadership of this team has shown twice. You don't know how many times you are going to be able to do that when you turn the ball over and give people extra possessions. You just can't do that. Good football teams don't do that, and good football teams don't let people run the ball on them for 200 yards. That is one of the things we knew they would do well. I thought they really ran the ball well, and they used the quarterback and rushed the ball on us. We can't do that. We have to run the ball better, too. But, proud of the way the guys fought."

Tight end Brock Bowers caught eight passes for a career-high 157 yards, including a 40-yarder for a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

- For the second time this season, the Bulldogs put together a 98-yard touchdown drive. The first came against UT Martin in the season opener. Against Auburn, Georgia trailed 17-10 in the third quarter when it began the 10-play march toward the end zone. Running back Daijun Edwards scored on a 13-yard run to tie the game.
- Linebacker Smael Mondon Jr. led the Bulldog defense with 11 tackles, including two for loss, and safety Javon Bullard added a career-high 10 stops, including nine solo. Five Bulldogs had at least five tackles, including safety Malaki Starks, who also sealed the win with a late interception, his second of the season.
- With the win, the Bulldogs extended their winning streak to 22 games, dating back to a win over Michigan in a College Football Playoff semifinal at the Capital One Orange Bowl on Dec. 31, 2021. The victory was also Georgia's 32nd straight regular-season win. In addition, it was the Bulldogs' 21st SEC regular-season win in a row, a streak that began win a 31-24 win over Mississippi State on Nov. 21, 2020.
- Georgia's captains were senior receiver Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint, junior center Sedrick Van Pran, junior linebacker Jamon Dumas-Johnson and junior cornerback Kamari Lassiter. The Bulldogs won the coin toss and deferred to the second half.
- With the win, Georgia now holds a 64-56-8 edge in the series with Auburn, including winning the past seven meetings. It's the longest streak of success since the record nine-game streak from 1923-31.

No. 1 Georgia 51, No. 20 Kentucky 13

Oct. 7, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – Carson Beck threw for a career-high 389 yards and four touchdowns, the Georgia defense shut down what had been a prolific rushing attack, and the top-ranked Bulldogs won a battle of unbeatens, 51-13, against No. 20 Kentucky on Saturday night in front of a sellout crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium and a national television audience on ESPN.

With the victory, Georgia (6-0, 3-0 SEC) extended its overall winning streak to 23 games. In addition, it was the Bulldogs' 33rd straight regular-season win, its 22nd straight SEC regular-season win, and it was the team's 23rd win in a row on Dooley Field.

Kentucky (5-1, 2-1) came in fresh off a 33-14 rout of Florida last week in which the Wildcats ran for 329 yards. But the Bulldogs held the Wildcats to 55 yards on the ground and 183 yards of total offense.

Georgia's offense, meanwhile, scored on every possession in the first half, including three straight touchdowns to start the game. The Bulldogs finished with 608 yards for the game, with Beck completing 28 of 35 passes.

Tight end Brock Bowers had seven receptions for 132 yards — his third straight 100-yard game — and a touchdown. Running back Daijun Edwards was productive as a runner and receiver, combining for 105 yards.

On Georgia's first drive. Beck completed all four of his passes, starting with a 7-yard screen to Edwards on first down and ending with a 40-yard completion to wideout Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint to make it 7-0 with 11:26 to play in the quarter.

After the defense forced the first of eight Kentucky punts, Beck kept hitting his receivers, including a 25-yarder to Bowers. Later, Beck hit Rara Thomas in the front left corner of the end zone for a 15-yard touchdown and a 14-0 lead with 4:25 remaining in the first.

After another Georgia stop, the Bulldogs got the ball at their 5. A 12-play, 95-yard drive followed, ending with a short touchdown pass to tight end Oscar Delp to make it 21-0. Kentucky scored on its next drive, but Georgia didn't led the Wildcats make it a game. A 36-yard Peyton Woodring field goal made it 24-7 Bulldogs, and soon after, Kendall Milton's 5-yard touchdown run made it 31-7 with 61 seconds left in the half.

Kentucky tried to get aggressive in the final minute, but it backfired. Georgia's defense forced a quick punt and Woodring drilled a 42-yard field goal as the half expired, sending UGA to the locker room up 34-7.

In the second half, Georgia got a 32-yard field goal from Woodring, a 21-yard touchdown catch from Bowers and a 7-yard touchdown catch from Andrew Paul.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"It was an electric crowd and it energized our players. Our players started fast, finally, and that was great to get a start-fast game. We challenged them all week to have a connected physicality. We really wanted to be connected because we felt like we could be more physical if we were together. We talked all week about mass and acceleration equal force. We wanted to have a lot of mass and a lot of acceleration."

Wide receiver Rara Thomas had five catches for 63 yards, including this 15-yarder for a touchdown.

- Georgia extended its school-record winning streak to 23 games. In addition, it was the Bulldogs' 33rd straight regular-season win, its 22nd straight SEC regular-season win, and it was the program's 23rd win in a row on Dooley Field. The school record for home wins in a row is 24, set during the 1980-83 seasons.
- Quarterback Carson Beck set career highs with 389 passing yards and four touchdowns. Beck is the first Georgia QB since Aaron Murray in 2013 to have three straight 300-yard passing games. He threw for 338 against UAB and 313 at Auburn. Beck started fast, completing his first 13 passes for 158 yards and two touchdowns.
- Tight end Brock Bowers finished with seven catches for 132 yards, including a 49-yard reception and a 21-yarder for a touchdown. Bowers, a junior, now has 2,369 career receiving yards, which ranks sixth in school history, His 24 receiving touchdowns rank second. This was his 10th career 100-yard game and third in a row.
- Georgia's captains for the Kentucky game were quarterback Carson Bench, wide receiver Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint, linebacker Smael Mondon Jr. and defensive end Mykel Williams. Kentucky won the coin toss and deferred to the second half, so Georgia received the opening kick and drove for the first of four first-half touchdowns.

No. 1 Georgia 37, Vanderbilt 20

Oct. 14, 2023 • FirstBank Stadium • Nashville, Tenn.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — The top-ranked Georgia football team got three field goals from kicker Peyton Woodring and ran for 281 yards in the Bulldogs' 37-20 win over Vanderbilt on Saturday afternoon in front of a crowd of 28,500 at First-Bank Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

Carson Beck completed 29 of 39 passes for 261 yards and a touchdown, while Daijun Edwards ran for a career-high 146 yards and helped seal the win with a 1-yard score with 3:13 left in the game.

Vanderbilt struck first, scoring on a 49-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Ken Seals to wideout London Humphreys with 12:07 left in the first.

Georgia escaped trouble on its next drive when center Sedrick Van Pran picked up a botched handoff on third-and-1 and ran for 6 yards and a first down. Beck later scored on a 1-yard plunge to make it 7-7.

Georgia's defense forced a Vandy punt on the ensuing drive, and the Bulldog offense went 77 yards for a touchdown and the lead. Beck connected with wideout Ladd McConkey on completions of 31 and 13 yards to move the ball into Vandy territory, and Milton later finished off the drive with a 3-yard run to make it 14-7.

The Bulldogs added to their lead late in the second quarter with Woodring's 31-yard field, making it 17-7 with 3:49 left in the half. Woodring later added a career-long 44-yarder and a 30-yarder.

In the final minute of the first half, after a Tykee Smith interception, Georgia went after more points. Two long completions moved the ball to the 5 with 19 seconds left. Two plays later, Beck and Dominic Lovett connected on a 4-yard touchdown, pushing the Bulldog lead to 24-7.

Vandy cut the Bulldog lead to 27-14 on the first play of the fourth quarter, scoring on a 3-yard pass from Seals to receiver Richie Hoskins. Woodring's 30-yarder made it 30-14 with 9:05 left in the game.

The Commodores' CJ Taylor intercepted Beck with 6:17 to go in the game and returned the ball to the Bulldog 1. On the next play, Sedrick Alexander scored to cut Georgia's lead to 30-20.

Edwards ran the ball all five plays, including a 62-yarder down to the 6-yard line, on Georgia's final scoring drive.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"Once again, we come to Nashville and it feels like a home game. We had a lot of UGA red in the stands. When we came out for warmups, it was not as crowded, and then when we came out for the main part of the game, there was a sea of red there as we came across the field — and a lot of red on their side — so I was really appreciative of our fans making it like a home game. And I'm really proud of our players being really resilient and fighting through some turnovers, some adversity, some sloppy play, some injuries. But at the end of the day, they responded and they got up to play on the road in the SEC, so I'm proud of them for that."

Linebacker Smael Mondon brings down Vandy quarterback Ken Seals during the Bulldogs' 37-20 win. Mondon led UGA with six stops.

- Georgia extended its school-record winning streak to 24 games, which is the fourth-longest streak in SEC history. The Bulldogs also tied a program record with their 23rd straight SEC regular-season win. Georgia also won 23 SEC games in a row from 1980-83. The Bulldogs also extended their school-record run of regular-season wins to 34.
- Senior running back Daijun Edwards rushed for a career-high 146 yards on 20 carries, including a career-long 62-yard gain in the 4th quarter, when he carried the ball on every play of a five-play touchdown drive to put the game away.. Edwards had the most rushing yards by a Bulldog since D'Andre Swift went for 179 against Kentucky in 2019. As a team, Georgia rushed for a season-high 281 yards and averaged 7.2 yards per carry.
- The Bulldogs dominated time of possession (37:19-22:41), first downs (25-9), total yardage (542-219) and total plays (78-44). Vandy's 44 plays were the fewest by an opponent during the Kirby Smart era.
- The opening-drive touchdown by the Commodores marked the first points Vandy had scored against Georgia since 2019, when the Bulldogs won 30-6. The teams didn't play in 2020 due to the pandemic, and Georgia won the 2021 and '22 games by a combined score of 117-0.
- The captains against Vanderbilt were running back Kendall Milton, offensive lineman Tate Ratledge, defensive lineman Zion Logue and safety Malaki Starks. Georgia won the toss and deferred to the second half.

No. 1 Georgia 43, Florida 20

Oct. 28, 2023 • EverBank Stadium • Jacksonville, Fla.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — No. 1-ranked Georgia scored 36 unanswered points during one stretch and rolled to a 43-20 win over Florida on Saturday afternoon in front of a crowd of 76,251 at EverBank Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

Georgia extended its school-record win streak to 25 games and set a new record with its 24th straight SEC regular-season victory. The Bulldog offense piled up 486 yards, the defense posted a season-high five sacks and eight tackles for loss, and Georgia also scored on a safety after a blocked punt by Joenel Aguero.

Florida got the ball first and took a 7-0 lead on a 25-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Graham Mertz to Eugene Wilson III. Georgia answered with a 22-yard Peyton Woodring field goal.

Georgia's defense held the Gators without points on eight straight drives after allowing the opening score. Defensive back Javon Bullard led the way with seven tackles, while linebacker Smael Mondon, Jr. had five stops, including two tackles for loss with a sack.

Georgia forced the Gators to punt on their next possession, with linebacker Jalon Walker sacking and stripping Mertz for a loss of 13 yards on third down. On the Bulldogs' next drive, Carson Beck hit Ladd McConkey for a 41-yard touchdown, putting Georgia ahead 10-7 with 1:23 remaining in the first.

The Bulldogs started their next drive at the Florida 31 after Mondon stopped Trevor Etienne for a loss on a fourth-and-1 direct snap. Edwards later scored on a 20-yard run, giving Georgia a 17-7 lead.

Georgia's defense set the offense up in Florida territory minutes later. After Jamon Dumas-Johnson sacked Mertz for a 9-yard loss on first down, Tyrion Ingram-Dawkins sacked and stripped Mertz on second down, and Marvin Jones Jr. recovered at the 11. Edwards later scored from the 2 to make it 24-7.

The Bulldogs' next points came on special teams, when Joenel Aguero blocked Jeremy Crawshaw's punt for a safety, pushing the lead to 26-7 with 9:26 left in the half.

A 32-yard Woodring field goal made it 29-7 with 7:05 remaining in the third quarter. And with 18 seconds left in the third, Beck hit Dillon Bell in the left corner of the end zone for a 17-yard touchdown and a 36-7 lead.

Florida made it 36-13 with a 5-yard touchdown pass with 12:29 remaining. The Bulldogs answered right back on a 1-yard Kendall Milton run that made it 43-13 with 5:57 to go. The Gators added a final touchdown on a 1-yard Mertz run with 1:20 remaining.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"I think this team's improving and getting better. We're still not where we need to be. I was certainly proud of the competitors that went out and fought today for our university, and continue to do that. I was proud of our fans; they supported us even though we didn't start the way we wanted to. But we responded and played well. We were able to control the line of scrimmage, which ultimately is the difference in this conference. If you can win the line of scrimmage, you've got a chance."

Ladd McConkey led Georgia's receivers with six receptions for 135 yards, including a 41-yard touchdown.

- With the win, Georgia extended its school-record win streak to 25 games, which ranks as the fourth longest in SEC history. In addition, the Bulldogs set a school record with their 24th straight SEC regular-season victory, which is tied for second longest in conference history. The win was also Georgia's 35th straight in the regular season.
- The win was Georgia's sixth over Florida in their last seven meetings. The Bulldogs have defeated the Gators three straight times by at least 20 points for the first time. Kirby Smart is now 6-2 against Florida.
- Ladd McConkey finished with six receptions for 135 yards and a touchdown. It was his second career 100-yard game, and his six catches and 135 yards were both career highs. Dominic Lovett's 55-yard reception was the longest of his career, and it was the longest completion of Carson Beck's career.
- The defense had a season-high five sacks, all in the first half, and a season-high eight tackles for loss. Linebacker Smael Mondon Jr. had five tackles, including two for loss. Joenel Aguero blocked a punt in the second quarter that resulted in a safety. It was the sixth safety of the Smart era and the 30th score by either the defense or special teams.
- The captains against Florida were receiver Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint, center, Sedrick Van Pran, safety Javon Bullard and linebacker Jamon Dumas-Johnson. Georgia won the toss and elected to defer.

No. 2 Georgia 30, No. 12 Missouri 21

Nov. 4, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — Georgia got a fourth-quarter interception from a 320-pound senior defensive lineman and a career-long 48-yard field goal by a freshman to help the Bulldogs pull out 30-21 win in front of 92,746 spectators at Sanford Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

The Bulldogs, ranked No. 1 in the polls all season but No. 2 in the first College Football Playoff rankings, had to battle against the Tigers, ranked No. 12, to stay undefeated. It was a 27-21 game when Nazir Stackhouse got the pivotal interception with 7:46 left. A few minutes later, Peyton Woodring made it 30-21 with the 48-yarder with 3:57 remaining.

The Bulldogs got the ball first and took a 3-0 lead on Woodring's 33-yard field goal. Missouri drove for a touchdown on its first drive, taking a 7-3 lead with 5:45 left in the quarter on Brady Cook's 39-yard TD pass to Luther Burden.

After a very quick opening quarter, Georgia started the second with a first down at the Mizzou 8-yard line after a 12-yard run by Daijun Edwards and a 13-yarder by Kendall Milton. On third-and-goal from the 6, Carson Beck fired a quick screen left to Dominic Lovett who scampered into the end zone for a 10-7 UGA lead.

Missouri tied the game with 4:14 remaining in the half on Harrison Mevis' 38-yard field goal, and it was 10-10 at the half. Mizzou got the ball to start the third and drove down to the Bulldog 15. Georgia was able to get a couple of stops — including a third-down sack by Tykee Smith — and hold the Tigers to a 42-yard field goal, putting Missouri ahead 13-10.

Georgia responded on its next drive, regaining the lead, 17-13, when Milton ran around the right side for a 15-yard touchdown. After a defensive stop, Georgia drove for a touchdown to push its lead to 24-13 with 38 seconds left in the third. Beck found Oscar Delp in the middle of the end zone for a 5-yard touchdown and an 11-point lead.

Missouri scored a touchdown on a 12-yard Cody Schrader run to the left side, and then converted a 2-point attempt to make it 24-21 with 12:50 remaining in the game. Georgia went up 27-21 with a Woodring 30-yard field goal with 8:59 to go.

Missouri was moving the ball on its next drive when Stackhouse stepped in front of a Cook pass for an interception. It was the first turnover of the game, and it came at a pivotal moment, with 7:46 remaining. It was also the first interception of Stackhouse's entire football career.

Georgia pushed its lead to 30-21 on Woodring's 48-yard field goal, making it a two-score game with 3:57 left on the clock. Bullard's interception ended Missouri's final drive.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"(The Tigers) have a really good defense. They have big defensive guys up front. They played really hard and physical. They do a great job with their defensive packages. I thought they controlled our run game more than anybody has in the last couple of weeks and that frustrated us. Luckily, we have a good enough passing arsenal where we can throw it around some."

Defensive lineman Nazir Stackhouse's fourth-quarter interception helped seal the 30-21 win for the Bulldogs.

Worth Noting…

- Georgia added to its school-record winning streak, which now sits at 26 games. The streak is now tied for the third longest in SEC history. The win was also the Bulldogs' 24th straight on Dooley Field, and the program's 25th consecutive SEC regular-season win. Georgia has also won 36 consecutive regular-season games, a streak that goes back to the 2020 season.
- Kicker Peyton Woodring connected on field goals from 30, 33 and a career-long 48 yards. The freshman has made 13 consecutive field goals over Georgia's past five games and is 17-for-20 in his first season.
- Linebackers Smael Mondon Jr. and Jamon Dumas-Johnson and defensive back Tykee Smith had seven tackles each to lead the defense, which held Missouri to 5 of 13 on third down. Both Georgia interceptions came in the fourth quarter: defensive lineman Nazir Stackhouse snared his first career INT midway through the quarter, and safely Javon Bullard's interception ended the Tigers' final drive of the game. The Bulldogs now have 11 interceptions this season.
- Georgia's captains were quarterback Carson Beck, wide receiver Ladd McConkey, Mondon and Stackhouse. Missouri won the toss and elected to defer to the second half.
- With the victory, Georgia improved to 82-18-2 all-time on Homecoming, including 3-0 against Missouri.

No. 2 Georgia 52, No. 9 Ole Miss 17

Nov. 11, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — The Georgia football team wrapped up its home schedule in emphatic fashion in front of a sellout crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium and an ESPN national television audience. The No. 2 Bulldogs piled up more than 600 yards of offense in a dominating 52-17 win over No. 9 Ole Miss in a matchup of top-10 teams. It was the Bulldogs' 27th consecutive victory and their 25th win in a row on Dooley Field.

Georgia quarterback Carson Beck threw for 306 yards and two touchdowns, while Kendall Milton ran for a career-high 127 yards and two touchdowns on just nine carries. The Bulldog offense didn't face a third down until late in the second quarter, rushed for 311 yards, and out-gained Ole Miss 610-352.

Ole Miss took a 7-0 lead on the opening drive when Quinshon Judkins ran the ball in from the Georgia 15-yard line. The Bulldogs answered quickly, going 75 yards in six plays and tying the game on Daijun Edwards' 1-yard run with 7:28 left in the first quarter.

Georgia's defense forced a turnover on downs on Ole Miss' next drive, stopping the Rebels on fourth-and-3 at the Bulldog 40. On first down of the Bulldogs' drive, Edwards gained nine yards. On the next play, he broke free for 22 yards, to the Ole Miss 29. On the next play, Beck hit wideout Ladd McConkey for a 29-yard touchdown and a 14-7 lead with 3:09 left in the quarter.

Early in the second, Ole Miss capped a 75-yard drive with a four-yard touchdown run by Judkins, tying the game at 14. Georgia, again, answered quickly, capping its 75-yard drive with a one-yard Edwards run that put the Bulldogs up 21-14 with 9:58 to play in the half. The drive was highlighted by a seven-yard reception by tight end Brock Bowers, his first catch after missing the previous two games with an ankle injury, and a 41-yard reception by McConkey down to the 2.

Georgia's defense forced an Ole Miss three-and-out, getting a 10-yard sack and stuffing two runs for no gain, and the offense took over at its 38 after a Rebel punt. On first down, Beck found Bowers for a 19-yard gain. Later, Beck connected with Edwards for 14, and Kendall Milton capped the drive with a seven-yard touchdown run, pushing the lead to 28-14 with 2:27 to play in the half.

Georgia took a 35-14 lead with 9:15 left in the third on a 33-yard touchdown run by Milton. Kicker Peyton Woodring added to the Bulldog lead with 3:50 to go in the third, booting a 27-yard field goal to make it 38-14. Less than a minute into the fourth quarter, Beck found Bowers for an eight-yard touchdown and a 45-14 lead. Running back Andrew Paul scored a four-yard touchdown with 4:12 remaining to give the Bulldogs a 52-17 lead.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"We have good players on offense and good coaches. That combination is hard. We have pass protectors and run blockers, and the backs I thought ran really hard tonight. Carson (Beck) put us in the right place. Number 19 (Bowers) and No. 84 (McConkey) are really tough to deal with. Dom (Lovett) and Rara (Thomas) did some good things. It's a cumulative effect. I'd hate to be on that defensive side trying to stop those guys."

Running back Kendall Milton rushed for a career-high 127 yards and two touchdowns against the Rebels.

- The Bulldogs extended their school-record winning streak to 27 games, won their 25th straight game on Dooley Field, won their 26th straight regular-season SEC game, and stretched their regular-season game win streak to 37 games.
- The offense produced a season-high 611 yards, on just 61 plays. It's the most total offense in a game since Georgia gained 615 yards against Missouri in 2020.
- In his first career start, linebacker C.J. Allen led the defense with nine tackles, including his first career sack. Safety Javon Bullard had five tackles and an interception.
- Former coach Mark Richt was recognized between the first and second quarter for his 2023 induction into the College Football Hall of Fame. In 15 seasons at Georgia (2001-15), Richt amassed a record of 145-51, with seven Top-10 finishes and two SEC titles (2002 and '05).
- Before the game, Georgia recognized 30 seniors that were, or could be, playing their final game on Dooley Field. The 2023 senior class has a record of 47-3, including the 27 consecutive wins and back-to-back national championships, and went 22-0 at home.
- The captains were quarterback Carson Beck, receiver Ladd McConkey, linebacker Smael Mondon and defensive lineman Nazir Stackhouse. Ole Miss won the toss and elected to receive the opening kickoff.

No. 1 Georgia 38, No. 18 Tennessee 10

Nov. 18, 2023 • Neyland Stadium • Knoxville, Tenn.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — Carson Beck threw three touchdown passes, wide receiver Dillon Bell caught one and threw one, and the No. 1-ranked Georgia football team rolled to a 38-10 win over No. 18 Tennessee on Saturday night in front of a sellout crowd of 101,915 at Neyland Stadium.

Georgia was behind 7-0 in the blink of an eye after the Volunteers scored on the first play from scrimmage. But the Bulldogs answered with 24 straight points to take control of the game. Georgia outgained the Vols 472-277, with Beck completing 24 of 30 passes for 298 yards. Defensive back Tykee Smith led a strong defensive effort with 10 tackles.

The Bulldog passing attack was effective throughout, with Bell, wideout Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint and tight end Brock Bowers combining for 19 receptions. Rosemy-Jacksaint had career-highs with seven catches and two touchdowns; Bell tied a career-high with five receptions, for a career-best 90 yards and a score; and Bowers caught seven passes for 60 yards and a touchdown.

Tennessee jumped out to a 7-0 lead with a 75-yard touchdown run by Jaylen Wright on the first play of the game. The Bulldogs responded with an 11-play drive that ended in a 42-yard Peyton Woodring field goal, making it 7-3 with 10:01 to play in the first quarter.

After a quick defensive stop, Georgia took the lead, 10-7, on the ensuing drive when Beck pitched right to Bell, who lined up in the backfield, and Bell threw an 18-yard pass to Rosemy-Jacksaint all alone in the end zone.

Georgia pushed its lead to 17-7 with 8:04 left in the half on Beck's nine-yard touchdown pass to Bell on the right side. The drive began with a 17-yard completion to Bell on the left side. A 21-yard Bowers reception later moved the ball down to the Tennessee 11.

Late in the half, Beck found Bowers on a the right side for a 3-yard touchdown and a 24-7 lead with 1:31 left in the half. Tennessee drew a little closer on the final play of the half with Charles Campbell's 37-yard field goal as time expired, cutting the Bulldog lead to 24-10 at the break.

On its second drive of the third quarter, Georgia found the end zone for the fourth time in the game. On the first play, wideout Arian Smith took an end-around run 33 yards to the Tennessee 37. Later, Beck hit a crossing Bell for a 24-yard gain to the 10. And two plays after that, Beck connected with Rosemy-Jacksaint for an eight-yard touchdown and a 31-10 lead with 9:24 left in the third.

A 15-yard Kendall Milton touchdown run with 1:03 left in the third pushed the Bulldog lead to 38-10. Milton had 66 yards on 14 carries, and Georgia finished with 156 yards on the ground.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"I really believe our culture is our difference. Everybody will say it's players. I just don't think that it's just players. We have good players, really good players, but I think there's a lot to our culture that kids buy into, and they stay levelheaded. They're not talking about the (win) streak. They're not worried about the streak. Like I said, it's going to end and we're going to start a new one. For right now, they just keep getting better."

Dillon Bell not only tied a career-high with five receptions for a career-best 90 yards and a touchdown, he also threw a TD pass.

Worth Noting

- With the win, Georgia completes a third straight undefeated run through SEC play. It's the first time that's happened in the league since the Bulldogs did it from 1980-82. The win also extended Georgia's school-record win streak to 28 games, tying it for the longest in SEC history.
- Despite once again giving up a touchdown on the opponent's opening drive, Georgia's defense had a stellar game. Aside from the 75-yard rushing touchdown it allowed on the Vols' first play, Georgia held Tennessee to just a field goal and 202 yards of offense the rest of the way. Tykee Smith led the defense with 10 tackles and the Bulldogs had seven players with at least three stops each.
- Wide receiver Dillon Bell had the best game of his Georgia career in the win over Tennessee. He tied a career high with five catches, he had a career-best 90 receiving yards and a touchdown, and he threw an 18-yard touchdown pass on a trick play. It was Georgia's first touchdown pass by a non-quarterback since RB Kenny McIntosh threw one in 2021.
- Quarterback Carson Beck is on pace to smash the school record for completion percentage in a season. Stetson Bennett set the mark last season when he completed 68.3% of his passes. Through 11 games, Beck, at 255 of 350, is connecting on 72.9% of his throws.
- The captains against Tennessee were wide receiver Ladd McConkey, offensive lineman Tate Ratledge, defensive lineman Zion Logue and linebacker Smael Mondon Jr. The Bulldogs won the coin toss and elected to defer to the second half.

No. 1 Georgia 31, Georgia Tech 23

Nov. 25, 2023 • Bobby Dodd Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA — The top-ranked Georgia football team rushed for 262 yards on its way to a 31-23 win over the Yellow Jackets in front of a crowd of 51,447 and an ABC national television audience. It was Georgia's 12th straight win on their in-state rival's home field.

With the win, the Bulldogs' 29th in a row, Georgia now has the longest winning streak in SEC history. The win was also the 49th by the 2023 senior class, tying the program record set by the 2022 seniors.

Saturday's win didn't come easily, especially with the offense playing without weapons Brock Bowers, Ladd McConkey and Rara Thomas due to injuries. The trio have a combined 100 receptions this season.

Running back Kendall Milton rushed for a career-high 156 yards and two touchdowns on 18 carries. Quarterback Carson Beck finished 13 of 20 for 175 yards and a touchdown, completing five passes to Dominic Lovett for 68 yards and a touchdown, while Dillon Bell caught three passes for 37 and also had a 29-yard rush.

The Yellow Jackets struck first, forcing a Bulldog fumble on Georgia's first offensive play, and then later taking a 7-0 lead on a nine-yard touchdown run by quarterback Haynes King.

Georgia drew even when Beck hit a wide open Lovett on the left side for a 29-yard touchdown, tying the game at 7-7 with 7:23 left in the opening quarter. Tech regained the lead, 10-7, with a Aidan Birr 25-yard field goal with 35 seconds left in the opening quarter.

Georgia took its first lead with 12:40 to go in the first half on a seven-play drive that covered 75 yards. Milton ran the ball in from the 3 for a 14-10 lead.

Tech answered with a 12-play drive that ended with a 45-yard Birr field goal, cutting the Bulldog lead to 14-13 with 6:06 left in the first half. Georgia followed that with an 11-play touchdown drive that ended with a three-yard Daijun Edwards touchdown run and a 21-13 lead with 1:14 to play in the half. Edwards not only scored the touchdown, he kept the drive going with a 12-yard run on third-and-9 at the Tech 35.

Kicker Peyton Woodring booted a 39-yard field goal with 5:15 to play in the third quarter to make it 24-13 Bulldogs. Nearly five minutes later, after Tech came up empty on a fourth-and-7 pass from the Georgia 45, Milton ran the ball in for a four-yard touchdown and a 31-13 lead with 31 seconds remaining in the third.

Tech drove down to the Georgia 13 on the ensuing possession, but then the Bulldog defense got tough. On third-and-7 at the 10, linebacker Marvin Jones Jr. sacked King for a loss of 13, forcing Tech to settle for a 40-yard field goal that cut Georgia's lead to 31-16 with 12:13 remaining.

Tech cut the Georgia lead to 31-23 with 3:46 to play on a five-yard King run, but the Bulldogs were able to run out the clock on the ensuing drive.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"Once again, our kids show up, very resilient, tough — I mean this game is not measured by stats and rushing yards and first downs. It's measured by heart. You got to have a whole lot of heart to go out there and fight and play like our guys have done week after week."

Dillon Bell had three catches for 37 yards and a 29-yard run in the Bulldogs' 31-23 win over Georgia Tech.

- Georgia stands alone in SEC history with 29 consecutive wins, breaking a tie with a pair of Alabama squads that had 28-game win streaks. The Bulldogs also finished their third consecutive undefeated regular season. The win was also the 49th by the 2023 senior class, tying the program record set by the 2022 seniors. The Bulldogs also extended their school record for consecutive regular season wins to 39 which leads all of FBS. This streak began during the 2020 season with a 31-24 win over Miss. State. on Nov. 21.
- The Bulldogs have won six in a row over Georgia Tech, and 12 straight at Bobby Dodd Stadium. With the latest victory over Tech, Georgia now holds a 71-39-5 edge in the series history including 6-1 in the Kirby Smart era.
- Linebackers Smael Mondon Jr. and C.J. Allen had eight tackles each to lead the defense. The Bulldogs had six players with at least six tackles.
- Freshman kicker Peyton Woodring made a 39-yarder FG and was 4-for-4 on PATs for seven points. His 39-yarder made it 24-13 with 5:15 left in the 3rd quarter. For the season, he is 20-for-23 on field-goal attempts and has 119 points, which ranks eight in school history.
- A quartet of seniors — Daijun Edwards (RB), Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint (WR), Nazir Stackhouse (DL) and Tramel Walthour (DL) — served as the game captains. Tech won the toss and elected to receive. Junior center Sedrick Van Pran made his team-leading 42nd career start.

No. 8 Alabama 27, No. 1 Georgia 24

Dec. 2, 2023 • Mercedes-Benz Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA — A week after setting the record for the longest winning streak in conference history with its 29th straight victory, the top-ranked Georgia football team's incredible run of success came to an end in the SEC Championship Game.

Facing No. 8 Alabama for the conference title and a probable spot in the College Football Playoff, the Bulldogs came up short, 27-24, Saturday in front of 78,320 inside Mercedes-Benz Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

It was Georgia's first loss since falling to the Crimson Tide in the 2021 SEC Championship Game. In between those defeats, the Bulldogs won an SEC-record 29 games in a row, two CFP national championships, and an SEC title last year. Georgia has won 45 of its last 47 games.

On Georgia's first offensive play, quarterback Carson Beck hit tight end Brock Bowers for 23 yards. On the next, Beck connected with Dominic Lovett for 18. Later, Beck found Ladd McConkey for a 15-yard gain, and two plays later, Kendall Milton ran the ball in from the 17 for a 7-0 Georgia lead. Beck finished 21 of 29 for 243 yards.

Alabama got on the scoreboard with 3:43 to play in the first with kicker Will Reichard's 43-yard field goal. The Tide took a 10-7 lead with 12:04 remaining in the half on a 28-yard touchdown pass from Jalen Milroe to Jamarion Miller. With 48 seconds left in the half, Alabama went up 17-7 on Milroe's 15-yard touchdown pass to Jermaine Burton.

In the third quarter, Georgia quickly got into the red zone with a 51-yard completion to wideout Arian Smith, to the Bama 19. The Bulldogs eventually got a 34-yard field goal from Peyton Woodring, cutting the Tide's lead to 17-10 with 8:51 left in the quarter.

A fumbled handoff deep in UGA territory later gave the Tide the ball at the 11-yard line. The Bulldog defense held Bama to a 28-yard field goal, and a 20-10 lead, with 48 seconds left in the third quarter.

In the fourth, the Bulldogs forced an Alabama punt, and Anthony Evans III covered 28 yards on the return, down to the Tide 35. Later, Beck hit McConkey for a 15-yard gain to the 1, and Beck ran the ball in on the next play, cutting the Tide lead to 20-17 with 10:16 remaining in the game.

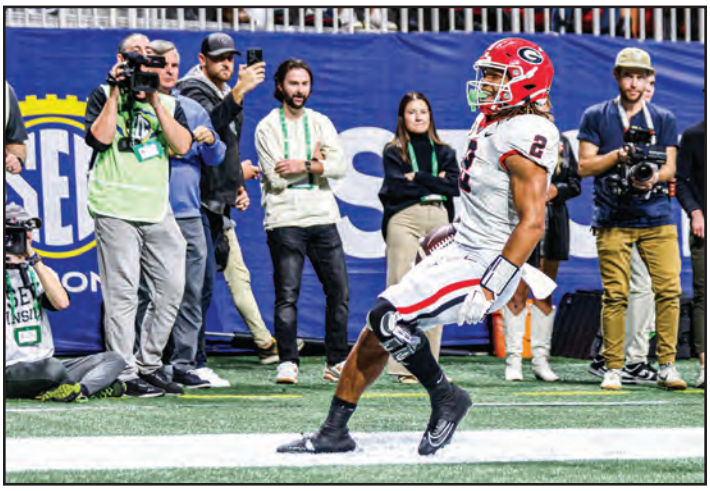
Alabama marched 75 yards in nine plays and scored on Roydell Williams' one-yard run, pushing the Tide's lead to 27-17 with 5:47 to play.

Georgia drove quickly the other way, and had a second-and-goal at the 1 with less than four minutes remaining. It soon after faced a fourth down at the 1 with 2:54 to play. After a timeout, Georgia gave the ball to Milton, who ran it in for the touchdown. Woodring's extra point made it 27-24 with 2:52 to go. It was Milton's 11th touchdown run in the past eight games.

Alabama was able to run out the clock on the ensuing drive, ending the Bulldogs' comeback bid and their win streak.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"This team is really special in terms of how they play and how they compete. They've been through a lot with the guys in and out of the roster (due to injury), which has been tough on these guys. I'm proud of them and congratulate Alabama on a great game."



Running back Kendall Milton ran the ball in for two touchdowns against Alabama, giving him 11 in his past eight games.

Worth Noting…

- Georgia's last loss before Saturday came almost two years ago to the day, on Dec. 4, 2021, when it fell 41-24 to Alabama. What followed was 29 straight wins, two national championships and the 2022 SEC title. The Bulldogs have won 45 of their last 47 games, with both losses coming to the Tide in the SEC Championship Game.
- Linebacker Smael Mondon Jr. and safety Malaki Starks had eight tackles each to led the defense, which held Alabama to 306 yards of offense. Eight Bulldogs had at least three tackles. Georgia finished with four sacks — two by linebacker Jalon Walker — and eight tackles for loss.
- Senior running back Kendall Milton was Georgia's leading rusher with 42 yards and two touchdowns on 13 carries. He had a 17-yard touchdown run for a 7-0 lead, and later scored from the 1 to make it 27-24. In his past eight games, Milton has 11 rushing touchdowns.
- Junior tight end Brock Bowers had five catches for 53 yards after missing last week's game at Georgia Tech and three of the past five games with an ankle injury. He moved up to third all-time in school history with 175 receptions and is fifth in receiving yards with 2,538.
- Georgia's captains for the SEC Championship game were center Sedrick Van Pran, wideout Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint and defensive backs Kamari Lassiter and Javon Bullard. The Bulldogs won the toss and deferred to the second half. Van Pran made his team-high 43rd start, including in his third SECCG, while linebacker Marvin Jones Jr. made his first career start.

Back-to-back College Football Playoff National Championships (2021, 2022), a 2017 CFP title game appearance, Southeastern Conference Championships in 2017 and 2022, six SEC Eastern Division titles, a 93-16 record, and six bowl victories are more than respectable rewards over an eight-year period. That's what Georgia got when it hired former Georgia player Kirby Smart to head the program in December of 2015.

His impact, along with a stellar coaching staff, players, and a passionate fan base has put Georgia on the national stage eight years running. Heading into the Capital One Orange Bowl, the 'Dogs boast a 45-2 record in the last 47 games and their 27th consecutive bowl game—tops in the nation.

2023 - The Bulldogs completed an undefeated regular season, SEC Eastern Division title, and 12-1 overall record heading into the 2023 Capital One Orange Bowl. The Bulldog defense ranks first in the SEC and 10th nationally in Total Defense (295.2 ypg), first in SEC passing defense (177.9 ypg), and second in the SEC and ninth nationally in Scoring Defense (16.62 ppg). The Bulldog offense ranks second in the SEC and top 10 nationally in Total Offense (482.9 ypg), Passing Offense (305.6 ypg), and Scoring Offense (38.4 ppg).

2022 - Georgia captured its second SEC championship of the Smart era in dominant fashion. The Bulldogs went 12-0 in the regular season and soundly defeated LSU in the SEC title game, earning a No. 1 seed in the final CFP rankings. The Bulldogs then came back to defeat No. 4 Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl CFP semifinal.

2021 - His 2021 team became UGA's first national champion since 1980, the first since 1982 to go undefeated in the SEC regular season, a No. 1 national ranking by all the major polls and the first ever to win 14 games. It marked the fifth straight team to finish the regular season ranked in the top ten of the College Football Playoff rankings. The team set 21 school records, highlighted by the nation's top-ranked defense. The third-ranked Bulldogs defeated #2 Michigan, 34-11, in the Capital One Orange Bowl in Miami and then No. 1 Alabama, 33-18, in the championship game in Indianapolis. The senior class also set the mark for most career wins by going 45-8. After the regular season, Smart was named SEC Coach of the Year for the second time in five years.

Georgia's championship season enjoyed a fitting exclamation mark at the 2022 NFL Draft. The Bulldogs set a Draft record with 15 players taken, including five defenders in the first round, led by the first overall selection, junior Travon Walker.

2020 - The 2020 Bulldogs became Smart's fourth consecutive team to earn a New Year's Six bowl game appearance. With a Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl victory over undefeated Cincinnati on Jan. 1, 2021, the Bulldog seniors tied the record for the most wins by one class in school history (44).

2019 - Smart's 2019 Bulldogs became the first team in school history to win 11 or more games for a third straight season. Georgia defeated three teams in the final Top 15 CFP ranking — Notre Dame, Florida, and Auburn — and finished fourth in the final polls. The Bulldogs capped their season with a dominant victory over Baylor in the Allstate Sugar Bowl game.

2018 -- Georgia in 2018 posted an 11-1 regular season record, a second straight SEC Eastern Division title, and a ranking as high as number four in the CFP poll. Georgia landed in the Allstate Sugar Bowl on Jan. 1, 2019—the program's tenth all-time appearance in the New Orleans classic.

2017 -- Smart's second season in 2017 was a special one, with an 11-1 regular-season record, an SEC title, a win over Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl Game (CFP semifinal) and advancement into the CFP National Championship Game. It was the first conference title since 2005 for the Red and Black.

Both Smart and his players reaped the bounty of their banner 2017 season. He was named George Munger National Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club, SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and SEC Coaches, and the Regional Coach of the Year by the AFCA. Roquan Smith earned first-team All-America honors and the Dick Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker.

2016 -- In Smart's first season leading the Bulldogs, Georgia made its 20th straight bowl appearance and posted four fourth-quarter comebacks, including wins over No. 8 Auburn and No. 22 UNC. He led the Bulldogs to an 8-5 final record, which included a victory over TCU in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

As an Assistant Coach

When Smart officially came home to Georgia on Dec. 6, 2015, he had unfinished business as defensive coordinator at Alabama, which was still chasing a national title. He juggled both jobs for a month until Jan. 11, 2016, when the Crimson Tide won its fourth national championship in a 7-year span. Twelve hours later, he was at work in Athens, where he remains one of ten head coaches at schools from Power 5 conferences that are coaching at their alma maters.

Smart had served on the Alabama staff the previous nine years, seven as defensive coordinator. During his tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide won three BCS National Championships, one CFP national title, three SEC crowns, six SEC Western Division titles, and was ranked in the nation's final top 10 the last eight years in a row.

During Smart's time at Alabama, he coached players at three different positions, in addition to his coordinating duties. He was recognized as the 2012 AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year and the 2009 Broyles Award winner as college football's top assistant. He also was a finalist for the award in 2015.

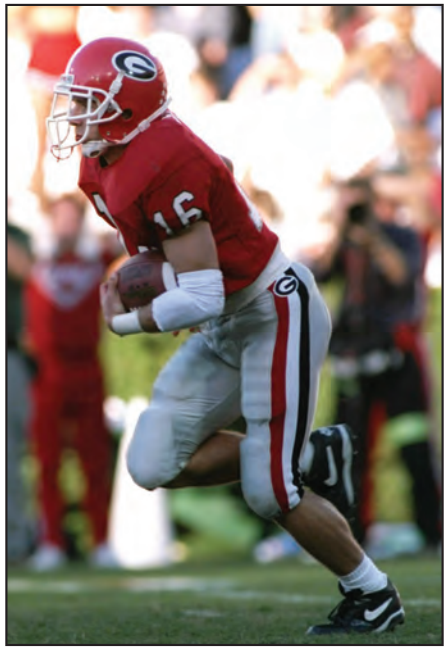
Prior to joining the Alabama staff in 2007, Smart spent the 2006 season as safeties coach with the NFL's Miami Dolphins. He served six years on the collegiate level as the running backs coach at Georgia (2005), defensive backs coach at LSU (2004), graduate assistant at Florida State (2002-03), defensive coordinator/linebackers coach (2001) and defensive backs coach (2000) at Valdosta State, and administrative assistant at Georgia (1999).

Smart was the running backs coach for Georgia's 2005 SEC Championship team. He coached Thomas Brown, Danny Ware and Kregg Lumpkin — all future NFL players. In 2004 at LSU, he tutored two NFL draft picks: Corey Webster (2nd round, New York Giants) and Travis Daniels (4th round, Miami).

As a Player

Smart was a four-year letterman at defensive back for Georgia, where he was a First-Team All-SEC pick as a senior. He finished his career with 13 interceptions, a mark that still ranks sixth in UGA annals, and paced the Bulldogs with six interceptions in 1997 and five in 1998. He led the SEC in interceptions during his final season.

A four-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Smart received his bachelor's degree in Finance from Georgia in 1998 and his master's in Physical Education from Florida State in 2003.



Smart was a first-team All-SEC choice as a senior in 1998, when he led the league with five interceptions. Smart had six interceptions in his junior season of 1997.

The Smart Family

The Bainbridge, Ga., native is married to the former Mary Beth Lycett of McDonough, Ga., a 4-year letterwinner and 2-year starter on the Georgia women's basketball team from 2000-03. The couple met long after their undergraduate days at Georgia, when Lycett — then working in the UGA Athletic Association Business Office — helped arrange Smart's trip to interview for the Bulldogs' running backs coaching job in 2005. They are the proud parents of twins Weston and Julia (born Feb. 8, 2008) and son Andrew (born May 25, 2012).

Kirby and Mary Beth Smart also oversee the Kirby Smart Family Foundation, which is focused on being champions in the community by supporting needy children and families facing adversity.

Mike Bobo

John & Alice Sands Offensive Coordinator -- Quarterbacks

A Georgia native who played quarterback for the Bulldogs from 1994-97 and was an on-field coach for the program for 14 seasons, Mike Bobo was named a Quality Control analyst with the Bulldog offense on Jan. 28, 2022. He was promoted to Offensive Coordinator in February, 2023.

His 2023 offense was instrumental in the Bulldogs' undefeated regular season, SEC Eastern Division title, and 12-1 overall record heading into the 2023 Capital One Orange Bowl. The Georgia offense ranks 2nd in the SEC and top 10 nationally in Total Offense (482.9 ypg), Passing Offense (305.6 ypg), and Scoring Offense (38.4 ppg), helping him earn a second Broyles Award finalist accolade (2012).

A veteran coach in the SEC, Bobo spent the 2021 season as offensive coordinator at Auburn. He worked in 2020 at South Carolina as OC and QBs coach after his five-year stint as head coach at Colorado State. At CSU, he guided the Rams to bowl games in each of his first three seasons, making him the lone coach in program history to accomplish that feat.

Bobo spent all but one of the first 22 years of his adult life at Georgia as a player or assistant coach. While in Athens as an undergraduate, he was a record-breaking starting quarterback and then spent 16 seasons working for the program. Bobo's 14-year stint at Georgia as a full-time coach began in January 2001 when Mark Richt hired him as quarterbacks coach. He then added the duties of offensive coordinator in 2007 and stayed in that post until accepting the Colorado State head coaching position after the 2014 season.

Bobo played four seasons with head coach Kirby Smart from 1994-97 at Georgia and coached alongside him in 2005 when Smart was running backs coach for a year. During his time at UGA, Bobo helped lead the Bulldogs to 135 victories, including two SEC championships, five SEC Eastern Division titles and eight bowl victories. Prior to joining Richt's staff at Georgia, Bobo served one year as an assistant coach at Jacksonville State.

Bobo was a quarterback for the Bulldogs from 1994-97, throwing for 6,334 yards, the seventh-most all-time by a Georgia quarterback, and set several Georgia passing records. As a senior in 1997, he threw for 2,751 yards on 199 completions in 306 attempts and had 19 TD to just eight interceptions.

Bobo, a native of Thomasville, Ga., and his wife, Lainie, have five children, a son Drew, a Bulldog offensive lineman; triplets Olivia, Jake and Ava Grace; and Kate. His father, George, was a long-time successful high school coach in Georgia.

Glenn Schumann

Fain & Billy Slaughter Defensive Coordinator — Inside Linebackers

Glenn Schumann was named Fain and Billy Slaughter Defensive Coordinator in January, 2023, after serving as Co-Defensive Coordinator & Inside Linebackers coach, and Inside Linebackers coach since joining UGA as part of Kirby Smart's original coaching staff in December, 2015.

He has been part of a coaching staff that led the Bulldogs to the 2022 and 2023 College Football Playoff National Championships. The Bulldogs defeated TCU, 65-7, in the 2023 title game following a semi-final win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, 42-41. In 2022 the 'Dogs defeated Alabama, 33-18, in the CFP championship game.

The 2023 Georgia defense was instrumental in the Bulldogs' undefeated regular season, SEC Eastern Division title, and 12-1 overall record heading into the 2023 Capital One Orange Bowl. The Bulldog defense ranks first in the SEC and 10th nationally in Total Defense (295.2 ypg), 1st in SEC passing defense (177.9 ypg), and second in the SEC and ninth nationally in Scoring Defense (16.62 ppg).

The Georgia defense finished the 2022 season ranked among the nation's leaders in rushing defense (1st, 77.1), scoring defense (5th, 14.3 ppg), red zone defense (2nd, 0.676), and total defense (9th, 296.8 ypg). The 'Dogs defense also boasted two first team All-Americans in DL Jalen Carter and DB Chris Smith, Butkus finalist (Jamon Dumas-Johnson), Lombardi finalist (Carter), Nagurski finalist (Smith), and Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year Award finalist (DB Malaki Starks).

In 2021, Georgia set 21 school single-season team records, including Wins and Games Played, as well as defensive marks for Fewest Points Allowed, Fewest Average Points Allowed and Interception TD's. Georgia also finished first nationally in Red Zone Defense, second nationally in Rushing Defense and Passing Efficiency Defense. The Bulldog defense surrendered only three rushing and 10 passing TD's all year. Georgia set an NFL record with 15 picks in the 2022 NFL draft including five first round defensive players and eight overall.

Schumann came to UGA after eight years with the Crimson Tide, first as an undergraduate analyst (2008-Dec. 2011) and then as a graduate assistant (Dec. 2011-Feb. 2014). In February, 2014, he was named Director of Player Development and Associate Director of Player Personnel serving in those positions until December, 2015.

Born in Valdosta, Ga., Schumann graduated from McKinney Boyd High School in McKinney, Texas, where he lettered in both football and basketball. He earned his bachelor of arts degree from Alabama in December, 2011, and a masters in sports management from UA in December, 2013. He and his wife Lauren have a son, Bryson Eric Schumann, born in September of 2019, and a daughter, Whitley Maryann Schumann, born in May of 2021.

Will Muschamp

Co-Defensive Coordinator

Former Georgia defensive back Will Muschamp joined Kirby Smart's staff in January, 2021, as a senior analyst with the defense. He assumed an on-field role early in the 2021 season working with special teams and the defensive backfield, and was named Co-Defensive Coordinator in December, 2021.

The 2023 Georgia defense was instrumental in the Bulldogs' SEC Eastern Division title and 12-1 overall record heading into the 2023 Capital One Orange Bowl. The Bulldog defense ranks first in the SEC and 10th nationally in Total Defense (295.2 ypg).

The Rome, Ga., native had come full circle since he played safety at UGA from 1991-94. Along the way, Muschamp held coaching positions at all levels of football including head coaching posts at Florida and South Carolina. In all, he has coached 40 defensive backs that have been taken in the NFL Draft, including eight first-round selections.

He got his start as a graduate assistant at Auburn in 1995-96 before taking defensive coaching positions at West Georgia (1998) and Eastern Kentucky (1999). He became the linebacker coach on Nick Saban's staff at LSU before being promoted to defensive coordinator from 2002-04. The Tigers won the BCS National Championship in 2003.

He followed Saban to the Miami Dolphins as assistant head coach in 2005. In 2006 he was named defensive coordinator at Auburn, where he served until 2007. He was DC and linebackers coach at Texas from 2008-2010 before being named head coach at Florida in 2011. In 2015, Muschamp moved to Auburn as DC, and in 2016 was named head coach at South Carolina, where he served through the 2020 season.

As a player at UGA, Muschamp was elected the defensive team captain as a senior in 1994 after his starting role as a strong safety. During his career, he played in 44 games and recorded 156 tackles and three interceptions. During his senior season he was teammates with both UGA head coach Kirby Smart and current UGA offensive coordinator Mike Bobo.

Muschamp and his wife Carol have two sons, Jackson and Whit.

Todd Hartley

Assistant Head Coach — Tight Ends

Todd Hartley, a University of Georgia graduate who has also been a full-time staff member with the Bulldog football program, was named tight ends coach on January 14, 2019.

Since coming to UGA, Hartley has helped to create quite a pipeline for tight ends including 2022 and 2023 Mackey Award winner and three-time first team All-American Brock Bowers. The NFL has also benefited from Hartley's players who have now been drafted in four straight years: Charlie Woerner in 2020, Tré McKitty in 2021, John FitzPatrick in 2022 and Darnell Washington in 2023.

A native of Gray, Ga., Hartley served as the University of Miami's Special Teams Coordinator and Tight Ends Coach from 2016-18, under head coach Mark Richt.

Hartley arrived in Miami after serving as Georgia's Director of Player Personnel in 2015. Before his return to Georgia, He spent four years at Marshall serving in a variety of roles, including tight ends and safeties coach and recruiting coordinator from 2011-14.

Hartley originally joined the Georgia program as a student assistant at the end of the 2005 season. He worked with the offense and special teams until the spring of 2008 while he was an undergraduate.

Georgia tallied three bowl victories during Hartley's years working with the Bulldogs, including a 41-10 win over No. 10 Hawai'i in the 2008 Sugar Bowl. He was instrumental in preparation of the Georgia defense for the 2009 Independence Bowl, when only one full-time defensive assistant was on staff. The Bulldogs routed Texas A&M 44-20 that night in Shreveport.

Hartley graduated from Georgia with a degree in health and physical education in May, 2008. He and his wife Jessica have four children: Tucker, Teagan, Tenley and Tatum.

Bryan McClendon

Pass Game Coordinator — Wide Receivers

Four-year University of Georgia letterman and coach Bryan McClendon was named passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach in February of 2022.

McClendon served as a graduate assistant at UGA in 2007-08 and was named to the full-time staff as running backs coach in 2009, a position he held until 2015. McClendon was named interim head coach at UGA at the end of the 2015 season and led the Bulldogs to a 24-17 victory over Penn State in the TaxSlayer Bowl.

Since that time McClendon has held assistant coaching positions at South Carolina (2016-19) and Oregon (2020-21). He had accepted the post of co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Miami in January of 2022 but left when his alma mater offered him his current position.

At UGA, he coached a number of elite running backs during his tenure, including Isaiah Crowell, Todd Gurley and Keith Marshall, as well as Nick Chubb and Sony Michel. Additionally, McClendon was named National Recruiter of the Year by 247Sports in 2014.

McClendon lettered as a wide receiver at Georgia in 2002-05. During that time, the Bulldogs won three SEC Eastern Division titles, two SEC championships and played in four bowl games (2003 Sugar, '04 Capital One, '05 Outback, '06 Sugar), winning three of them.

He graduated in December 2005 with a degree in Recreation and Leisure Studies. He is the son of former Georgia tailback Willie McClendon, 1978 SEC Player of the Year and running back for the Chicago Bears.

McClendon is married to the former Amber Arnold of Atlanta. They have three children, Bryan (born 1/10/07), Brooke (born 12/18/11) and Brayden (born 9/18/17).

Dell McGee

Run Game Coordinator — Running Backs

Dell McGee was named Run Game Coordinator and Running Backs coach in 2019 after serving three years as running backs coach and one (2018) as assistant head coach.

In his eight seasons at UGA, McGee has coached four 1,000-yard rushers: Nick Chubb in 2016-17; Sony Michel in 2017; D'Andre Swift in 2018-19; and Elijah Holyfield in 2018. Chubb and Michel finished their careers as the Nos. 2 and 3 rushers in UGA history, amassing over 8,400 combined yards and 87 touchdowns. Chubb, Michel, Swift, as well as recent alums James Cook and Zamir White, were all taken in the first four rounds of the NFL Draft while 2022 RB Kenny McIntosh was a seventh round pick. Additionally, Rivals.com named McGee the 2018 National Recruiter of the Year after the Bulldogs signed the consensus No. 1-rated recruiting class.

Just 10 days before he came to UGA in 2016, McGee led Georgia Southern to victory in its first-ever bowl game (GoDaddy Bowl) as interim head coach.

McGee served as running backs coach at GSU in 2014-15. Prior to joining the Georgia Southern staff, McGee served one season at Auburn, his alma mater, where he worked as an analyst in 2013 when the Tigers reached the BCS Championship Game. From 2005-12, McGee developed Carver-Columbus High School into a perennial powerhouse as the Tigers rattled off seven straight seasons with 10 or more wins.

McGee was a two-year starter and four-year letterwinner at Auburn from 1992-95, helping preserve the Tigers' undefeated 1993 season with a critical interception against Alabama.

McGee lettered in football and track at Kendrick High School in Columbus, Ga. He and his wife Linda have a son, Austin.

Fran Brown

Assistant Coach — Defensive Backs

Fran Brown was named Defensive Backs Coach at the University of Georgia on February 22, 2022. A native of Camden, New Jersey, and graduate of Western Carolina University, he has also held coaching positions at Temple and Baylor. He was named head coach at Syracuse in December 2023.

At the time he joined the Bulldogs, Brown had just completed his second season with Rutgers after being the first defensive assistant to join head coach Greg Schiano's new staff in 2020.

Prior to joining the Rutgers staff, Brown served as Co-Defensive Coordinator/Cornerbacks at Temple during the 2019 season. Brown guided a defensive unit that ranked nationally in red zone defense, sacks, defensive touchdowns, tackles-for-loss and fumbles recovered.

Brown recruited or coached five players from the 2019 Owls' defense that advanced to the NFL, including three draft picks: Harrison Hand, Shaun Bradley, Chapelle Russell, Sam Franklin and Isaiah Wright.

Prior to his time at Temple, Brown coached at Baylor during the 2017 and 2018 seasons, serving as Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Backs.

Brown originally joined the Temple staff as Director of Internal Operations in 2011. He served as a graduate assistant in 2012 before being named Defensive Backs Coach in 2013. In 2016 he was promoted to Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Backs.

Brown received his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Western Carolina University in 2006. He was named a team captain and earned first-team All-SoCon selection at cornerback for the Catamounts. Brown and his wife, Teara, have two sons, Fran, Jr., and Brayden, and a daughter, Ivy Ann.

Stacy Searels

Assistant Coach — Offensive Line

Stacy Searels returned to Georgia as offensive line coach in February of 2022 after serving in a similar position at North Carolina for three seasons.

A 31-year veteran of coaching collegiately, Searels has produced a long list of NFL offensive linemen including 16 draft picks.

Before moving to UNC, Searels coached three seasons at Miami and two at Virginia Tech. Prior to his time in Blacksburg, he had his first stint of coaching with Mack Brown at Texas. Searels joined the Longhorns after coaching the offensive line at Georgia for four seasons (2007-10). He added the duties of Run Game Coordinator in 2009. During his time in Athens, Searels coached a number of all-star offensive linemen, including All-America selections Clint Boling and Ben Jones and All-SEC tackles Fernando Velasco and Cordy Glenn.

Searels came to Georgia after serving four years coaching the offensive line at LSU from 2003-06. During that time, the Tigers went 44-8 and won SEC and national titles in 2003. He joined the staff at LSU after a two-year stint as offensive line coach at Cincinnati. Prior to joining Cincinnati, Searels served as an assistant coach at Appalachian State from 1994-2000, helping the I-AA Mountaineers to five playoff appearances and a pair of SoCon titles.

A three-year starter on the offensive line at Auburn, Searels earned first-team All-America honors as a senior in 1987. He blocked for Heisman Trophy winner Bo Jackson in 1985 and All-America Brent Fullwood in 1986.

A native of Trion, Ga., Searels graduated from Auburn with a degree in marketing and transportation in 1990. He added a master's degree in higher education administration from Auburn in 1995. Searels is married to the former Patricia Hale, and they have two daughters, Taylor and Savannah.

Tray Scott

Assistant Coach — Defensive Line

Tray Scott just completed his seventh season on the Georgia staff as defensive line coach. He was named UGA assistant coach on February 10, 2017, after serving two years in a similar position at the North Carolina. Scott was briefly hired as the defensive line coach at Ole Miss in January, 2017, before accepting the Georgia job.

During his tenure at UGA, the Bulldogs have won two CFP National Championships, six SEC Eastern Division titles (2017-19, '21-'22-'23), and earned seven consecutive appearances in a New Year's Six Bowl game. The 2017 'Dogs also played in the CFP national championship game.

In 2021 alone, Georgia defensive linemen reaped a bounty of honors. Jordan Davis won the Outland Trophy and Bednarik Award, as well as first-team All-America honors. Devonte Wyatt earned second-team All-America honors, and both Wyatt and sophomore Jalen Carter were named second-team All-SEC.

In April of 2022, Scott's group made history when three of his charges -- Travon Walker, Davis and Wyatt -- were all taken in the first round of the NFL Draft. Walker was the first overall selection by the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Prior to moving to North Carolina, Scott served two years (2013-14) as defensive line coach at UT Martin. He also held positions as defensive line graduate assistant at Ole Miss (2012), assistant coach at Arkansas State (2010-11). Scott was also a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Arkansas Tech, from the fall of 2008 until the spring of 2010.

Scott earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Arkansas Tech in 2008 and his Master's degree from there in 2010. He is married to the former Sarah Fancher and the couple has two sons, Julian and Torian.

Chidera Uzo-Diribe

Assistant Coach — Outside Linebackers

Chidera Uzo-Diribe was named Outside Linebackers Coach on Feb. 6, 2022, after serving briefly as defensive line coach at TCU.

Uzo-Diribe, a native of Corona, Calif., came to Athens after serving as defensive line coach with SMU in 2021. He followed head coach Sonny Dykes to TCU after the 2021 season before accepting the position at UGA. SMU was 8-4 in 2021 and defensive lineman Elijah Chatman earned All-American Conference second-team honors. Uzo-Diribe also coached defensive lineman DeVere Levelston who led the conference in sacks.

Uzo-Dribe had previously worked two seasons at Kansas (2019 and 2020) where he served as outside linebackers coach. While with the Jayhawks he coached Kyron Johnson who earned All-Big 12 honors. Prior to working with the Jayhawks, Uzo-Diribe spent three seasons (2016-18) as a graduate assistant with the defensive line and outside linebackers at Colorado. He coached outside linebacker Jimmie Gilbert who earned AP All-America third-team honors.

In the summer of 2018, he participated in the Bill Walsh NFL Diversity Coaching Fellowship Program with the San Francisco 49ers, a program created to offer minority coaches more opportunities to learn, coupled with great exposure to job opportunities. He was also named to 247Sports' recent 30-Under-30 list of rising stars in college coaching.

Uzo-Diribe was a four-year letterman at Colorado and finished his career tied for sixth in sacks, tied for 17th in TFLs and second in forced fumbles. In 2013, he ranked second nationally in forced fumbles with five, and was on the final watch list for the Ted Hendricks Award for the nation's top defensive end of the year, while also opening the season on the Bednarik Award Watch List. Uzo-Diribe went on to sign as a free agent with the New Orleans Saints in 2015.

Uzo-Diribe was married to his wife, the former Hana Asmamaw, in May of 2021, and the couple welcomed twins, Amara and Amani, in December 2022.

Scott Sinclair

Director of Strength & Conditioning

Scott Sinclair was named Director of Strength and Conditioning on January 6, 2016, after serving three years in the same position at Marshall University.

He has been part of a coaching and support staff that led the Bulldogs to the 2022 and 2023 College Football Playoff National Championships. During his tenure at UGA, the Bulldogs have also won six SEC Eastern Division titles (2017-19, '21-'22-'23), and earned seven consecutive appearances in a New Year's Six Bowl game. The 2017 'Dogs also played in the CFP national championship game.

Sinclair joined the Marshall program in January, 2013, working with both football and track and field teams. He came to Marshall after nine years as an associate director of strength and conditioning at Central Florida.

In May 2012, Sinclair was awarded the highest honor in his field when he was certified as a master strength and conditioning coach at the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association's national conference.

Sinclair served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the football program at Georgia Tech from 2001-03. From 1999-2001, he worked as a strength coach in the Wake Forest athletic department.

A native of Rockingham, N.C., he earned his bachelor's degree in sports medicine from Guilford College in 1999. Sinclair, a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, received a master's degree in physical education from UCF in 2006. Sinclair and his wife, Farrah, have a son, Creed, and a daughter, Asher.

Sinkwich Leads Bulldogs Past TCU In 1942 Orange Bowl

Georgia All-American quarterback Frankie Sinkwich, playing with an oversized chin mask to protect a broken jaw, put on an offensive display still considered by many as the greatest in any bowl game as he led his Bulldogs to a 40-26 win over Texas Christian before 35,786 fans in the 1942 Orange Bowl game (a record crowd in '42).

Sinkwich passed for touchdowns of 61, 60 and 15 yards and raced 43 yards on a QB draw for another score. He completed nine of 13 passes for 243 yards and rushed for 139 yards for a total offensive gain of 382 yards.

Georgia scored first as Ken Keuper rushed two yards over the goal line to give the Dogs the early 6-0 lead. TCU tied the game less than four minutes later after a Lamar Davis fumble led to a Horned Frog score from the four yard line. TCU kicked the point after and led 7-6. Georgia answered soon after the score on a 60-yard pass play from Sinkwich to Melvin Conger, giving the Bulldogs a 12-7 lead they would never relinquish.

When the Dogs left the field at halftime the score stood 33-7, prompting head coach Wally Butts to proclaim it the greatest offensive performance he ever saw by a UGA team. He also believed the Georgia squad, at the end of the 1941 season, was the most powerful he coached.

The lead was 40-7 in the third quarter before TCU mounted a late three-touchdown effort. Bruce Alford caught two passes for scores from Emory Nix and Frink Kring scored on a 53-yard play from Kyle Gillespie for the 40-26 final.

The 1942 Orange Bowl was played less than a month after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor and was a record-setting event. Sinkwich set five individual Orange Bowl records in the win for combined rushing and passing yards (382), touchdown passes (3), points scored (24), yards gained on touchdown pass plays (136) and yards gained on all touchdown plays (179). Georgia's four touchdown passes set a bowl team record, as well as the Dogs' four interceptions. The combined seven touchdowns for Georgia and TCU also set a new Orange Bowl mark.

Trippi Gets Helms Award In 1943 Rose Bowl

With All-American Frankie Sinkwich hobbling on two sprained ankles, his young sophomore understudy — Charley Trippi — paced Georgia to a 9-0 victory over UCLA before 90,000 in the 1943 Rose Bowl at Pasadena.

Trippi rushed 27 times for a net gain of 115 yards and received the Helms Award as the game's outstanding player.

Recently the Rose Bowl named its all-time first team and put Trippi at left halfback.

Tackle Red Boyd blocked a Bob Waterfield punt which rolled out of the end zone for a safety to give Georgia two points in the last quarter. A few minutes later center Clyde Ehrhardt intercepted a Waterfield pass and returned to the UCLA 25. Sinkwich finally scored from the one and Leo Costa converted.

Trippi's Immortal Punt Return Helps Defeat Tulsa In 1945 Oil Bowl

Charley Trippi was at his best as Georgia defeated Tulsa, 20-6, in the Oil Bowl at Houston before 27,000 on Jan. 1, 1946.

He passed 64 yards to John Donaldson for Georgia's second TD and returned a punt 68 yards for the final Bulldog tally in the fourth quarter — a run still considered by many as the greatest punt return of all time. He completely reversed his field and ran over two Tulsa tacklers who had him trapped near a sideline.

Charley Trippi accepts National Pro Football Hall of Fame trophy.

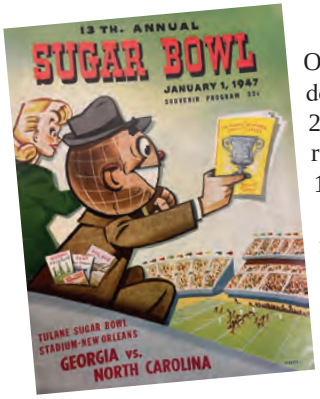
Trippi Closes Great Career In '47 Sugar Bowl Playing Entire 60 Minutes



On a chilly and rainy day in New Orleans, Georgia battled back from two deficits to knock off North Carolina, 20-10, in front of 75,000 in the 13th renewal of the Sugar Bowl on Jan. 1, 1947.

Charley Trippi led the way for the Bulldogs, playing all 60 minutes in his last game wearing the red and black. His 67-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter to Dan Edwards gave the Dogs a 13-10 lead that the club would not relinquish.

The win was Georgia's 16th consecutive victory and gave the Bulldogs a perfect season (11-0) for just the second time in school history.

The scoring started when North Carolina's Walt Pupa ran 25 yards in the second quarter for the first lead of the game. Kicker Bob Cox added the extra point for a 7-0 lead.

Georgia was held scoreless into halftime, but Johnny Rauch plunged into the endzone from one yard out in the third quarter and was followed by George Jernigan's extra point for a 7-7 tie.

Cox gave the Tar Heels the lead later in the third quarter with an 18-yard field goal, but the play of the day, Trippi's 67-yarder to Edwards, answered the Tar Heel score and Georgia never looked back.

Rauch, Geri Shine In 1948 Gator Bowl

Joe Geri

Georgia's All-America quarterback Johnny Rauch had one of the best days of his career in Jacksonville, completing 12 of 17 passes for 183 yards. Captain Dan Edwards caught five passes and Joe Geri averaged 43.5 yards on seven punts.

The game remained scoreless after one quarter of play, but Maryland's Lu Gambino ran 35 yards for the first score of the game. The Terps held that 7-0 lead into halftime.

Georgia took the opening drive of the second half 87 yards, capped by Rauch's 1-yards plunge into the end-zone. Maryland answered with an 80-yard drive of its own and took the lead again on Gambino's second TD of the day. Later in the third, Georgia drove to its own 40 yard line but fumbled away possession. Three plays later the Terps were leading 20-7.

The fourth quarter was all Georgia, as the Bulldogs scored once on a Geri four-yard run and again on a nine-yard pass from Rauch to John Donaldson. The extra point was no good after Geri's TD and time ran out on a tied ball game with Georgia knocking on the door for another score.

A&M Zips Past Georgia In 1950 Presidential Cup Tilt

Georgia lost its seventh visit to a post-season affair, 40-20, to Texas A&M in the first and only Presidential Cup game at College Park, Md., before 12,245 fans on Dec. 9, 1950.

Georgia's Zippy Morocco, who later was to set the all-time SEC basketball scoring record, scored two touchdowns on brilliant runs, the first coming on a 65-yard punt return and the other a 23-yard rush.

A&M jumped out early and never looked back, scoring 40 unanswered points through three quarters of play. Before two minutes had been played in the opening quarter, the score was 13-0 after Bob Smith took the opening kickoff 100 yards and Glenn Lippman scored from five yards out after a Bulldog fumble. Another 81-yard TD rush by Smith in the first quarter buried the Bulldogs.

Morocco scored on a two-yard run in the third and a 65-yard punt return in the fourth to get the Dogs on the board. Lauren Hargrove added the last score of the day on a one-yard rush to make the final 40-20.

Tarkenton's TD Passes Key 1960 Orange Bowl Win

Francis Tarkenton directed two excellent scoring drives of 62 and 71 yards in Georgia's 14-0 victory over Missouri in the 1960 Orange Bowl before 75,280.

Late in the first quarter Tarkenton anticipated a quick kick to set up the first score. He returned it 17 yards to the M 38. On third down and nine he passed to Fred Brown for 12 to the M 25. On third and 14, he fired to Bill McKenny, rookie RHB from Jacksonville, for 29 yards and the TD, Durward Pennington's PAT made it 7-0.

Ridlehuber Rips Raiders In 1964 Sun Bowl

The 7-0 conquest of Texas Tech in the Sun Bowl at El Paso Dec. 26, 1964, before 28,500 may have been the Bulldogs' best game of a glorious "Cinderella" season.

The defense held the Red Raiders' vaunted offense, which led the Southwest Conference with almost 300 yards per game, to only 128 yards (32 rushing and 96 passing). And, the offensive troops rolled up 329 yards (245 rushing and 84 passing), their second best performance of the season.

Preston Ridlehuber had by far the most productive day of his Georgia varsity career and clearly deserved the trophy awarded him as the game's outstanding performer. Preston ran 19 times for 87 yards, completed 4x5 passes for 77 yards, giving him a total of 164 yards.

Georgia blanked Texas Tech 7-0 in the 1964 Sun Bowl (Vince Dooley's first Bulldog team). The big play on the 68-yard TD drive was a 52-yard reception by Fred Barber from Preston Ridlehuber that gave the Bulldogs first and goal from the six-yard line.

Kent Lawrence Sets Cotton Bowl Record As Bulldogs Win Big over SMU

Georgia magnificently upheld the honor of the SEC with its decisive 24-9 victory over Southern Methodist University, Southwest Conference champ, Dec. 31, 1966, in Dallas' Cotton Bowl before 75,504.

Kent Lawrence established a Bulldog bowl-game rushing record vs. the Mustangs. His 149 yards in 16 carries erased the old Georgia bowl-game mark of 139 yards in 22 rushes by Frank Sinkwich vs. TCU in the 1942 Orange Bowl.

Lawrence's 74-yard TD rush on the game's third play also was the longest scoring play in Bulldog bowl annals. He was voted the game's outstanding player.

Bob Etter's 28-yard FG put Georgia out front 10-3 at the quarter. Steve Neuhaus set up another score with an interception at the SMU 33. Kirby Moore hit Billy Payne on a 20-yard scoring pass and Etter made it 17-3.

There was only one score in the last half. The Bulldogs drove 59 yards to goal early in the fourth quarter with Ronnie Jenkins carrying nine of the 12 rushes. Jenkins scored from the one. Etter made it 24-9.

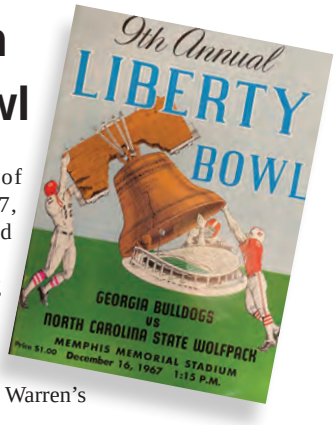
N.C. State Rallies Past Georgia In 1967 Liberty Bowl



A record Liberty Bowl crowd of 35,045 at Memphis Dec. 16, 1967, saw N.C. State, led by former Bulldog head coach Jim Donnan, trim Georgia, 14-7.

The Wolfpack cashed in their scoring opportunities, drawing first blood in the second quarter on a 65-yard drive—aided by a timely 15-yard penalty —that saw Donnan pass 6 yards to Martell for a TD. Warren's PAT made it 7-0.

Georgia retaliated with a fine 68-yard scoring drive, Lawrence starting things off with a 42-yard kickoff return. Kirby Moore hit on four passes, three to Dennis Hughes and one to Billy Payne. Ronnie Jenkins scored from the one and Jim McCullough's PAT knotted the count at 7-7 midway the second quarter.

State went ahead early in the fourth quarter, driving 73 yards with Barchuk scoring from the one. Warren's PAT was good.

Georgia again fought back and mounted a great 98-yard drive that ended with Lawrence failing to score by inches after taking a pitchout from Moore at the N.C. State 3 and sprinting to the 1. Lawrence was voted the game's most valuable offensive back, while Edgar Chandler was the most valuable offensive lineman.

Georgia Upset by Arkansas Razorbacks In 1969 Sugar Bowl

A huge Sugar Bowl crowd of 82,113 saw Arkansas, champion of the Southwest Conference, upset Georgia, champion of the Southeastern Conference, 16-2, on Jan. 1, 1969.

The Bulldogs had the ball six times in the first quarter but lost possession three times on fumbles and once on a pass interception. But the Georgia defense played well and the quarter ended scoreless.

The Razorbacks moved 65 yards for a TD early in the second quarter, scoring on a 27-yard pass, Montgomery-Dicus. White's PAT made it 7-0.

Midway the second quarter David McKnight tossed Burnett for a six-yard loss and a safety to make it 7-2, but a Bulldog fumble a few plays later gave Arkansas position for a 34-yard field goal by White which made it 10-2 at halftime.

Georgia ''blew'' a good chance early in the third quarter after recovering an Arkansas fumble on the kickoff. Brad Johnson fumbled on the goal line on third down, and the ball went out of the end zone.

A fumble and pass interception in the fourth quarter put Arkansas in position for two more field goals by White (24 and 31 yards).

Nebraska Too Much for Dogs In 1969 Sun Bowl

Nebraska turned out to be every bit as good as advertised.

''They were the best team we played all season,'' said Captain Steve Greer following the Cornhuskers' 45-6 victory before a sun-baked Sun Bowl crowd of 31,176 in El Paso Dec. 20.

The Cornhuskers took advantage of a strong wind to kick four field goals in the exceptionally-long first quarter (scoreboard clock broke and officials admitted afterwards that the first quarter was too long).

Trailing 18-0 after the first quarter, Georgia fought back to hold the big and fast Big Eight co-champions scoreless in the second quarter. But the Nebraskans took advantage of six pass interceptions and two fumble recoveries to run up the score, 14 points in the third quarter and 13 in the fourth.

Paul Gilbert directed Georgia's lone TD in the fourth quarter. He completed passes of 16 yards to Charley Whittemore, 11 to Dennis Hughes, then scored himself from the six. Jim McCullough's PAT kick was wide.

Poulos Superb in 1971 Gator Bowl

Georgia played perhaps its finest defensive game of the season to beat North Carolina 7-3 in the Gator Bowl, Dec. 31, 1971, before 71,208.

The Bulldogs held the Tar Heels to only 181 yards total offense (115 rushing and 66 passing).

Dennis Watson was the defensive hero, making tackles time and time again. He made three straight tackles during one stretch.

Offensively, the Bulldogs gained a lot of ground (322 yards) but were sporadic, particularly in the first half. But, following the Tar Heels' lone scoring drive of the game which resulted in a 35-yard FG by Craven, the Bulldogs finally mounted a beautiful 80-yard march that settled the issue.

The scintillating sophomores, Jimmy Poulos and Andy Johnson, ran the ball from Georgia's 20 to the G 43. Then Johnson hit split end Lynn Hunnicutt on a great 32-yard play to the NC 25. On the next snap, Poulos broke around left end down the sidelines to score, side-stepping the safety. Braswell made it 7-3.

The nation's TV audience once again was thrilled by the exploits of Poulos, the Greek Streak, who set a Georgia bowl rushing record in the Gator Bowl. He netted 161 yards on 20 carries to better the old Bulldog bowl mark of 149 yards on 16 rushes by Kent Lawrence against SMU in the 1966 Cotton Bowl.

Tough Terps Trimmed in 1973 Peach Bowl

Hats off to the Bulldogs for their thrilling 17-16 triumph over the Terrapins in the 1973 Peach Bowl Dec. 28 before 38,017 in Atlanta Fulton County Stadium.

Early in the second quarter, thanks to runs by Horace King and Andy Johnson, Georgia reached the Maryland 17 but was stopped. Johnson hit Jimmy Poulos on a screen and the Greek Streak went 62 yards for a score in one of the finest runs ever made by a Georgia back. Two plays later Maryland's Carter and White hooked up on a 68-yard haymaker and Mick-Mayer's PAT tied it 7-7.

Later Mike-Mayer put Maryland out front 10-7 on a 36-yard FG. Then the Bulldogs roared back with one of their best drives of the season. Captain Bobby Burns ripped up the middle for 21. Johnson hit King for 30, then ran 12 after faking a pass to the UM 9. With the clock running out, the Bulldogs had to settle for a 26-yard FG by Leavitt to make it 10-10 at halftime.

Tremendous defensive play set up Georgia's go-ahead TD late in the third quarter. Following Golden's 43-yard punt to Smith, tackled in his tracks at the UM 11 by Glynn Harrison, Sylvester Boler smashed through and hit QB Kinard as he was pitching out to Jennings. The hit caused a fumble that was recovered by Dick Conn at the Maryland 8 yard line. On third down, Johnson scored from the one and Leavitt made it 17-10.

Dogs Fall To Miami 21-10 in 1974 Tangerine Bowl

Miami of Ohio won its 23rd in a row with a 21-10 vicotry over Georgia in the Tangerine Bowl before 20,246 at Orlando, on Dec. 21, 1974.

It might have been a close game had not the Bulldogs given Miami two easy scoring chances with fumbles at their own 25 (first play from scrimmage) and 22. The Redskins cashed both opportunities, and in between, marched 68 yards to goal, QB Smith passing seven yards to E. Taylor for the TD.

After trailing 7-0, Georgia did make a good drive, first down at the UM 9, the big gainer being a 43-yard pass, Robinson to Appleby. But the vaunted Miami defense held and Allan Leavitt kicked at 21-yard FG.

Georgia came back strong in the second half and won it, 7-0. The defense played considerably better.

Midway through, the third quarter Butch Box, covering a Bucky Dilts punt, recovered a fumble at the Miami 41. Glynn Harrison immediately broke loose for 28 yards to the UM 13. Five plays later Ray Goff plunged over from the one and Leavitt made it 21-10.

Georgia outgained Miami in total offense, 274 to 242. Georgia had only 74 yards rushing but 200 passing. Miami had 228 rushing, 14 passing.

Cinderella Dogs Bow to Hogs in 1976 Cotton Bowl

The big clock in the Cotton Bowl showed 1:49 left in the first half with Georgia leading Arkansas, 10-0. Not a soul there or any one of the millions watching CBS-TV had any idea then that the Bulldogs, who had played almost a perfect game for nearly a half, would suffer one tough blow after and finally succumb, 31-10 on Jan. 1, 1976.

Georgia amazed the crowd of 74,500 by taking the opening kickoff and ramming the ball all the way to the A4. But the Razorbacks held and Georgia had to settle for a 35-yard FG by Allan Leavitt.

In the second quarter Matt Robinson connected with Gene Washington on a nifty 21-yard scoring play and Georgia led 10-0.

But two Georgia fumbles in the last two minutes of the first half resulted in an Arkansas FG (Little, 39 yards) and TD (Forte, 1-yd. rush).

It was a scoreless third quarter but the Hogs tallied three times in the final period.

#1 Pittsburgh Tops Dogs In '77 Sugar Bowl

Armed with a number four national ranking and the distinction of being first team to represent the conference in the SEC's "marriage" with the Sugar Bowl, Georgia's dreams of a national title were convincingly shattered by top-ranked Pittsburgh, 27-3, in the Sugar Bowl shootout for the national championship.

With a Sugar Bowl record crowd for the Superdome of 76, 117 fans looking on, Pittsburgh made believers of the whole nation in justifying their top national billing.

Junior quarterback Matt Cavanaugh and heralded Heisman Trophy winner Tony Dorsett supplied most of the offensive fireworks for the Panthers in building a 21-0 halftime lead. Cavanaugh directed his team 80 yards in the first quarter for Pitt's initial score, covering the last six yards himself on a keeper. In the second quarter, the Pittsburgh junior unveiled a brilliant passing game to account for another Pittsburgh score by hitting FLK Matt Jones for a 59-yard scoring strike. Dorsett added the Panthers' third TD of the day on an 11-yard burst to make the halftime tally 21-0.

The Bulldog offense, which had been stymied all day by the swarming Pittsburgh defense, finally was able to put something on the scoreboard in the third quarter. On Pitt's first possession of the second half, fullback Elliott Walker was separated from the ball on the Panthers' own 26-yard line, where defensive end Lawrence Craft fell on it for the Bulldogs. But several plays later, Georgia found themselves faced with fourth and goal on the seven and had to settle for Allan Leavitt's 25-yard field goal for their only score of the day.

Pitt's Carson Long added field goals of 42 and 31 yards as the Panthers claimed the 1976 national championship.

Stanford Rallies For Win In 1978 Bluebonnet Bowl

Georgia's Wonderdogs outgained Stanford 504 yards to 338, but lost the game 25-22 before 34,084 fans in the Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston on December 31, 1978.

Fumbles and penalties, missed PAT's and FG's and precision passing by All-American QB Steve Dils, enables the Cardinal to overcome a 22-0 deficit in the second half.

The Bulldogs played their best game of the season in running up an early advantage to the 22-0. They scored on their second possession in the first quarter, Rex Robinson kicking a 31-yd FG. On their third possession, Georgia's Buck Belue passed to flanker Carmon Prince 22 yards for a TD, but Robinson missed on the PAT to make Georgia a 9-0 leader.

As the half closed, Jeff Pyburn directed an 80-yard drive in seven plays as he spotted Prince for an eight-yard strike. Robinson was wide again on the PAT and Georgia led 15-0.

Georgia drove 75 yards to goal after the second half kick-off and took only six plays as Pyburn dove in from the one, making the score 22-0.

Two Bulldog fumbles accounted for Stanford's first pair of touchdowns, and their third tally came on a 14-yard pass from Dils to Ken Margerum. The two-point conversion was good, knotting the score at 22. The Cardinal recovered another Georgia fumble to set up their go-ahead field goal of 24 yards. Georgia came back strong, driving to the Stanford 14, but Robinson missed on a 31-yard attempt.

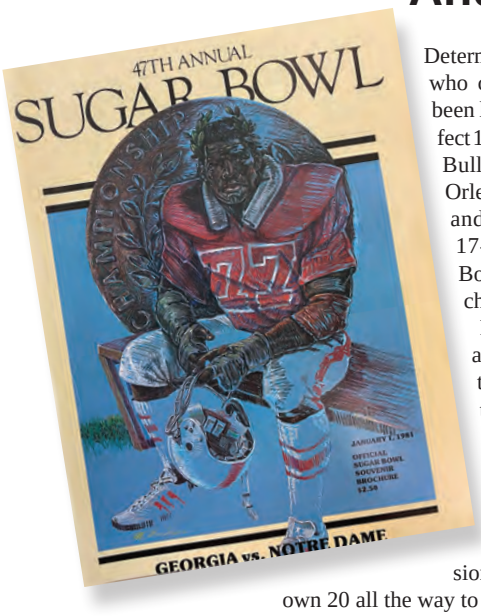
Georgia Whips Irish For 1981 Sugar Bowl Win And The National Championship



Determined to silence the critics who claimed that Georgia had been lucky in streaking to a perfect 11-0 regular season slate, the Bulldogs journeyed to New Orleans, No. 1 ranking in hand, and defeated Notre Dame, 17-10, in the 1981 Sugar Bowl to claim the national championship.

Played before a record Sugar Bowl crowd of 77,895 in the Louisiana Superdome, the game was one where Georgia capitalized on early Irish mistakes to take a 17-3 lead at halftime.

Notre Dame took the ball on the first possession of the contest from its own 20 all the way to the UGA 32 where kicker Harry Oliver booted a 50-yard field goal to give the Irish a 3-0 lead with 10:41 to go in the opening quarter.

Oliver tried another field goal moments later from the 48, but this time Bulldog freshman rover Terry Hoage slipped through the line to step in front and block the attempt, giving Georgia the ball at the ND49. Nine plays netted 20 yards and placekicker Rex Robinson was called on for a 46-yard field goal. The All-American was successful to tie the game at three apiece with less than two minutes remaining in the first period.

On the ensuing kickoff, Georgia capitalized on confusion among two Notre Dame return men, and Bulldog senior Bob Kelly recovered a loose football at the Irish one-yard line. Freshman marvel Herschel Walker, who would go on to gain 150 yards (the first 100-yard performance against the Notre Dame defense all season) and win the Miller-Digby MVP Trophy, dived on the second play for the touchdown. Robinson coverted the PAT and Bulldogs were up, 10-3, still in the first quarter.

Erk Russell's defense, which led the country in takeaways during the season, recovered another Notre Dame fumble early in the second period as Irish fullback John Sweeney was separated from the ball at the ND22 and Bulldog senior roverback Chris Welton pounced on it.

Walker broke an off tackle play for 12 yards to the ND10. Quarterback Buck Belue swept left for seven more to the Irish three-yard line, setting up a second and goal situation. Belue gave it to Walker and the 6-2, 220-pounder stormed into the endzone for his second score of the game. Robinson added the PAT and Georgia enjoyed a 17-3 lead.

Down 14 points, Notre Dame drove the second time it had the ball in the second half from its own 40-yard line to the G13. On a third down play there, Irish QB Blair Kiel dropped back, threw into the endzone to flanker Pete Holohan, only to watch Georgia's All-American cornerback Scott Woerner step in at the last minute to bat the pass away. Notre Dame's Oliver came in to kick a 30-yarder, but the ball sailed wide right.

The Irish finally got a touchdown after Georgia punted on the next possession. The passing of Kiel and running of tailback Phil Carter took Notre Dame 57 yards in 11 plays as the drive was climaxed by a one-yard plunge by Carter for the touchdown. Oliver booted the PAT and the Georgia lead was now 17-10 with :54 seconds of the third quarter showing on the Superdome scoreboard clock.

After Georgia was unable to move the ball, senior Mark Malkiewicz was called in to punt. The boot carried to the Irish 46 and Notre Dame, with momentum mounting, took over. Seven plays later, the Fighting Irish were at the G21 and fourth down staring them in the face. Oliver's 38-yard field goal attempt went wide to the left this time and the Bulldogs clung to their seven-point lead.

After two unsuccessful possessions by each team, Notre Dame got the ball one last time with 5:10 to go in the ballgame at the ND43. Carter ran around the end for seven yards to midfield. On second down, 6-1, 265-pound defensive guard Eddie Weaver caught Kiel behind the line for a four-yard loss, setting up a third and seven play. A Kiel-to-Nick Vehr pass got six yards back, making it fourth down, one yard to go.

A running play looked to be forthcoming, but Kiel surprised everyone when he faded back, looking for Dean Masztak, the big tight end, on the side line. One Bulldog, apparently not surprised by the call, was cornerback Woerner, who stepped up in front of Masztak for the interception (his second of the game) at the G34. Only 2:56 remained.

Runs by Belue and Walker gave the Bulldogs a first down at the G47. Two plays after that, Georgia recorded the biggest first down of the game when Belue hit his very first completion of the day on a seven-yard pass to senior flanker Amp Arnold. Walker got the Bulldogs another first down at the ND 38, where Georgia ran off three plays and watched the clock expire, prompting a sea of UGA fans to engulf the playing field for the national championship celebration.

Pitt Edges Bulldogs 24-20 In 1982 Sugar Bowl

Pittsburgh QB Dan Marino hit tight end John Brown on a fourth-down, 33-yard TD pass with just 35 seconds left to give the Panthers a come-from-behind 24-20 win over Georgia in the 1982 Sugar Bowl, dashing the Bulldogs' hopes for a second straight national championship.

Perhaps the most exciting of the holiday games of '82, the Pitt-Georgia matchup had six lead changes for the 77,224 who were in attendance at the Superdome.

Early in the fourth quarter it was Pittsburgh which capitalized on a Dog fumble at the G23. Four plays later, QB Marino found John Brown open for a six-yard TD play. The conversion put the Panthers, 17-13 with 11:40 to play in the game.

But the Bulldogs, entering the game ranked No. 2 in the country, weren't quite through yet. Taking over on the G20, Georgia drove the distance in 10 plays, climaxing the drive with a Buck Belue-to-Clarence Kay TD pass from six yards out. Kevin Butler's PAT put the lead in Georgia's favor, 20-17, with 8:31 remaining.

Each team failed on a possession and, with 3:46 left, the Panthers got the ball on the P20. Eleven plays later, they were at the G33, fourth down and five. Seconds later, TE Brown was in the endzone on the receiving end of Marino's game-winner.

Penn State Clips Dogs 27-23 In 1983 Sugar Bowl

After staking Penn State to a 20-3 second-quarter lead, the Bulldogs staged a great comeback but came up short, 27-23, to the Nittany Lions before 78,124 in the '83 Sugar Bowl Classic. The outcome foiled Georgia's chances for another national championship and a perfect 12-0 season.

Trailing 20-3 with only :39 remaining in the first half, Georgia took over on its 34-yard line. Lastinger completed four of five pass attempts, the final completion coming on a 10-yard scoring play to Herman Archie. Butler's PAT cut the deficit to 20-10 at intermission.

The Bulldogs took the second half kickoff and drove 69 yards in 11 plays as Herschel Walker, who netted 103 yards on the day, ran in from a yard out. Penn State's lead now was only 20-17.

The Nittany Lions took possession late in the third quarter at their 19. Six plays advanced the football to the G47. From there, Blackledge found his receiver Garrity, who made a diving catch in the endzone for a TD. Gancitano's PAT increased the PSU lead to 27-17.

Georgia didn't roll over, however. With 5:38 left to play, the Dogs took the ball at the P43 after a fumbled punt. Six plays later, Lastinger found TE Clarence Kay for a nine-yard TD pass. Only 3:54 remained. The two-point try failed and Georgia trailed 27-23.

Georgia could not prevent the Nittany Lions from getting two first downs and used up its allotted timeouts as Penn State ran out the clock. The game ended with the ball rolling into the Georgia endzone after a 62-yard punt from Ralph Giacomarro.

Georgia Upsets Texas 10-9 In 1984 Cotton Bowl

Georgia senior QB John Lastinger ran 17 yards for a go-ahead TD with just 3:22 left on the clock to lift the Bulldogs to a 10-9 Cotton Bowl Classic triumph over No. 2 Texas before 67,891 in Dallas on Jan. 2, 1984.

John Lastinger stretches for the winning TD in the final minutes.

The winning TD had been set up when Bulldog sophomore Gary Moss recovered a Craig Curry fumbled punt at the Longhorn 23-yard line. Lastinger called his own number on the third play from scrimmage and darted outside right for the TD.

Texas had one more possession, but the Bulldog defense rose up recording two sacks (Kenny Sims and Ed Moore) to back the Longhorns up from their 28-yard line all the way to their seven. Georgia took control and ran off the final 2:19 on the clock after converting a fourth down play at the Texas 36.

As expected going into the Cotton Bowl, defense was the key for both teams as there were just 13 first downs and three points each achieved in the first half. Texas grabbed an early 3-0 lead with 10:32 to go in the first quarter when freshman Jeff Ward booted a 22-yard FG. The Bulldogs, after Moss returned a punt 29 yards to the Longhorn 43 late in the quarter, used four plays to move to the Texas 26 where Butler came in and kicked a 43-yarder.

Ward added his second three-pointer on the day with 7:10 to play in the third quarter as he connected on a 40-yard field goal. After a Georgia fumble at the G37, the Longhorns moved 26 yards in eight plays to the G11 where Ward came on and extended the Texas advantage to 9-3 with 3:50 to play in the third quarter.

FSU Rallies To Tie Bulldogs In 1984 Citrus Bowl

Georgia placekicker Kevin Butler's attempt of a 70-yard field goal fell just a foot short as time expired in the '84 Florida Citrus Bowl, enabling favored Florida State to hold off the upstart Bulldogs and earn a 17-17 tie before 51,821 in Orlando on Dec. 22, 1984.

The Bulldogs, who had hoped to use the Citrus Bowl as the start of their 1985 season, stormed out to a 14-0 halftime lead. Florida State battled back to tie the score through the efforts of a talented offense and an aggressive punt rush with under four minutes remaining.

After averaging 35.3 points a game, the Seminoles were held to just 10 points through three quarters until noseguard Lenny Chavers blocked a Chip Andrews punt, which was picked up by teammate Joe Wessel for a Seminole touchdown. Darrin Holloman's sweep around the left side gave FSU a two-point conversion and knotted the game at 17 late in the fourth quarter. The Dogs tried to repeat the miracle they had staged earlier in the season against rival Clemson in which they drove up field in the closing seconds enabling All-American Kevin Butler to kick a conference record 60-yard FG and secure a Georgia victory. FSU's defense proved to be a bit stiffer than that of Clemson, and after three incomplete James Jackson passes, Georgia coach Vince Dooley called on Butler once again, but his kick fell just short of the crossbar and the game ended deadlocked at 17.

Although disappointed with a tie, Georgia walked off the field encouraged by the play of their underclassmen. Freshman QB James Jackson saw his first stretch of extensive playing time and responded by earning the game's Most Valuable Player trophy. The game's most valuable offensive player was another Georgia freshman, TB Lars Tate, who scored both of Georgia's TDs. Senior CB Kevin Harris was awarded Defensive Player of the Game, giving the red and black a clean sweep of the awards ceremony.

Dogs, Wildcats Tie 13-13 In 1985 Sun Bowl Game

A Sun Bowl crowd of 52,203 saw the Georgia Bulldogs rally for 10 fourth quarter points to pull even with the Arizona Wildcats, 13-13, then watched as both teams miss potential game-winning field goals in the final two minutes to preserve the tie.

Georgia struck first, marching 72 yards in 13 plays to set up a 37-yard FG by Steve Crumley. Crumley, who had pulled a muscle in his kicking leg before the final game of the regular season, reinjured himself on the kick, however, and was unable to continue.

Arizona responded on the following possession to tie the game, driving to the G1 before an illegal procedure penalty on fourth down forced the Cats to call upon All-American Max Zendejas to tie the score at three from 21 yards.Zendejas added a 52-yarder, and the the Wildcats made it 12-3 when Martin Rudolph picked off QB James Jackson's pass and returned it 35 yards for a TD. Georgia backup kicker Davis Jacobs was true on a 44-yard field to close the gap to 13-6.

With 12:35 to play senior DB Tony Flack recovered RB James Debow's fumble at the A23 to set up what would be the game's last score behind Tate on the ground. With 1:14 left, Jacobs missed a 44-yard field goal.

Georgia held Arizona until the Wildcats gambled on fourth-and-two from their own 36, and David Adams rambled for 25 yards on a draw play with DL Henry Williams executing a game-saving tackle at the G39. The Wildcats drove to the 22, called time out, and Zendejas' 39-yard attempt went wide and Georgia averted a last-second defeat.

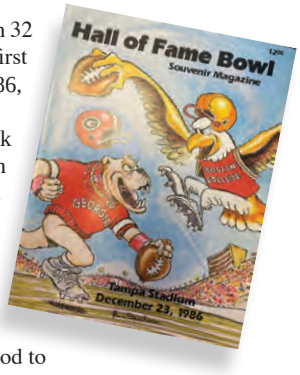
B.C. Edges Dogs 27-24 In 1986 Hall of Fame



Boston College scored a five-yard TD pass with 32 seconds remaining to nip Georgia, 27-24, in the first Hall of Fame Bowl held at Tampa on Dec. 22, 1986, in front of 25,368 in Tampa Stadium.

The last second win spoiled a brilliant comeback from a 13-point halftime deficit by Georgia which actually took the lead, 24-20, with a five-yard TD run by QB James Jackson with 11:51 left in the game.

The Bulldogs, after scoring first to lead 7-0, watched Boston College score 20 straight points before halftime.

Georgia came out in the third quarter to score 10 points and added another seven in the final period to take the lead. B.C. got the ball the final time with 2:38 left and drove to the Georgia 27 when an incomplete fourth-and-two pass appeared to have iced the game for the Dogs. But a pass interference penalty gave the Eagles new life and three plays later, they scored on a five-yard TD toss.

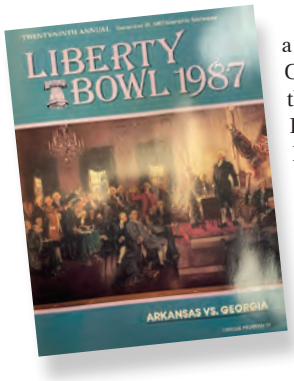
Kasay Kick Defeats Arkansas In 1987 Liberty Bowl



Freshman placekicker John Kasay booted a 39-yard field goal with no time left to give Georgia a 20-17 come-from-behind victory over the Arkansas Razorbacks before 53,249 fans at Liberty Bowl Stadium in Memphis, Tenn., on Dec 29, 1987. The victory provided Georgia with its first nine-win season since 1983 and the first victory over Arkansas after two previous attempts.

Bulldog QB James Jackson was the Georgia most valuable offensive player after rushing for 72 yards and completing 15 of 25 passes for 148 yards. Bulldog LB John Brantley was the Georgia most valuable defensive player.

Kasay's game-winning kick was set up when Georgia cornerback Carver Russaw intercepted an Arkansas pass and ran it back to the Razorback 43-yard line with 46 seconds to play. Arkansas had missed a 35-yard field goal with 1:42 left which would have given them the lead. The Bulldogs ran three plays to set up Kasay's, kick the big one being a Jackson-to -Sadowski pass for 16 yards to put the Dogs in field goal range.

Georgia had trailed at halftime, 10-7, and Arkansas took the second half kickoff and drove for a touchdown to take a 17-7 lead with 11:35 left in the third period. But the fourth quarter belonged to Georgia.

Kasay kicked a 24-yard FG with 14:57 left to cut the lead to 17-10, and James Jackson scored on a five-yard run to tie the score at 17.

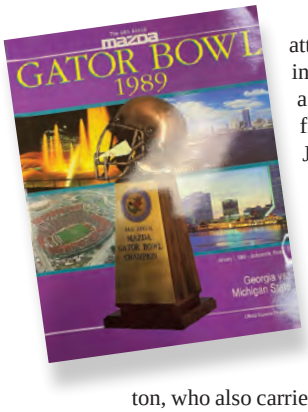
Dogs Use New Tricks To Win 1989 Gator Bowl



Largely discarding their trademark rushing attack, Vince Dooley's Bulldogs took to the air in the 44th Mazda Gator Bowl en route to a 34-27 victory over the Michigan State in front of 76,236 fans in Jacksonville, Fla., on Jan. 1, 1989.

Georgia not only secured its second straight 9-win season but handed Dooley the 201st, and final, win of his illustrious 25-year coaching career. QB Wayne Johnson, who was named Georgia's MVP for the game, had a career-high 227 yards and three touchdowns. Two of Johnson's three TD strikes went to tailback Rodney Hampton, who also carried the ball 10 times for 109 yards and a TD.

Georgia took a 7-0 lead on a 6-yard Johnson-to-Hampton touchdown pass. By halftime, the Dogs led 17-7. Georgia scored again in the third when Johnson capped a 64-yard drive with an 18-yard pass to tight end Kirk Warner.

MSU closed the gap to 27-20 with 14:24 to play, but the Dogs countered on their next possession when Hampton raced 32 yards for his third touchdown. The Spartans scored once more, but Georgia, which finished the season ranked 15th, hung on for a 34-27 win.

Syracuse Nips Georgia 19-18 To Win '89 Peach

With :25 left in the game, Syracuse PK John Biskup booted a 26-yard field goal to lift the Orangemen over the Bulldogs, 19-18, in Atlanta at the 22nd Peach Bowl on Dec. 30, 1989.

Despite putting together an impressive opening drive and coming up with several big plays, the Dogs couldn't sustain a balanced offensive attack throughout the game. Georgia's leading rusher Rodney Hampton was held to 32 yards on the ground, while Syracuse TB Michael Owens ran for 112 yards on 14 carries. The Georgia passing attack was limited to 88 yards, the first time all season the Dogs were held under 100 yards in the air.

Georgia opened the game with a 66-yard drive, capped off by a 5-yard TD pass from QB Greg Talley to tight end Kirk Warner. Syracuse answered with an 80-yard drive of its own, with Owens scoring from one yard out.

In the second quarter, Syracuse suffered from three miscues, but managed to stay close. The first came when Georgia linebacker Mo Lewis set a new Peach Bowl record with a 77-yard interception return to the Syracuse five. The Bulldogs were unable to get into the end zone, however, and had to settle for a John Kasay field goal. In the second half, the Orangemen gave up a safety, and Georgia added a TD for an 18-10 edge going to the fourth.

Syracuse rallied, first with a 94-yards drive to close to 18--16. Then, Biskup's field goal lifted the Orange over Georgia in the closest Peach Bowl since 1973.

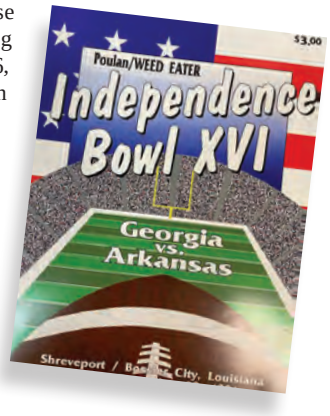
Georgia Beats Arkansas 24-15 In '91 Independence



Georgia completed the 1991 phase of "Operation Turnaround" by beating the Arkansas Razorbacks 24-15 in front of 46, 932 fans and an ABC-TV national television audience in the 1991 Independence Bowl.

The Bulldogs jumped out to a 14-0 lead behind two scoring strikes thrown from Eric Zeier to Arthur Marshall and Andre Hastings stretching their lead to 17-0 on a 39-yard FG by freshman Kanon Parkman.

The Razorbacks battled back and got on the scoreboard with a 7-yard run by the Hogs' leading rusher, E.D. Jackson. The run capped off an eight-play 37-yard drive by the Razorbacks.

The second half continued to be a showcase for the play of Hastings and Zeier and the ball-hawking Georgia defense led by junior linebacker Torrey Evans.

Georgia's defense forced Arkansas quarterback Jason Allen into throwing five interceptions. Evans came off the bench for the injured John Allen and played brilliantly, recording four tackles, an interception and fumble recovery to earn defensive MVP honors.

The game's offensive MVP, Hastings caught four passes for 94 yards and outran all pursuers on a third quarter 53-yard reverse that put the Bulldogs out front 24-7. The Hogs added eight points in the fourth quarter, but it was too late, the Bulldogs had won the Independence Bowl.

Dogs Beat Ohio State In 1993 Florida Citrus Bowl

Georgia secured its best finish in a decade, including a top-10 final ranking and the first 10-win season since 1983, with a 21-14 victory over Ohio State. A New Year's Day crowd of 65,861 attended the 47th annual Florida Citrus Bowl.

Offensively, Georgia found ball control to its liking in the first quarter as it opened the game with its longest touchdown drive of the season. The Bulldogs drove 80 yards in 14 plays, grinding up 6:18 on the game clock, to take a 7-0 lead. Georgia then opened it up in the second quarter, calling for passes on five of its first eight plays. An Eric Zeier fumble just inside OSU territory proved costly as the Buckeyes drove 54 yards to paydirt in 11 plays for a 7-7 halftime tie.

After the break, Andre Hastings ignited the Dogs' offense on the opening kickoff of the second half with a spectacular 49-yard return. Then from the OSU 45, Garrison Hearst gained all 45 yards on four carries en route to a 14-7 Bulldog advantage. But after a short punt by Georgia, which the Buckeyes returned to the UGA 33, Ohio State seized the opportunity and tied the game again, 14-14, on a five-yard run by Robert Smith.

Slowly, the Buckeyes had taken control of the game's momentum and after a 45-yard completion to Smith to the UGA 15, it appeared Ohio State would take its first lead of the game. But quarterback Kirk Herbstreit fumbled, and the Bulldogs drove 80 yards in 11 plays to take the victory. A final Buckeye drive ended with a desperation pass intercepted in the endzone.

Virginia Rallies For 34-27 Win In 1995 Peach Bowl

At the Peach Bowl, two of the nation's most hard-luck teams took to Atlanta's Georgia Dome in search of season-ending consolation. Although the Bulldogs entered the contest as underdogs, Georgia again battled back from adversity, this time a 14-0 deficit with 4:09 left in the first quarter, only to lose in the closing minute. Virginia's Demetrius Allen proved the difference, returning a Kanon Parkman kickoff for an 83-yard TD with :57 remaining.

Sophomore QB Hines Ward engineered the Georgia comeback, lighting up the Cavalier secondary for 413 yards on 31 of 59 passing. Figure in another 56 yards rushing, and Ward had set new Georgia bowl records for pass attempts, completions, yards passing and total offense. However, a pair of first-quarter interceptions and a blocked Dax Langley punt led to an easy 14 points for Virginia and considerable red and black frustration.

Once again, Georgia's defense kept the team's hope alive. Besides limiting Virginia to 256 yards total offense, the UGA "D" even gave the 70,824 audience a temporary charge when defensive tackle Jason Ferguson returned UVA's Walt Derey fumble 10 yards for a TD—Georgia's first tie of the game (27-27) with only 1:09 left.

Bobo, Edwards Lead UGA Past Badgers in '98 Outback Bowl

Mike Bobo completed 26 of 28 passes for 235 yards and one touchdown and running back Robert Edwards ran for three more scores as Georgia defeated Wisconsin 33-6 before an Outback Bowl crowd of 56,186 and an ESPN national television audience.

Bobo, who earned MVP honors, set an Outback Bowl record for best completion percentage (92.8). He also set Outback and Georgia records for consecutive completions with 19. Edwards set a Georgia bowl mark and tied an Outback record with three rushing touchdowns. Senior Hines Ward set an Outback Bowl record for receptions and yardage with 12 catches for 122 yards.

Georgia sported a new look for the Outback Bowl, donning black pants instead of the traditional "silver britches" to go along with the Bulldogs' white jerseys and red helmets. "The players came to me a while back and requested we do something special for the bowl game," Georgia head coach Jim Donnan said. "The idea the players liked best was wearing black pants. After discussing it with (athletic director) Coach Dooley we decided to go along with the players' suggestion for this game."

Georgia Rallies Past Virginia In 1998 Peach Bowl

No. 19 Georgia rallied from an early second-quarter deficit of 21-0 to post a thrilling 35-33 win over 12th-ranked Virginia. A Peach Bowl record crowd of 72,876 in Atlanta on Dec. 31, 1998 was in attendance for the memorable comeback.

Virginia capitalized on three second quarter interceptions by Georgia freshman Quincy Carter, turning each of them into a touchdown to build a 21-0 lead. Georgia got on the scoreboard when Carter connected with senior Tony Small on an 11-yard score with 1:15 left in the second quarter.

Georgia got its first lead of the night when Olandis Gary capped a 67-yard drive with a 2-yard run on the Dogs' first possession of the fourth quarter. The Bulldogs then built an 8-point lead when Carter called his own number on a quarterback sneak from the one-yard-line with 7:01 remaining.

Georgia staved off the Cavaliers late by stopping a 2-point conversion and then watching as their last-ditch field goal sailed wide left with just 19 seconds remaining.

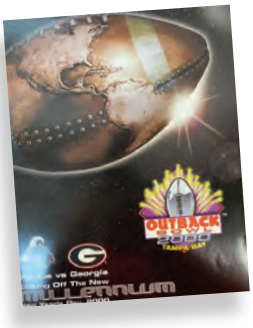
Record Comeback Highlights '00 Outback Win over Purdue



Georgia kicked off the new year by staging the largest comeback in bowl history, scoring 28 unanswered points to defeat Purdue 28-25 in overtime at Raymond James Stadium in front of 54,059 in a game broadcast by ESPN.

Purdue jumped out to an early lead in the first quarter behind three Drew Brees touchdown passes. In the second quarter Brees threw his fourth touchdown pass to Chris James. Purdue missed three of the four extra point opportunities to lead 25-0 with 10:38 left in the first half.

Georgia got its first points of the game on a Terrence Edwards 74-yard touchdown run off an option reverse to cut the lead to 25-7. Quincy Carter, who had 243 yards on 20 of 33 passing with two touchdowns (one rushing, one passing), helped continue the Georgia surge when he scored on an eight-yard run with 4:22 left in the third quarter. Patrick Pass made the two-point conversion to move the score to 25-18.

The Bulldogs tied the score at 25 with just 1:19 left in regulation, when Randy McMichael caught a Carter pass over two defenders for an eight-yard touchdown. In overtime, Georgia managed to stop Purdue on its first drive when Dorsch missed a 43-yard field goal. After two Pass rushes for 19 yards, Hap Hines nailed a 21-yarder to cap the Bulldogs' come from behind victory.

Georgia Cruises Past Virginia In 2000 O'ahu Bowl

Terrence Edwards

The 24th-ranked Georgia Bulldogs (8-4) defeated Virginia 34-17 in the 2000 Jeep O'ahu Bowl in front of an Aloha Stadium crowd of 24,187 and an ESPN television audience on Christmas Eve.

Georgia jumped out to a 17-0 lead in the first quarter. The Bulldogs got on the board with a 35-yard field goal by freshman kicker Billy Bennett. On the Bulldogs' next series, one play after a successful fake punt, Edwards scampered 40 yards into the end zone on a reverse to give Georgia a 10-0 lead. On Virginia's next possession, freshman safety Kentrell Curry recovered a Cavalier fumble in the end zone for the 17-0 lead.

The Cavaliers pulled within 24-14 in the third quarter as senior linebacker Byron Thweatt returned a Georgia fumble 58 yards, but that was as close as Virginia would get. Georgia added two more touchdowns for the final margin, a 21-yard pass from sophomore quarterback Cory Phillips to freshman receiver Damien Gary and a four-yard fumble return by sophomore safety Cap Burnett after senior linebacker Kendrell Bell knocked the ball loose.

Edwards was named MVP after leading UGA in both receiving and rushing with eight catches for 79 yards and five rushes for 97 yards and one touchdown.

Eagles Edge Dogs In 2001 Music City Bowl

Verron Haynes

Running back William Green scored a 7-yard touchdown with 4:43 remaining to lift Boston College to a 20-16 win over Georgia at the Music City Bowl.

Running back Verron Haynes capped his Georgia career with 132 yards on 27 carries, including a 1-yard scoring run in the third quarter. That touchdown gave the Bulldogs a 16-10 lead.

The Bulldogs began the game with some trickery when Fred Gibson took the opening kickoff and gave a reverse handoff to Decory Bryant, who raced 86 yards to the Boston College 18. On Georgia's second play, Greene found Gibson on a swing pass and he fought his way into the end zone from 15 yards out.

Boston College grabbed the lead in the second quarter when quarterback Brian St. Pierre threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to receiver Dedrick Dewalt. The play was set up by Green's 75-yard run, the longest play allowed by the Bulldogs this season.

Sciortino then converted from 26 yards out to give the Eagles a 13-7 lead. The Bulldogs answered with Bennett's 24-yard field goal as Georgia trailed 13-10 at the break. Haynes' third-quarter touchdown gave the Bulldogs their final lead of the contest.

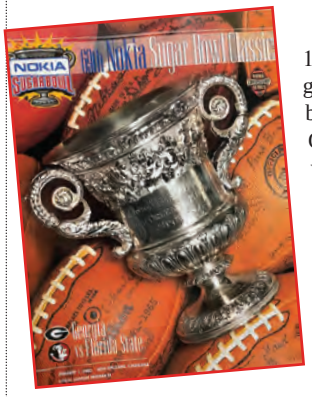
2003 Dogs Get Record 13th Win In Nokia Sugar Bowl



Georgia bowl MVP Musa Smith rushed for 145 yards and Billy Bennett kicked four field goals as Georgia defeated Florida State 26-13 before 74,269 fans in the Nokia Sugar Bowl. Georgia completed the season at 13-1, the most wins in school history.

The Bulldogs' defense forced three turnovers by the Seminoles, including cornerback Bruce Thornton's 71-yard interception return for a touchdown. Nose tackle Ken Veal's fumble recovery led to one of Bennett's four field goals.

Bennett staked the Bulldogs to a 3-0 lead in the first quarter . The Seminoles took their only lead of the game in the second quarter as quarterback Fabian Walker found receiver Anquan Boldin on a 5-yard scoring toss. Thornton's second-quarter interception and score gave Georgia the lead for good.

Bennett pushed the advantage to 20-7 by drilling a 42-yard field goal early in the third quarter. On FSU's next possession, Veal's fumble recovery set up a third Bennett field goal, pushing Georgia ahead 23-7.

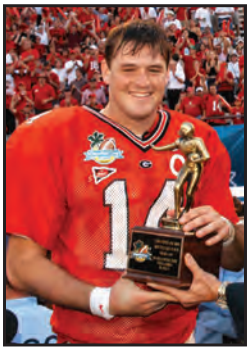
Georgia Defeats Purdue In OT In 2004 Capital One Bowl



David Greene

After scoring the game's first 24 points, Georgia needed a Kregg Lumpkin overtime touchdown run to hold off Purdue, 34-27, in front of a Capital One Bowl crowd of 64,565 and an ABC national television audience.

The Bulldogs opened the game with a nine-play, 68-yard drive culminating in a six-yard Fred Gibson touchdown pass from quarterback and offensive MVP David Greene (left). The Bulldogs used a Billy Bennett field goal and two more Greene TD passes--one each to Gibson and Reggie Brown--to open a 24-0 lead with 4:47 left in the first half.

Purdue answered with a touchdown and field goal to pull within 14, 24-10, at halftime.

Purdue scored the fourth quarter's first points on a Kyle Orton two-yard run with 9:11 left. Georgia then used up 4:44 on a 12-play, 57-yard drive ending in a 40-yard Bennett field goal. Late in the fourth, Purdue needed just three plays to go 66 yards and pull within three, 27-24, on a Kyle Orton three-yard touchdown pass. Ben Jones kicked a 44-yard field goal with 49 seconds left to tie the game at 27-all.

On the first possession of overtime, Lumpkin pushed his way into the end zone to give the Bulldogs a 34-27 lead. Purdue also drove inside the 10 yard line, but failed to convert.

Bulldogs Beat Badgers In 2005 Outback Bowl

Georgia (10-2) held off a late Wisconsin rally to defeat the Badgers 24-21 in front of 62,414 Outback Bowl fans at Raymond James Stadium and an ESPN national television audience.

It was the last game for several Bulldog seniors, including All-American DE David Pollack (right) whose three-sack performance earned him Outback Bowl MVP.

Overall, Georgia's defense stifled the Badgers' offense, allowing just 13 points while recording seven quarterback sacks and forcing and recovering two fumbles.

Wisconsin (9-3) took an early second-quarter 6-3 lead in a battle of field goals, but Georgia's offense came to life in the middle of the game. Senior QB David Greene connected on a 24-yard touchdown to Fred Gibson and later a 24-yard TD to senior Jeremy Thomas.

Freshman Thomas Brown notched his fourth 100-yard rushing game of the year with 111 yards on 16 carries, including a 29-yard touchdown run to give Georgia a 24-6 lead.

West Virginia Upsets Dogs In 2006 Nokia Sugar Bowl

Georgia was unable to overcome a 28-0 deficit and fell to West Virginia 38-35 in the 2006 Nokia Sugar Bowl in front of 74,458 fans at the Georgia Dome and an ABC national television audience.

Despite three touchdowns and 277 yards passing by quarterback D.J. Shockley, the Bulldogs' late rally fell short after they outscored the Mountaineers 35-10 to finish the game. Tailback Thomas Brown led Georgia with 78 yards rushing, including a 52-yard touchdown.

West Virginia started the game's scoring with three touchdowns in the first quarter and went up 28-0 with 14:10 remaining in the second quarter. Georgia got its first points at the 12:58 mark in the second quarter on Kregg Lumpkin's career-long 34-yard touchdown run.

Kregg Lumpkin

The Bulldogs managed to close the gap to 38-35 after Shockley connected with fellow senior Bryan McClendon for a 43-yard touchdown with 5:13 left in the fourth quarter. But West Virginia converted a fake punt in the game's final drive, enabling the Mountaineers to run the clock out.

Bulldogs Rally Past Va. Tech In 2006 Chick-fil-A Bowl

Georgia stormed back from an 18-point deficit to defeat 14th-ranked Virginia Tech 31-24 in the Chick-fil-A Bowl in the Georgia Dome in front of a bowl-record crowd of 75,406 and a national ESPN television audience.

Bulldog linebacker Tony Taylor (two interceptions) and quarterback Matthew Stafford (129 yards, 1 TD) were named the Defensive and Offensive MVPs. In the fourth quarter, the Bulldogs got scoring runs from tailback Kregg Lumpkin and fullback Brannan Southerland along with one of kicker Brandon Coutu's three field goals (including a Georgia bowl record 51-yarder) to complete the comeback.

Tony Taylor

Georgia led 3-0 after the first quarter, but then the Hokies built a 21-3 halftime edge. Taylor's interception at the start of the fourth quarter set up the game-tying touchdown, a 3-yard Lumpkin run. On the Hokies' next possession, Charles Johnson sacked Sean Glennon and caused him to fumble, which Quentin Moses recovered. It led to the go-ahead field goal by Coutu.

Bulldogs Blast Hawai'i To Win 2008 Sugar Bowl

The Bulldogs trounced previously undefeated Hawai'i 41-10 in the Sugar Bowl on New Years night from the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans, La. This was the most points the Bulldogs have ever scored in a bowl game as well as their largest margin of victory in a bowl game.

Georgia struck early against the Warriors, starting with a Knowshon Moreno 17-yard touchdown run with 9:42 in the first quarter. Moreno also had an 11-yard scoring run late in the first period.

Thomas Brown

Early in the second half, defensive end Marcus Howard sacked Warrior quarterback Colt Brennan on the goal line and recovered Brennan's fumble on the play for a TD, the first of his career. Thomas Brown got in on the scoring action with a one-yard scamper in the third quarter, and QB Matthew Stafford got into the books with an 11-yard TD pass to Sean Bailey midway through the second quarter.

Bulldogs Notch 10th Win At 2009 Capital One Bowl

Matthew Stafford threw three touchdown passes in the final 18 minutes against Michigan State, as the Bulldogs posted a 24-12 Capital One Bowl victory in front of 59,681 fans and an ABC national television audience.

The first half was ugly for Stafford, projected to be an early first-round NFL draft pick, and Georgia. He was just 6-for-14 with an interception in the first half and Michigan State (9-4) led 6-3. In the second half, he looked more like the quarterback NFL teams covet. He completed 14 of his final 17 throws, including three TD passes.

Matthew Stafford

Stafford started the comeback by directing a 10-play, 96-yard drive midway through the third quarter. He went 6-for-6 for 92 yards and capped it with a 35-yard touchdown toss to Michael Moore. Stafford and Aron White hooked up on a 21-yard TD toss with 9 seconds left in the third quarter to put Georgia up 17-6.

Dogs Defeat Texas A&M For Independence Bowl Win

Georgia closed out the 2009 football season in dominant fashion as it defeated Texas A&M 44-20 in the AdvoCare V100 Independence Bowl in front of 49,653 fans in Shreveport, La.

After the Aggies tied the game early in the third quarter, Georgia scored 30 unanswered points to win with relative ease. The 44 points was a Bulldog bowl record.

Neither team scored until the final 2:33 of the second quarter, when Georgia followed an A&M touchdown with two quick scores before halftime, highlighted by Brandon Boykin's kickoff return.

A 49-yard field goal by Blair Walsh with 9:25 left in the third quarter gave Georgia the lead for good and started the string of 30 consecutive points.

Brandon Boykin

Georgia's defense, coached by defensive line coach Rodney Garner and graduate assistants Mitch Doolittle and Todd Hartley, was led by sophomore linebacker Marcus Dowtin, who had nine tackles. Junior linebacker Rennie Curran had eight, and junior safety Reshad Jones had five tackles and an interception.

No. 24 UCF Edges Bulldogs In 2010 Liberty Bowl

Georgia saw its four-game bowl winning streak stopped by dropping a 10-6 decision to #24 Central Florida in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, marking Georgia's first postseason loss since the 2006 Sugar Bowl.

UCF's Latavius Murray scored on a 10-yard touchdown run with 9:01 left, and the Knights were able to stave off Georgia to post the victory. The Bulldogs had the ball last and converted two fourth downs before Kemal Ishmael knocked down Aaron Murray's final throw into the end zone as time expired.

A.J. Green

The Bulldogs also started both halves driving down field easily before bogging down and settling for field goals of 20 and 41 yards by Blair Walsh. These teams went to halftime tied at 3-3 after a first half in which both Georgia and UCF wasted chances at the end zone.

No. 12 MSU Rallies Past Bulldogs In 2012 Outback Bowl

Tavarres King

Georgia dropped a 33-30 decision to Michigan State in a thrilling three-overtime game in the Outback Bowl in front of 49,429 fans and a nationally televised ABC audience.

Bulldog junior Tavarres King set a school-record with 205 yards receiving on six catches, including a career-long 80-yard TD. Defensive back Brandon Boykin, who was named the MVP of the game, forced a safety, returned a punt 92 yards for a TD and scored on a 13-yard run.

With 2:06 left, MSU quarterback Kirk Cousins led a 10-play 85-yard drive that tied the game at 27-27 to send it into overtime. After an interception by Bacarri Rambo on MSU's first possession, Georgia senior Blair Walsh missed a 42-yard field goal to send it to another overtime. Both teams exchanged field goals in the second OT. The Spartans opened the third OT with a field goal that gave them a 33-30 lead. Georgia had a chance to tie it again, but its 47-yard field goal attempt was blocked, sealing the win for the Spartans.

Bulldogs Defeat Nebraska In 2013 Capital One Bowl

Chris Conley

No. 5 Georgia handed the 21st-ranked Nebraska Cornhuskers a 45-31 loss in front of 59,712 fans and a national TV audience in the Capital One Bowl.

On the second Georgia drive of the game, Aaron Murray capped an 80-yard drive with a 29-yard completion to Arthur Lynch.

Nebraska answered with a pair of TDs to take a 14-9 lead, but the lead didn't last, as Todd Gurley rushed for a 24-yard TD. The Huskers responded with a six-play, 44-yard drive that resulted in a 39-yard field goal that made it a 23-17 game midway through the second quarter. After a Georgia three-and-out, Nebraska took a 24-23 lead on a 16-yard pass to Rex Burkhead.

On the opening drive of the second half, Nebraska scored on a two-yard TD run by Burkhead that extended Nebraska's lead to 31-23. Georgia answered on the following drive with a 49-yard touchdown grab by Chris Conley. Georgia scored TDs on its next two possessions to take a 45-31 lead and seal the bowl victory.

Nebraska Holds On For 2014 TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl Win

No. 23 Georgia Bulldogs sustained a 24-19 loss to Nebraska in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl in front of 60,712 fans in Jacksonville and a national ESPN audience.

Todd Gurley

After a scoreless first quarter, Hutson Mason led Georgia on an 12-play, 38-yard drive that produced a Marshall Morgan 39-yard field goal. Nebraska, however, took advantage of a fumbled punt return by the Bulldogs to take a 7-3 lead with 9:05 left in the second quarter. The teams traded field goals to complete first-half scoring with the Huskers holding a 10-9 edge.

Nebraska forged ahead 24-12 with touchdowns on its first two possessions of the second half. The latter came on a 99-yard pass from Tommy Armstrong, Jr. to Quincy Enunwa with 4:58 left in the third quarter.

Georgia scored its first touchdown of the game at the start of the fourth quarter when Hutson Mason passed for 25 yards to Todd Gurley. Later in the fourth quarter, the Bulldogs looked to take the lead, twice driving inside the Nebraska 20. Georgia was unable to convert on either fourth down, however, allowing Nebraska to come away with the victory.

Chubb, Bulldogs Power Past Louisville in 2014 Belk Bowl

Nick Chubb
Belk Bowl MVP

Nick Chubb rushed for a UGA-bowl record 266 yards to propel No. 13 Georgia past 20th-ranked Louisville 37-14 in front of a crowd of 45,671 and a national ESPN audience in the Belk Bowl at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte.

Georgia struck first, taking a 7-0 lead on a nine-play, 60-yard drive in the first quarter. On 2nd-and-14, Hutson Mason connected with Chris Conley for a 45-yard touchdown that gave the Bulldogs a 7-0 lead after the Marshall Morgan PAT.

The Cardinals answered on the next drive, going 84 yards on nine plays to tie the game at 7-7. Gerald Christian scored the TD on an 11-yard pass from Kyle Bolin.

Already leading 20-7 at halftime, Georgia broke the game open late in the third quarter. Chubb's 82-yard run, starting at his own 3-yard line, paved the way for Sony Michel to score from two yards out with 5:41 left. After UL answered with a score, the Bulldogs put the game out of reach in the fourth period with a Morgan field goal and an 8-yard TD run by Chubb.

Godwin, Bulldogs Hold Off Penn State for TaxSlayer Win

Terry Godwin
Taxslayer Bowl MVP

After jumping ahead 24-3 in the third quarter, Georgia was able to hold on and beat Penn State 24-17 in the TaxSlayer Bowl at Jacksonville's EverBank Field.

Freshman Terry Godwin became the first non-quarterback to throw for a score for Georgia since 2005, and the first Bulldog wideout to throw for a score since 1998, when he hit senior Malcolm Mitchell in stride for a 44-yard strike for the first touchdown of the game. Later in the first half, he pulled in a 17-yard touchdown from Greyson Lambert.

After Sony Michel's third-quarter TD run pushed Georgia comfortably ahead, Penn State finally broke through on the first play of the fourth quarter. Backup quarterback Trace McSorley connected with Geno Lewis for a 17-yard score. Two drives later, McSorley hit DaeSean Hamilton for a TD that trimmed the margin to 24-17.

Georgia got the ball back and consumed most of the remaining 6:07 with a solid drive. Bulldog defenders, however, had to preserve the victory by batting down a 43-yard Hail Mary heave by McSorley on the final play.

Ground Attack Pushes Dogs Past TCU in Liberty Bowl Win

Sony Michel

The Georgia Bulldogs grabbed the school's 30th all-time bowl victory in a 31-23 win over the TCU Horned Frogs in the Autozone Liberty Bowl at the Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium in Memphis.

Georgia junior tailbacks Nick Chubb and Sony Michel combined for 268 total yards and three touchdowns. Chubb amassed 142 yards on the ground, including a 13-yard touchdown run that strengthened the Bulldogs' lead to eight points at 31-23 with 2:48 left in the game.

Michel, the Liberty Bowl Offensive MVP, supplied the Bulldogs with one rushing touchdown on 87 yards and another on 39 receiving yards. On the defensive side of the ball, sophomore lineman Trenton Thompson collected three sacks, a Liberty Bowl record, and was named Liberty Bowl Overall MVP and defensive MVP.

Georgia took its first lead of the game at 21-16 on a 4-yard pass from Jacob Eason to Javon Wims midway through the third quarter. The Horned Frogs answered late in the period with a short touchdown pass of their own. Rodrigo Blankenship's 30-yard field goal 90 seconds into the fourth quarter gave Georgia the lead for keeps.

Bulldogs Top Sooners In Classic Rose Bowl Game

• Sony Michel's 27-yard touchdown run in the second overtime capped one of the wildest games in program history, a 4-hour roller coaster ride that sent Georgia into the National Championship Game.

• Michel's winning score was his fourth of a career-best game, one in which he gained 181 yards rushing and also caught four passes.

• Georgia overcame a 17-point second-quarter deficit and and a 7-point margin in the final minutes of regulation. Nick Chubb scored the equalizer on a 2-yard sprint around right end with just 55 seconds left, knotting the score at 45. The tying drive covered 59 yards in seven plays.

• After an exchange of field goals in the first overtime, Lorenzo Carter blocked a Sooner field goal from 27 yards to give Georgia the advantage. It was the Bulldogs' third block of a placement kick in the 2017 season and fourth block overall.

Bulldogs' Bid for Title Falls Short vs. Alabama

Mecole Hardman

• Alabama defeated Georgia 26-23 in the 2018 College Football Playoff National Championship Game in Atlanta, overcoming two 13-point deficits and an errant field goal attempt that would have won it in regulation.

• Still, the Bulldogs led in overtime on the strength of a 51-yard field goal by Rodrigo Blankenship. They even took the upper hand by sacking Bama quarterback Tua Tagovailoa for a 16-yard loss on the Tide's first play in the extra period. But on second down, Tagovailoa hit DeVonta Smith for a 41-yard scoring pass that ended the game.

• Georgia controlled the first half, taking a 13-0 lead on Mecole Hardman's 1-yard run just before intermission. Hardman scored again on an 80-yard pass from Jake Fromm with 6:52 left in the third quarter, answering Bama's first score of the night.

• This game marked Georgia's first appearance since 1982 in a game where victory would have given it a national title in football.

• It was also the first time that any Bulldog team had played consecutive overtime games. Georgia is now 8-6 all-time in overtime contests, including 3-3 at neutral sites.

Longhorns Hold Off Bulldogs in Sugar Bowl

• A fast start by Texas -- aided partly by a pair of early Georgia miscues -- enabled the Longhorns to post a 28-21 upset victory over the Bulldogs in the 2019 Allstate Sugar Bowl.

• Texas tallied scores on four of its first five possessions in building a 20-7 first-half lead. The margin reached 28-7 before Georgia put together two scoring drives in the fourth period, the latter touchdown with :14 left.

• The Longhorns took the opening kickoff and drove 75 yards in 10 plays for their first score. The ensuing Georgia drive stalled at the 41-yard line, where a low snap caused punter Jake Camarda to field it with his right knee touching the turf at the 27. Georgia's defense, however, forced the Longhorns to settle for a 37-yard field goal.

• Later in the first quarter, a D'Andre Swift fumble at his own 12-yard line gave Texas another scoring opportunity. QB Sam Ehlinger scrambled for a 9-yard touchdown three plays later for a 17-0 margin.

• Georgia finished the season 11-3. The Bulldogs made their 55th all-time bowl appearance, including the program's 22nd consecutive appearance. Its record in bowl games is now 31-21-3.

• Elijah Holyfield became the 15th UGA rusher to gain 1,000 yards in a single season. He went over the 1,000-yard mark on his first carry of the second half. Teammate D'Andre Swift had surpassed that milestone in the SEC Championship game. It marked the second straight year that Georgia had a pair of 1,000-yard rushers after Nick Chubb and Sony Michel had done it in 2017.

Dogs Make Victorious Return to Big Easy

George Pickens

• Fifth-ranked Georgia closed the 2019 season with a 26-14 victory over #7 Baylor in the 86th Allstate Sugar Bowl before 55,211 fans at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome and an ESPN primetime television audience.

• The Bulldogs won this game with a roster that scarcely resembled the one that had played 13 previous contests. As many as 15 scholarship players missed the Sugar Bowl for various reasons. Hardest hit were the offensive line -- which lacked three key players and coach Sam Pittman, who left to become head coach at Arkansas -- and a defense that was missing at least six regulars. OL Warren Ericson, RB Zamir White and DT Devonte Wyatt all made their first career starts in the game.

• Freshman George Pickens, who was named the Sugar Bowl MVP, had a career-high 12 catches (tying a UGA bowl record) for 175 yards and 1 TD. In the first half alone, he had 11 for 165 yards and one TD. His 27-yard TD catch early in the second period gave Georgia its first measurable distance from the Bears.

• With the victory, the 2019 class tied the mark for most wins by a Bulldog senior class with 44. They matched the 2005 group that went 44-9 with a pair of SEC titles. The 2019 class finished with a 44-12 record, one SEC title, three consecutive SEC Eastern Division crowns and was the 2018 CFP Runner-Up.

• Georgia made its 11th all-time appearance in the Sugar Bowl, and the Bulldogs are now 5-6. Georgia made its 23rd consecutive appearance in a bowl game, the second longest active streak in the country. Overall, Georgia improved to 32-21-3 in bowls.

Late Podlesny FG Caps Comeback Win Over Bearcats

• Jack Podlesny's career-long 53-yard field goal with :03 left completed a 24-21 comeback victory for ninth-ranked Georgia over No. 8 Cincinnati at the 2021 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta.

• Things looked bleak for Georgia when Cincinnati's Jerome Ford broke free on a 79-yard touchdown run with 14:11 left in the third quarter. The score put the Bearcats ahead 21-10, a lead that seemed almost out of reach, given the Bulldogs' offensive struggles to that point in the game.

• Georgia got the spark it needed early in the fourth quarter, when Azeez Ojulari sacked UC quarterback Desmond Ridder, who lost possession at his own 25-yard line. Two plays later, Zamir White streaked around left end for a 9-yard touchdown run.

• Georgia got within 21-19 with a 32-yard field goal from Podlesny on its next possession. After an exchange of punts, the Bulldogs held Cincinnati on its final possession, setting up the game-winning drive.

• Georgia quickly advanced on five plays before stalling at the UC 36-yard line. Podlesny coolly stroked his career-long field goal with :03 remaining. Ojulari then sacked Ridder in the end zone on the game's last play for the final margin of victory.

Bulldogs Roll in Orange Bowl, Advance to CFP Championship

James Cook

• Third-seeded Georgia scored on its first five possessions and cruised to a 34-11 victory over second-seeded Michigan at the 2021 Capital One Orange Bowl. The win moved the Bulldogs into the CFP Championship Game for the second time in four years.

• Georgia took the opening kickoff and marched 80 yards in seven plays for its first score. Stetson Bennett completed three passes to Brock Bowers in the drive, one for 35 yards, another for seven and a 9-yarder for the score.

• Michigan then advanced to the Georgia 41-yard line before failing on a fourth-down conversion. The Bulldogs seized the opportunity by going 59 yards in six plays for another touchdown. Kenny McIntosh completed an 18-yard halfback pass to Adonai Mitchell, putting Georgia ahead by two scores.

• Trailing 27-3, Michigan took the second-half kickoff and drove into scoring territory. Cade McNamara, however, was intercepted in the end zone by Derion Kendrick, snuffing perhaps the Wolverines' last chance to contend.

Bulldogs Top Alabama, Claim 2021 National Championship

• The Georgia Bulldogs claimed the program's first national championship in 41 years and its third overall, defeating Alabama 33-18 in the CFP Championship Game before 68,311 fans at Lucas Oil Stadium and a national audience on ESPN.

• After a rather slow first half, momentum shifted when Jalen Carter blocked Will Reichard's 48-yard field-goal attempt.

• The Bulldogs took their opportunity and ran with it, literally, thanks to a 67-yard run by James Cook and the games first touchdown from Zamir White.

• Capitalizing on a Georgia fumble, Alabama scored its only touchdown of the game. The Bulldogs needed just over two minutes to counter. Trailing 18-13, Bennett found Adonai Mitchell in the end zone from 40 yards out for the, giving Georgia the lead for good.

• The Georgia defense, as it had all season, then took command and forced an Alabama three-and-out. The Bulldogs offense answered with a short touchdown pass to Brock Bowers. On Alabama's next possession, Kelee Ringo intercepted Bryce Young and returned it 74 yards to seal the game.

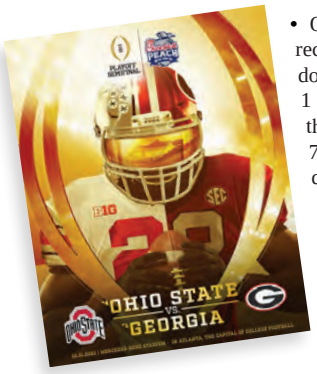
Bulldogs Rally to Best Buckeyes in Peach Bowl



• Quarterback Stetson Bennett connected with receiver Adonai Mitchell for the go-ahead touchdown with less than a minute remaining as No. 1 Georgia topped No. 4 Ohio State, 42-41, in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl in front of a record 79,330 fans and a national ESPN television audience.

• Despite being down two touchdowns at two separate points, the Bulldogs' offense fought back to tie and eventually take the lead on a 10-yard touchdown from Stetson Bennett to Adonai Mitchell with 54 seconds remaining.

• After Ohio State moved down the field on a last-minute drive, Noah Ruggles' potential 50-yard game winner hooked far left to clinch the largest fourth-quarter comeback in CFP history.

• Bennett, the game's Offensive MVP, hit on 23-of-34 passes for 398 yards and three touchdowns. Defensive MVP honors went to defensive back Javon Bullard, who registered a sack among his three tackles and broke up a pass in the end zone. Defensive back Chris Smith logged a team-high eight tackles, while linebacker Smael Mondon had seven stops, including a sack.

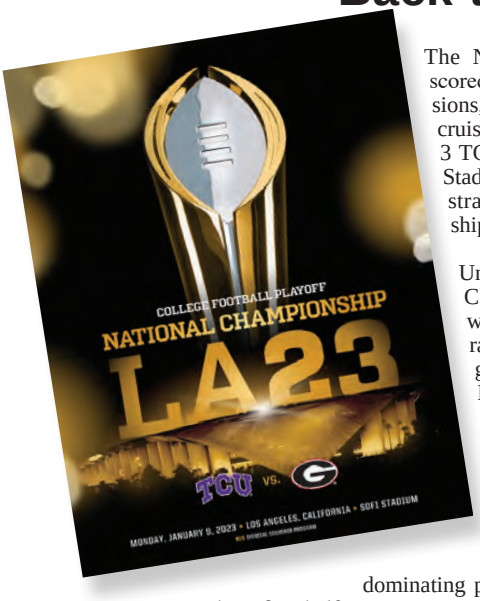
Bulldogs Dominate Horned Frogs to Claim Back-to-Back National Championships



The No. 1 Georgia Bulldogs scored on their first six possessions, led by 31 at the half, and cruised to a 65-7 win over No. 3 TCU Monday night at SoFi Stadium to capture their second straight national championship.

Unlike last season's National Championship Game, in which the Bulldogs needed to rally to beat Alabama, Georgia jumped on the Horned Frogs from the outset. The lead was 17-7 after the first quarter and 38-7 at halftime, as quarterback Stetson Bennett and the offense started hot and stayed hot, and the defense produced its own dominating performance that included three first-half turnovers.

Georgia is the first team in the College Football Playoff era to win back-to-back national championships. The victory was the 17th in a row for the Bulldogs, tying the school record set during the 1945-47 seasons.

Bennett was named the Offensive MVP after throwing for 304 yards and four touchdowns and rushing for two scores. It was Bennett's fourth Offensive MVP award in four career CFP games. Safety Javon Bullard was named the Defensive MVP after picking off a pair of passes and recovering a fumble, all in the first half. The defense finished with nine tackles for loss and five sacks.

Georgia (15-0) finished with 589 yards of offense to just 188 for TCU (13-2), which came in averaging 41.1 points and 474.1 yards per game. The Bulldogs' 65 points were the most ever in a CFP or BCS title game.

After Georgia's defense opened the game with a quick stop, the offense hit a couple of big plays before Bennett ran the ball in for a 21-yard touchdown and a 7-0 lead with 11:01 left in the first quarter. Earlier in the drive, Bennett hit Bowers for 21 and 12 yards on consecutive plays to move deep into Horned Frogs territory.

Georgia's defense gave the offense the ball back at the TCU after safety Christopher Smith forced a fumble and Bullard recovered at the 33. After a Bowers 5-yard run and a 15-yard Bennett completion to Ladd McConkey, the drive stalled and Jack Podlesny kicked a 24-yard field goal to make it 10-0 Bulldogs with 6:51 remaining in the first.

TCU's high-powered offense connected on its first big play soon after, a 60-yard completion down to the Georgia 11. Three plays later, quarterback Max Duggan, a Heisman Trophy finalist like Bennett, ran the ball in from the 2 to make it 10-7 with 4:45 remaining in the quarter.

Georgia wasted no time answered with another touchdown. Bennett and McConkey twice connected on 11-yard receptions, with an 11-yard Kenny McIntosh run in between before Bennett hit a wide open McConkey in the end zone for a 37-yard score, pushing the lead to 17-7 with 2:39 remaining in a busy opening quarter.

The Bulldogs put together a dynamic 92-yard drive on their next possession, mixing the run and pass effectively as they marched in for another touchdown. Bowers had receptions of 10 and 35 yards, Bennett scrambled for 12, Daijun Edwards had an 8-yard catch and 7-yard run, McIntosh added a 12-yard run, and then Bennett finished it with a 6-yard touchdown run. Bennett's 10th rushing touchdown of the season made it 24-7 with 8:30 to play in the half.

Georgia's defense forced its second turnover of the half on TCU's next drive, with Bullard picking off a deep Duggan throw at the Bulldog 34. The offense then marched down, again effectively mixing the run and pass, and went up 31-7 on Kendall Milton's 1-yard plunge with 1:19 left in the half.

Bullard and the defense weren't done. Bullard intercepted a Duggan pass deep in TCU territory and the offense got the ball back at the 22 with :36 seconds left. On the second play of the drive, Bennett hit Adonai Mitchell for a 22-yard score with 26 seconds left, making it 38-7 at the half.

The Bulldogs amassed 371 yards and averaged 9.3 yards per play in the first two quarters while holding TCU to 121 yards and 4.5 yards per play.

After punting for the first and only time in the game on their first drive of the second half, the Bulldogs' offense found the end zone again with their second, with Bennett hitting Bowers for a 22-yard touchdown to make it 45-7 with 10:52 remaining in the third quarter. Bowers had a monster performance with seven receptions for 152 yards, plus two rushes for 15 yards

Georgia made it 52-7 with 2:17 left in the third when Bennett hit McConkey for a 14-yard touchdown. A 1-yard Branson Robinson rushing touchdown pushed Georgia's lead to 59-7 with 9:24 left. Robinson was the sixth Bulldog to score at least one touchdown in the game, and he added a second score on a 19-yard run with 7:23 remaining, making it 65-7.

Although the University of Georgia is now known as the home of Uga, the pure white English bulldog, several mascots led the Red and Black before Frank W. Seiler provided the current lineage beginning in 1956.

The Goat -- Feb. 22, 1892

Georgia's mascot for its first football game against Auburn, February 22, 1892 in Atlanta, Ga., was a goat. Old newspaper clippings indicate that the goat wore a black coat with red U.G. letters on each side. He also had on a hat with ribbons all down his high horns, and the Auburn fans yelled throughout the game "shoot the billy-goat."

Trilby, 1894

Trilby with owner Charles H. Black

In 1894, Georgia's mascot was a solid white female bull terrier owned by a student, Charles H. Black, Sr., of Atlanta. Trilby, named after a novel by George Du Maurier, served as the campus pet and mascot for the Chi Phi fraternity.

Disputing stories speculate the origin of the Bulldog nickname, and the story of Trilby provides yet another opinion: "...every day Trilby took herself down to old Herty field with her master for football practice. She ran signals with the best of them and became an accustomed figure on the athletic field...One morning, Trilby failed to appear for her breakfast and after a frantic search she was finally discovered proudly washing the faces of her newborn family, 13 white puppies...Late one dusky fall afternoon, Trilby appeared for a grid workout and scampering after her came her 13 children, darting through players' legs, barking and pace. 'Well,' suggested one of the players, 'Trilby has brought us a name, Bulldogs.' ...Every time a game was played on Herty Field, the boys would floss Trilby and her 13 offerings up with red and black ribbons, and so attired they have gone down in history as perhaps the first 'sponsors' in southern football." —Ruth Stanton Cogill (Atlanta newspaper)

"After the rein of Trilby and her family, chaos developed in the mascot department at the university. Many games had several, depending on which alumnus got his dog to the game first." —AJC, Nov. 18, 1962

Sanford Stadium Graves

Mr. Angel, 1944-46

Mr. Angel, a brindle and white colored English Bulldog owned by Eastman,Ga.,-physician, Warren Coleman, filled a void during some of the war years.

There was no mascot roaming the sidelines and Coleman took Mr. Angel to games and stood with him on the sidelines. His picture on the field and with the Georgia cheerleaders appears in the 1945 and '46 UGA annual, the Pandora.

Mr. Angel

Butch, 1947-50

Butch was a brindled English bulldog owned by Mabry Smith of Warner Robins, Ga. He was spotted by students who were attending the 1946 Georgia-Georgia Tech game in Athens, and the canine appeared to be suited for the mascot position. Smith agreed to loan Butch to the University during the football season along with a female puppy named Tuffy. The female died of a heart attack following the Georgia-Kentucky game in 1948, but Butch continued to serve. Spending the off-season at Smith's home in Warner Robins, Butch was tragically shot in the summer of 1951 by a policeman after the dog escaped from his pen and was found roaming the streets. Butch is buried behind Smith's business along Watson Boulevard.

In 2004 plans for a marker honoring Butch in his hometown were put into motion by longtime Warner Robins resident Guy Fussell.

Mike, 1951-55

Butch was succeeded by Mike, another brindled English bulldog, owned by C. L. Fain. Mike lived in the field house on campus and died of natural canine causes in 1955. As his master's thesis, Gene Owens of Fort Worth, Texas, cast the bronze statue of Mike which is located at the entrance of Memorial Hall

Uga Takes the Field

In the last 100 years of intercollegiate football, Georgia's Uga has established himself as the nation's most well-known mascot. The line of pure white English bulldogs, which epitomizes everything Georgia, has been owned by the Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler family of Savannah, Ga., since Uga I first graced the campus in 1956.

Through the years, Uga has been defined by his spiked collar, a symbol of the position which he holds. He was given his name, an abbreviation for the university, by William Young of Columbus, a law school classmate of Seiler. Each of the Uga mascots is awarded a varsity letter in the form of a plaque, identical to those presented to all Bulldog athletes who letter in their respective sports.

As determined and published by the Pitt Press, the University of Georgia is the only major college that actually buries its mascots within the confines of the stadium. Ugas I-IX are buried in marble vaults near the main gate in the embankment of the South stands. Epitaphs to the dogs are inscribed in bronze, and before each home game, flowers are placed on their graves. The memorial plot attracts hundreds of fans and visitors each year.

For the past 20 years, Uga's jerseys have been custom-made at the beginning of each season from the same material used for the players' jerseys. Old jerseys are destroyed.

Uga's on-field home is a permanent air conditioned doghouse located next to the cheerleader's platform, providing comfort in the heat of August and September. The custom-made doghouse is a gift from the Bahamian Bulldog Club of Nassau, Bahamas, through the courtesy of Fred Hazlewood.

Uga I

The current Uga line of solid white English bulldogs began with Uga I, Hood's Ole Dan, born Dec. 2, 1955, in Columbus. Uga I was given to Cecelia Seiler by a friend, Frank Heard of Columbus and appeared in his first game in the 1956 home opener. As recalled by Sonny Seiler, "...his original red jerseys were made by Cecelia. It was necessary to take up children's t-shirts to fit the dog in the right places. There is no telling how many of these jersey's he wore out. During the early games in Athens, especially the hot ones before he had a dog house, the large green hedges that surround Sanford Stadium afford welcomed shade in the heat of battle. Unfortunately, the hedges constantly tore these jerseys and new ones had to be made."

"Ole Dan's Uga"
Record: 42-16-3

Uga I was succeeded by his son, Ole Dan's Uga at an impressive pregame ceremony at Homecoming, 1966. With the Georgia Redcoat Band lining the field, Uga II was led to the center of the field by Charles Seiler, son of Sonny and Cecelia. The student body erupted in a cheer that was picked up by the entire stadium, "Damn Good Dog!"

Uga II had an impressive reign as he watched Georgia participate in five bowl games and win two SEC championships.

Uga IV was perhaps the most active of all the Georgia mascots, standing as the only one to attend a bowl game every year of his service (1981-89). He took over for Uga III in the 1981 season opener and over the next nine seasons, led Georgia to a record of 77-27-4. The highlight of his career was his personal appearance at the Heisman Trophy Banquet with Herschel Walker in New York on December 9, 1982. Uga IV was escorted through the banquet hall by the president of the Downtown Athletic Club, and was earlier photographed with Herschel by photographers from across the country. The proud Bulldog donned his game jersey for the outing and added the formal touch of a collar and black tie. Uga IV was the first mascot invited to the Heisman Banquet.Declared "Dog of the Decade" by Vince Dooley in 1991, Uga IV was posthumously awarded the highest honor available to University of Georgia mascots — the Georgia varsity letter.

Otto

Otto, 1986
"The Substitute"
Record: 3-1

Although Otto was not pure white like his father, he was called upon to fill in for his younger brother, Uga IV, who injured ligaments in his left hind knee when jumping off a hotel bed before the Vanderbilt contest. In four games during the 1986 season, Otto led the team to a 3-1 record and also co-mascotted (along with Uga IV), a victory over instate rival Georgia Tech. After winning his first two games, fans cheered, "2-and-0 with Otto!" Dooley, serving as head coach during Otto's brief tenure, favored the substitute the most. "I have always had a great affection for those who came off the bench and performed, and he did that and had a great time," Dooley said. Otto is buried in the Seiler's backyard.

Uga V, 1990-99
"UGA IV's Magillicuddy II"
Record: 65-39-1

In the first game of 1990, Uga V officially began his reign as the Georgia mascot, taking over from his father Uga IV, who passed away at his home in Savannah on Feb. 26, 1990. Uga V was the last pup sired by Uga IV and was born on March 6, 1990.

Named in honor of one of the greatest Bulldogs, Dan Magill, former Assistant Athletic Director for Public Relations and longtime tennis coach and sports information director. Surprisingly, the Seiler family became aware that Uga IV's mate was expecting only 10 days before the litter was due. This notice came a week after Uga IV had passed away at his home in Savannah from kidney failure. There were only three pups in the litter and the last one born on March 6 was the only solid white male.

Uga V had been perhaps the most well known of all the Bulldog mascots, highlighted by his appearance on the cover of the April 28, 1997, Sports Illustrated which declared him the nation's best college mascot. Rocketed to stardom, he also appeared in Clint Eastwood's "Midnight In The Garden Of Good And Evil" — filmed in his hometown of Savannah, Ga. He died on Nov. 22, 1999, just over two months after his retirement.

Uga VI, 1999-2008
"Uga V's Whatchagot Loran"
Record: 87-27

In 2007, Uga VI became the winningest mascot in school history and owned a record of 87-27. The fall of 2008 would have been his 10th season after Uga VI reigned over more games than any other mascot with 114. He died on June 27, 2008. In his last game, the Bulldogs defeated Hawai'i 41-10 in the 2008 Sugar Bowl in New Orleans.

The pregame passing of the bone ceremony from Uga V to his heftier and friskier son, Whatchagot Loran, took place at the 1999 Georgia-South Carolina contest. Only a year old at his coronation, Uga VI stood as the biggest of all the Uga mascots weighing in at 65 pounds — 20 pounds heavier than his father.

His first season climaxed in a magnificent come from behind victory over Purdue at the Outback Bowl in Tampa. The 2000 season ended in Hawaii, but due to the distance and a quarantine rule, Uga VI missed the O'ahu Bowl, marking the first time the Georgia mascot had missed the postseason game since the 1969 Sun Bowl.

Alongside first-year head coach Mark Richt, Uga VI saw his third consecutive 8-4 season, which included a 26-24 win at then-No. 6 Tennessee for the Bulldogs' first win in Knoxville since 1980.

Uga VI and Georgia experienced their best run in two decades during the 2002-05 seasons. That stretch included 44 wins, a pair of SEC titles and appearances in the Sugar, Capital One and Outback Bowls.

In 2007, Uga VI passed Uga IV (77-24-4) for the most wins of any bulldog in school history.

Uga VII, 2008-2009
"Loran's Best"
Record: 16-7

The seventh in the Uga line of Georgia mascots was introduced to the Georgia people on Aug. 30, 2008, during pre-game ceremonies of the Bulldogs' season opener against Georgia Southern.

"Loran's Best" officially became "Uga VII," when he was introduced for the first time to the Sanford Stadium crowd prior to kickoff of the Georgia vs. Georgia Southern game. He was escorted onto the field by members of the Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler family of Savannah who have owned the continuous line of mascots since Uga I took up the mantle in 1956.

Uga VII passed away unexpectedly on Nov. 19 of heart-related causes. It was the Thursday before the final home game of the 2009 season and the Bulldogs did not have a live mascot at the game. Instead, a wreath was placed on UGA VII's doghouse, and the players wore a special UGA VII decal on their helmets to remember him. "Russ," the five-year-old half brother of Uga VII, served as the Bulldog mascot for the Georgia Tech game in Atlanta and helped his squad to a 30-24 win. He was the first substitute mascot since "Otto" in 1986.

Epitaph: Gone Too Soon

Uga VIII, 2010
"Big Bad Bruce"
Record: 4-2

Born Sept. 12, 2009 in Savannah, Ga., Uga VIII is the grandson of Uga VI. He carried on the tradition of more than 60 years of all-white bulldogs bred by Frank "Sonny" Seiler and family.

Uga VIII was named in honor of Dr. Bruce Hollett from the University's School of Veterinary Medicine. Dr. Hollett has been a longtime caregiver for the famed line of English bulldogs. UGA VIII served six games in the 2010 season before he became ill and missed the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. He passed away with lymphoma on February 4, 2011.

Epitaph: He Never Had a Chance

Uga IX, 2012-14
("Russ", 2009-2012: 16-9)
Record: 44-19

Uga IX

"Uga IX, formerly "Russ," the half-brother of Uga VII, served as interim Bulldog mascot for a total of 25 games. He worked nine games during the 2009 and 2010 seasons after Uga VII and VIII passed away. He roamed the sidelines at all 14 games during the 2011 season. He then served for two wins at the beginning of the 2012 season before being promoted as Uga IX prior to the Florida Atlantic game on Sept. 15, 2012. His time as mascot included the 2011 and 2012 SEC Eastern Division championships, three road wins at Georgia Tech, a victory over Texas A&M in the 2009 Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La., and a win over Nebraska in the 2013 Capital One Bowl. He was the first substitute mascot since "Otto" in 1986.

Epitaph: He endeared himself to the Georgia people. His dedication to duty when called upon was exemplary.

Uga X, 2015-22
"Que"
Record: 91-18

Uga IX officially retired as the Bulldogs' mascot at the end of the 2014 season. After a three-month "audition" in that role, his grandson "Que" was formally crowned as his successor in a collaring ceremony prior to the Georgia-Georgia Southern game on Nov. 21, 2015. Que assumed the title of Uga X at the age of 2 1/2 years. During his audition, he made appearances at the Countdown to Kickoff event in July 2015, as well as Picture Day in August, before presiding over the entirety of the 2015 football season. Que capped his inaugural season by leading the team to a 24-17 victory over Penn State at the 2016 TaxSlayer Bowl.

In the 2021 season, Que reached heights attained by just one of his ancestors, UGA III, when Georgia won the 2022 CFP National Championship Game. Que closed out his career with a second-consecutive national title, retiring after the 2022 season as the winningest mascot in program history.

Uga XI

Uga XI, 2023-present
"Boom"
Record: 12-1

Following the retirement of Uga X, 10-month old puppy Boom assumed the vaunted role of Georgia's on-field mascot. During a pregame ceremony at the annual "G Day" game, University of Georgia president Jere W. Morehead joined J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks and his son, Davis, in the ceremonial collaring of Boom. Boom is the 11th solid white English Bulldog to serve as Georgia's mascot since the line began in 1956.

The Seiler family was joined by University of Georgia president Jere W. Morehead, J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks, and his son, Davis, for the traditional collaring ceremony of Uga XI prior to the 2023 G-Day Spring Game.

The Arch

Serving as the official symbol of the University of Georgia, the Arch was built in the 1850s and originally served as part of a larger iron fence securing the campus. Daniel Redfearn (BL 1909, BS 1910) is credited with making the Arch the sacred symbol of UGA. Recognized as one of the school's finest icons, students today hold the Arch in high regard as its three pillars represent the virtues of wisdom, justice, and moderation.

The Arch

The "G"

In 1963 after becoming the Bulldogs' Head Football Coach, Vince Dooley redesigned the football uniform, choosing a red helmet with a black "G" on a white background as the dominant feature of the new uniform for the 1964 season.

He discussed with his staff that a forward-looking "G" would be an appropriate emblem for the helmet of the Georgia team. Dooley had just hired John Donaldson, former Georgia player from 1945 to 1948, as backfield coach. Donaldson was keen on the idea of a new image and volunteered his wife, Anne, who had a BFA in commercial art from UGA, to design a logo for the new Georgia helmet with the general specifications Dooley had outlined. Dooley accepted Anne's original "G" which fit his vision for a forward look to Georgia's new emblem.

Since the Georgia "G", though different in design and color, was similar to Green Bay's "G", Coach Dooley thought it best to clear the use of Georgia's new emblem with the NFL team. Athletic Director Joel Eaves called for permission, which was granted. However, since its inception in 1961, the Green Bay "G" has been redesigned several times and now looks like Georgia's original 1964 "G." Georgia is proud that the Packers apparently liked the special nuances of the Bulldogs' forward-looking "G".

Georgia's oval "G", eventually replacing Georgia's old block "G" as the official UGA symbol, has stood the test of time. It made its first appearance in the opening game in 1964 and was an immediate hit with the Georgia fans, especially after Dooley's first three teams were so successful—highlighted by the 1966 SEC Championship.

"Silver Britches"

Silver Britches were an innovation of Coach Wally Butts, who took over as head coach in 1939. The handsome pants complemented the bright red jersey and made for a striking uniform. Through the years, fans referred to the Bulldogs' silver britches in their chants and on banners, but the phrase really caught on in the early fifties with a cheer, banners, and colorful vests that proclaimed ''Go, You Silver Britches.'' Coach Vince Dooley re-designed the uniform when he came in 1964 and used white pants; however, he re-instituted the silver britches in 1980 just prior to what turned out to be Georgia's national championship season.

The Chapel Bell

The ringing of the chapel bell after a Georgia victory is a tradition that continues even though freshmen are no longer ordered to do the chore. In the 1890's, the playing field was located only yards from the Chapel and first-year students were compelled to ring the bell until midnight in celebration of a Bulldog victory. Today students, alumni, and townspeople still rush to the Chapel to ring the bell after a gridiron victory.

"Glory, Glory"

Among the University's oldest and most lasting traditions is the school fight song, "Glory, Glory," which is sung to the tune of ''The Battle Hymn of the Republic.'' It was sung at games as early as the 1890's, but arranged in its present form by Georgia's immortal musician-composer Hugh Hodgson in 1915. There have been many Bulldog songs through the years and at least two collections dating back to 1909 have been published, but none have enjoyed more acceptance than ''Glory, Glory.''

"How 'Bout Them Dogs"

This is a slogan of recent vintage, but one that has become a battle cry of Bulldog fans probably because of its obvious grammatical slur. It first surfaced during the mid to late 1970's especially during the 1978 season when the Bulldogs posted several remarkable, come-from-behind victories. It gained national attention and exposure when Georgia won the national championship in 1980. A major wire service used the phrase in its story of Georgia's victory over Notre Dame and many newspapers picked it up in glaring headlines across the country proclaiming ''How 'Bout Them Dogs!''

"Bulldogs"

Many oldtimers say Georgia acquired the nickname, "Bulldogs," because of the strong ties with Yale, whose nickname is "Bulldogs." Georgia's first president, Abraham Baldwin, was a Yale man and the early buildings on campus were designed from blueprints of the same buildings at Yale. However, the first references to the nickname "Bulldogs" actually came in the 1910's (1911-20) by Atlanta newspaper writers covering both football and baseball games. Although used occasionally during the previous decade, the nickname began to be consistently used around 1920.

On Nov. 3, 1920, Morgan Blake of the Atlanta Journal wrote about school nicknames and said "The Georgia Bulldogs would sound good because there is a certain dignity about a bulldog, as well as ferocity." After a 0-0 tie with Virginia in Charlottesville on Nov. 6, 1920, Atlanta Constitution writer Cliff Wheatley used the name "Bulldogs" in his story five times. Gene Hinton also used the term "Bulldogs." The nickname seemed to be off and running.

"Between The Hedges"

A reference to Sanford Stadium that dates to the early 1930's. The famous Chinese privet hedges that surround Sanford's playing field were only one foot high when the stadium was dedicated in 1929 and were protected by a wooden fence. It was natural for a clever sports writer, referring to an upcoming home game, to observe ''that the Bulldogs will have their opponent 'between the hedges.'' At least one old-timer says the phrase was first coined by the legendary Atlanta sportswriter Grantland Rice.

"Lone Trumpeter"

Seven minutes before kickoff in Sanford Stadium, the Bulldog Nation directs its attention to a lone trumpeter standing in the upper deck of the southwest corner of the stadium. The soloist is recognized and begins to play the first 14 notes of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." The Battle Hymn solo was originally composed in 1987 as a student project by Jeff Simmons and became a part of the pre-game traditions in 2000. Each year, 25-30 members of the Redcoat Band audition for one of the 4-5 soloist positions.

Josh Brooks

J. Reid Parker
Director of Athletics

J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks – 2023 Sports Business Journal Athletic Director of the Year finalist – has led the University of Georgia Athletic Association through historic success.

Georgia finished seventh in the 2023 LEARFIELD Directors' Cup, the Association's best mark since 2005 and tying for the fourth-highest ranking in program history. Seventeen of the Bulldogs' athletic programs finished with a top-20 ranking, while nine ended the year in the top 10.

The Bulldogs became the first program to earn back-to-back College Football Playoff National Championships, while three of Georgia's athletic teams won SEC titles and five athletes won NCAA individual crowns during the 2022-23 athletics season.

Among notable achievements, the women's soccer and volleyball programs made history as both teams earned bids to their respective NCAA tournaments in the same year for the first time ever. Georgia's track and field programs finished with four top-10 rankings in the indoor and outdoor championships, both men's and women's tennis captured SEC championships, softball finished with a second-place mark in the conference and both golf programs swept team and individual titles at their respective NCAA regionals.

The Bulldogs also posted a record-breaking academic year, setting a new school-high mark with a 3.19 cumulative GPA in 2022-23, breaking the fall GPA record before earning the second-highest spring GPA in school history.

From academic and athletic success to historic fundraising and a multitude of facility projects, Brooks has continued to sustain Georgia's standing as a national powerhouse. The Georgia Bulldog Club set new fundraising records in each of the last two years with $86.4 million raised in 2022 and $97.7 million in 2023.

Brooks has overseen substantial facility upgrades that include the brand-new Lindsey Hopkins Indoor Tennis Courts, improvements to the south side of Sanford Stadium, a $45 million renovation to Foley Field, a $38 million upgrade to the Jack Turner Softball Stadium, a new $1.8 million men's and women's basketball weight room as well as expansive updates to Stegeman Coliseum and a renovation project in the Butts-Mehre Heritage Hall.

Georgia also built a new, state-of-the-art track and field locker room and recently announced plans to construct a one-of-a-kind track facility off South Milledge Avenue. This project will include the only indoor track and field venue in the state of Georgia and will allow the Bulldogs to host NCAA and SEC events as well as summer camps.

Brooks' tenure has also included impactful and significant coaching hires, with a pair of national champions in track and field's Caryl Smith Gilbert and soccer's Keidane McAlpine. In 2021, he hired Tony Baldwin to take over the softball program, while Stefanie Williams Moreno and Neil Versfeld were named head women's and men's swimming and diving coaches.

He also hired two prominent coaches to lead the Georgia Basketball programs in Mike White and Katie Abrahamson-Henderson. Following the 2022-23 baseball season, Brooks brought on renowned pitching coach Wes Johnson to lead Georgia Baseball.

A native of Hammond, La., Brooks' vision of competing for championships and postseason success and his passion for student-athletes began well before his time as Athletic Director.

Before returning to UGA in 2016 as Executive Associate Director of Athletics, Brooks served as Deputy Athletics Director at the University of ULM from 2015-16 and Director of Athletics at Millsaps College from 2014-15. He also served in capacities as Director of Football Operations (2008-11) and Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations (2012-14) in his previous stint at UGA.

Brooks also served as director of football operations at the University of ULM beginning in 2004. He gained experience as a student at LSU University, working as an equipment manager and a student assistant coach. During his four years at LSU, the Tigers participated in the 2000 Peach Bowl, 2002 Sugar Bowl, and won the 2001 Southeastern Conference championship.

Brooks graduated from LSU ('02) with a degree in Kinesiology and completed his master's degree in Sport Management from UGA ('14). He and his wife, Lillie, have twin sons, Jackson and James, born in July of 2009 and a third son, Davis, born in March of 2012.

He and his wife Lillie have become a vital part of the Athens community. On January 20, 2021, just two weeks after becoming Athletic Director, Brooks pledged $100,000 to create a need-based scholarship to support UGA students from Athens-Clarke County. His gift created a Georgia Commitment Scholarship (GCS), adding to the more than 550 endowed, need-based scholarships created under the GCS program since its launch in January 2017.

Jere W. Morehead

President
University of Georgia

President Jere W. Morehead began his tenure as the 22nd University of Georgia President on July 1, 2013. Under his leadership, UGA has risen in the rankings of the best public colleges and universities and has completed a series of initiatives to enhance student learning and success, including a requirement for experiential learning for all undergraduates.

Additionally during President Morehead's tenure, the University completed the most successful capital campaign in its history and established the UGA Innovation District, through which students and faculty partner with industry leaders to create products and enterprises that strengthen Georgia's economy. UGA has increased its research expenditures by more than 50% over the past decade and has been ranked first or second in the U.S. for research-based products reaching the marketplace for the past seven years.

In keeping with his focus on student success, President Morehead launched the ALL Georgia program to support students from rural areas and created the Double Dawgs program, which enables students to save time and money by earning an undergraduate and graduate degree in five years or less. Demand for a UGA education has more than doubled during the past decade, with a record 43,000 applications submitted for a spot in the incoming Class of 2027.

President Morehead has served the University of Georgia for more than 35 years in both faculty and administrative roles. Before becoming President, he was Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost from 2010 to 2013. Prior to 2010, he held several key administrative assignments, including Vice President for Instruction, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, Associate Provost and Director of the Honors Program, and acting Executive Director of Legal Affairs.

He is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business, and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export controls to jury selection. He has served as Editor-in-Chief of the American Business Law Journal.

President Morehead currently serves as Co-Chair of the University Leadership Forum, a national initiative led by the Council on Competitiveness. Additional service includes membership on the boards of the Georgia Research Alliance, Georgia Chamber of Commerce, Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education, Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, and Emory University Candler School of Theology.

He is Chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Board of Directors and a member of the NCAA Division I Administrative Committee. He previously served as President of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and Chair of the SEC Executive Committee and as a member of the NCAA's Board of Governors; Presidential Forum; Working Group on Name, Image, and Likeness; and Federal and State Legislation Working Group. He also is a member of the National Football Foundation Board of Trustees.

In 2021, he received the Chief Executive Leadership Award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education District III for outstanding leadership and service in support of education. He has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award—UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence, the Richard B. Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award. He also earned the UGA School of Law's premier honor for alumni, the Distinguished Service Scroll Award.

President Morehead holds a bachelor's degree from Georgia State University and a law degree from the University of Georgia.

Kirby Smart is the best of Nick Saban's former assistants, and Georgia is thriving for it

By: David Ubben
The Athletic
Published November 18, 2023

Before this year, its offensive coordinator, Todd Monken, left to call plays for a Super Bowl contender (and the privilege of no longer having to call teenagers every day and convince them to play for him).

This is the challenge of winning as big as No. 1 Georgia is winning under Kirby Smart. It's part of why sustainability is so rarely achieved in the sport and part of what has made Georgia's refusal to plateau so impressive. No one hires coordinators from a loser. Every program, if it can't hire The Guy, wants somebody close to The Guy. It's why eight former Nick Saban assistants have become SEC head coaches.

Smart and Georgia are headed toward a similar trajectory. And so far? Smart is acing an overlooked, difficult test of a program: hiring replacements.

"We've got a lot of continuity," Smart said after going to Neyland Stadium and sending home 101,915 fans, including Peyton Manning and Dolly Parton, very disappointed with a 38-10 victory against No. 18 Tennessee. "The culture's not going to change. The scheme's not going to change, at least on defense. It's an opportunity for guys to come here and grow and get better."

Quarterback Carson Beck insisted after the game the victory wasn't easy, but beyond giving up a 75-yard touchdown run on the opening play, Georgia looked like a team that didn't need to break a sweat to reach 11-0 and become the first team in SEC history to go 8-0 in regular-season conference play in three consecutive seasons.

Georgia has replaced Alabama as The Standard in college football. Two national title rings will do that.

But sustaining the same impossible level of success Saban brought to Tuscaloosa requires sorting through resumes and conducting offseason job interviews far more often than the average program and landing on the right hire just about every time.

It's been the stumbling block for plenty of other dynasties that lacked the staying power of Saban. Clemson is the latest example. Dabo Swinney replaced Tony Elliott with an internal hire of Brandon Streeter and fired him after one season. He gave TCU's Garrett Riley a $2 million contract this offseason and the Tigers have already lost the same number of ACC games this year (4) that it did from 2017 to 2022 combined.

Last year, on the way to its second consecutive national title, Georgia's defense didn't have Lanning and didn't have the record five first-round picks who suited up for the Bulldogs. The defense dropped from No. 2 nationally in yards per play to 15th, and this year, sits at 13th with internal hire Glenn Schumann at the helm calling plays for the second year.

This year, without Monken and breaking in a first-year starter, Carson Beck, at quarterback, Georgia's offense dipped from No. 4 in yards to play … to No. 5 under Mike Bobo.

"It was a smooth transition. We added a lot to the offense, but the base of the offense is the same. It's been pretty simple," said receiver Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint, who caught a touchdown pass from fellow receiver Dillon Bell on a trick play in the first half.

Bobo was an analyst on staff a season ago so the Bulldogs' personnel, style and scheme were familiar, and he also worked as Georgia's offensive coordinator from 2007 to 2014 under Mark Richt before leaving to become Colorado State's head coach. Along with co-defensive coordinator Will Muschamp, he's one of two former head coaches on Smart's staff.

"They're both awesome," tight end Brock Bowers, who caught seven passes for 60 yards and a touchdown, said of Bobo and Monken. "(Bobo) will love you up when you're doing good and he'll yell at you when you're not. It's like a normal coach, I'd say."

Bobo's showcased creativity, competence and the right amount of aggressiveness to take advantage of the talent at his disposal. He's replacing a quarterback, yes, but he did inherit Bowers, who more than a few coaches believe is the best player in America.

And Georgia's offense? Don't say it too loudly around its defensive-minded head coach, but it's the Bulldogs' superior unit.

"I don't think we as an offensive staff think we have to score 40 a game. I don't think we think we have to. We may have to, but we don't think we have to," Smart said. "So you're able to call the game differently as an offensive coordinator."

Georgia's roster does boast 13 five-stars (coaches are responsible for recruiting that talent, it must be noted), but Alabama has 18. Ohio State and Texas A&M have 10. Texas has nine. Georgia has 52 four-stars, but Ohio State has 63. Clemson has 49. Oklahoma has 48.

The gap between Georgia's on-field results and its roster compared with other elite programs with similar talent? It's wide. Nobody else has won 28 consecutive games and 44 of their last 45 games. That lone loss? Georgia avenged it a month later by beating Alabama in the national championship after losing to the Crimson Tide in the SEC title game.

Also worth noting: Alabama has won 28 consecutive games twice but never more than 26 under Saban.

Georgia travels to rival Georgia Tech next week before facing Alabama in the SEC Championship a week later. A win would give the Bulldogs the league record for longest winning streak.

"Everybody will say it's the players. I just don't think it's just players. We got good players, really good players. But there's a lot to our culture that kids buy into. They stay levelheaded," Smart said. "They're not talking about the streak. They're not worried about the streak. It's going to end and we're gonna start a new one. But for right now, they just keep getting better."

Why Georgia football's offensive line is so dominant

By: Seth Emerson
The Athletic
Published November 15, 2023

ATHENS – By now, Georgia's football team is renowned for exaggerating and flat-out making up slights for motivational purposes. The disrespect angle is eye roll-inducing, even in the rare case when Georgia's players have a point.

Which brings us to the Joe Moore Award.

Established eight years ago, the award goes to the offensive line voted by a panel as the best in the country. Two years ago, it went to Michigan, which a few weeks later had the second-best offensive line in the Orange Bowl against Georgia, which was not one of four finalists for the award. A year later, Georgia was one of two finalists — and again lost out to Michigan.

On Tuesday, Georgia was announced as one of a dozen finalists for the award, which caused Zion Logue, a Georgia nose tackle who plays against that line in practice, to scoff.

"They should be a three-time Joe Moore Award winner," Logue said. "I'm just gonna throw that out there. Those guys, they pride themselves on that, on being the best offensive line in the country, which I believe."

Logue is biased. Numbers are not, and they do make a good case for the Bulldogs.

Georgia and Oregon are the only two teams that rank in the FBS top 10 in two key categories that indicate offensive line performance: Pass pressure rate allowed and yards before contact per rush.

Georgia's pressure rate is 16.2 percent, per TruMedia, second-best in the country. And its quarterback has been pressured on just 8.9 percent of drop-backs, lowest in the country.

UGA rushers have averaged 2.8 yards before contact per rush this season, 10th most in the FBS. And it should be noted the Bulldogs dealt with tailback injuries much of the year, only recently having their top two (Daijun Edwards and Kendall Milton) both fully healthy.

More on the run blocking:

• In all, 49.1 percent of Georgia's rush yards have come before contact this season, the fifth-highest share in the FBS.

• Georgia has attempted 33 rushes on third-and-3 or shorter this season. On 17 of them (51.5 percent), UGA ball carriers had already reached or were beyond the line to gain before they were first contacted. That's nearly 12 percentage points better than the national average (39.8 percent).

More on the pass blocking:

• Has Georgia faced elite pass-rushers this year? Maybe not. Tennessee, with the ninth-most sacks at 33, will be the best pass rush Georgia has faced this year, and Alabama has 32. But Ole Miss has 31 — zero against Georgia.

• Georgia's FBS opponents have combined to produce a 32.8 percent pressure rate against teams other than Georgia this season. That would still rank among the FBS top 50. So not a terrible group of opponents.

This is all happening a year after losing both starting tackles: Broderick Jones was a first-round pick, Warren McClendon, a fifth-round pick — plus tight end Darnell Washington, a key blocker who went in the third round. And while junior Amarius Mims is a possible first-round pick, he missed six games after ankle surgery before returning for the Ole Miss game.

There's still plenty of talent left: Center Sedrick Van Pran-Granger and right guard Tate Ratledge also look like future pros. But the unit has also had to depend on youngsters like left tackle Earnest Greene and left guard Dylan Fairchild, and moved senior Xavier Truss around a lot, including both tackle spots and left guard.

Ratledge was asked how it's working.

"It's because we have a really close unit. We've all played a lot of football together," Ratledge said. "We know how other people are going to play next to us. I know how Sed's going to react to certain situations, Sed knows how I'm going to react. I know how Mims is going to react, he knows how I'm going to react. Things like that. It's the cohesiveness we've built since being here as freshmen, and I think it's really showing up."

It's also been a good job managing and teaching by offensive line coach Stacy Searels, in his second year of his second stint in Athens. When Searels, who left Georgia after the 2010 season, was brought back by Kirby Smart after the 2021 season, there were raised eyebrows from fans who wanted newer blood. But the on-field product is vindicating Smart's decision.

Part of that decision was alignment with the offensive coordinator: Searels had worked with Todd Monken at LSU and with Mike Bobo at Georgia.

"The coordinator (with) the offensive line is a big deal. That is his go-to guy," Smart said. "They want to have a good relationship and a good understanding, and philosophies need to marry up. That was really important to Monken in that hire. Once we hired Mike, it was a no-brainer. (Searels) had already been a coordinator and had worked with everybody in the room."

There are, of course, at least four games remaining in the season, and this next game at Tennessee could be the biggest challenge, as Ratledge acknowledged. Tennessee sophomore defensive lineman James Pearce Jr. has eight sacks, second-most in the SEC, and there's talent around him.

"They're really physical, probably the most physical group we've played all year, just watching film," Ratledge said. "They get vertical off the ball, are really good at getting that first step on the line and getting knock-back."

So another chance for the Joe Moore Award committee to feel good about overlooking Georgia. Or a chance for the this offensive line to impress and move towards clinching — and force the program to find something else to be mad about.

Milton, McConkey Shine in Sanford Sendoff

ATHENS – Kendall Milton will always remember his days running between the hedges at Sanford Stadium. In his final home game, in a top-10 matchup with Ole Miss on Saturday night, the senior running back saved his best for last.

On an explosive night for the Georgia offense, which piled up 611 yards in the No. 2 Bulldogs' 52-17 thumping of the No. 9 Rebels, Milton ran for a career-high 127 yards on just nine carries. He had touchdown runs of seven and 33 yards — the first game of his career with two rushing TDs — plus a 51-yard run that set up another Bulldog score.

Milton thanked Georgia's offensive line for helping making his special game possible, and said that he'd promised them dinner if he got 100 yards.

"I love them boys," said Milton, who has 422 yards rushing this season and is averaging 6.3 yards per game, adding, "I'm proud of my boys. They work every day against the best defense in the country to have a game like this."

From his first touch to his last Saturday, Milton looked like he was fired up and feeling fast. He attacked every carry with power and speed. His first touch, on Georgia's opening drive, was a 12-yard reception on the right side that moved the ball to the Ole Miss 1-yard line. Daijun Edwards ran the ball in on the next play.

Georgia finished with a punishing 300 yards rushing on 35 carries. That's 8.6 yards per carry.

"To be honest, this was real Georgia football to me. This was the Georgia that I grew up watching," Milton said of the huge day on the ground.

Milton didn't touch the ball on the Bulldogs' next drive, which lasted just three plays. After two good Edwards runs, quarterback Carson Beck hit redshirt junior Ladd McConkey for a 29-yard touchdown, putting Georgia up 14-7.

McConkey, who turned 22 Saturday, participated in the team's pregame Senior Day festivities, and had four catches for 81 yards and an 11-yard rush in his final home game. And like Milton, he looked in top form, cutting and juking left and right.

"That was awesome. The fans showed up, and it was electric," said McConkey, who has 26 catches for 418 yards and two touchdowns this season after missing the first four games with a back injury.

Milton's first touchdown came on a seven-yard run through the Ole Miss defense with 2:27 left in the first half, putting the Bulldogs up 28-14. He had to fight for the final few inches to get across the goal line. And then wait for the play to be reviewed. That run, he said, was his favorite of the day.

"I think I broke a tackle and dove in. I loved it because I came to the sideline and my team greeted me, dabbing me up. They did a review, but as a runner you know if you're in or not, so I was just waiting for them to say that it stands.

"To be honest, every play I loved, because everybody puts it all on the line."

For the 2023 seniors, who have won two national championships and compiled a record of 47-3, there was no place like home. They finished their time at Georgia without losing on Dooley Field, going 22-0 at home.

"Most of them were undefeated at home," coach Kirby Smart said of the fourth- and fifth-year players that played their final home game, "and what a game to finish that off with."

While he isn't a senior, tight end Brock Bowers, who returned after missing two games with an ankle injury, almost surely played his final game at Sanford Stadium on Saturday. The junior is a sure first-round pick in the 2024 NFL Draft and could go in the top 10.

One of the greatest players in Georgia history, the All-American and 2022 Mackey Award winner caught three passes for 34 yards against the Rebels. His last catch was an eight-yard touchdown reception, the 25th TD catch of his incredible career. Bowers ranks fifth in program history with 163 catches, for 2,425 yards, and second in receiving touchdowns.

"He's the best player in the country when he's healthy and out there," McConkey said of Bowers.

Talking to Milton, McConkey and senior defensive lineman Zion Logue (two tackles Saturday) after the game, they didn't talk too much about their individual achievements or performances. Most every answer wound its way back to "my guys," as McConkey put it, referring to his teammates.

This is a tight group that has experienced the highest of highs — two straight national championships and a good shot at a third, and a winning streak of 27 games and counting — while also enduring the tragedy of losing teammate Devin Willock and recruiting staff member Chandler LeCroy in a car accident last January.

These guys play for each other, push each other and believe in each other.

"It just feels so good, man," Logue said with a big smile.

These seniors have done so much, yet they know better than anyone that there's still so much more they want to do.

"That locker room, all our seniors, we've done so much together, been through so much together," McConkey said, "so to just kind of go out of Sanford with a bang like this, it was definitely a special moment."

Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint's Favorite Georgia Football Memory Explains What Makes Him So Beloved

By: Connor Riley
Dawg Nation
Published November 9, 2023

ATHENS – Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint has a number of key moments he could've picked from for his favorite Georgia memory. His touchdown catch against Tennessee last season. His key block of Kool-Aid McKintrsy in the 2022 National Championship Game.

But it's telling Rosemy-Jacksaint picked a moment that could double as perhaps the lowest moment of his career.

In his freshman season, Rosemy-Jacksaint was striding to the end zone in the first quarter of Georgia's rivalry game against Florida. As he lunged for the end zone, Rosemy-Jacksaint got rolled up on by Florida defensive back Brad Stewart.

As Rosemy-Jacksaint lay in the end zone, he couldn't get up to celebrate his first college touchdown. He broke his ankle on the play, in a game Georgia lost 44-28.

"In that one play, I had a lot about myself I learned and a lot about myself that I had to grow into following that play," Rosemy-Jacksaint said. "I just felt like that one play, everything that transpired afterwards shaped me to who I am today. It was a good and bad experience."

Since that game, Georgia is 42-1. Rosemy-Jacksaint has become an instrumental reason why. He may not have the statistical output that indicates such but in talking to anyone connected to the Georgia program, the Bulldogs wouldn't be where they are without Rosemy-Jacksaint.

He's become one of the more vocal leaders on the team. Someone who isn't afraid to mix it up with the defensive backs or become a trusted target for Carson Beck in his first year as a starter.

Rosemy-Jacksaint could've let that first big moment define him. He wouldn't have been the first college athlete who couldn't overcome a significant injury.

"I learned that it's not hard to get up," Rosemy-Jacksaint "When life knocks you down, you've got to get up. I was down, I was down on myself. I had a lot of doubts. It was just like, there was a lot of adversity going on that I had to overcome. I just kept God first, just kept him on my side. I prevailed, I came through it. I just thank God for it."

Rosemy-Jacksaint is in the midst of having his best season at Georgia. He's topped 70 yards receiving three times this season after not doing so once in his first three years on campus. His numbers have dipped since Brock Bowers went down due to injury but Rosemy-Jacksaint is still one of the top receiving options for this team.

More than that, he's someone who is universally respected. Rosemy-Jacksaint's career hasn't been storybook. The injury as he scored his first collegiate touchdown. The long rehab process during his sophomore year saw some register multiple DNPs.

Then there was the offseason speeding arrest he had this offseason. Rosemy-Jacksaint missed the first game of the season due to internal team discipline following the matter. Rosemy-Jacksaint knew he made a mistake and owned it.

He knows what the program expects of him, both on the field and off of it.

"Marcus man, he is special. He's one of the guys when I got here I first looked up to. I saw him, the way he works, day-in, day-out," Georgia safety Malaki Starks said of the Georgia wide receiver. "I know I've said it a lot but just to sit there and watch him do what he does and just leads. He always brings energy. He's always that positive mindset."

A positive mindset helped push Rosemy-Jacksaint into the person, player and leader he currently is for Georgia.

As Kirby Smart said this week, Georgia has had a lot of great leaders of late. Be it Jordan Davis, Nakobe Dean or Nolan Smith, Smart puts Rosemy-Jacksaint right up there with each of those Georgia greats, and first-round picks, in terms of what the Georgia receiver has meant to the program.

"The way he competes, his toughness, his effort," Smart said. "He upholds our culture, begs to be on special teams. He just embodies what you want a Georgia football player to be. I have a lot of respect for him as a competitor."

Rosemy-Jacksaint's journey has been anything but easy. Some of that is because of choices he's made, some due to the circumstances around him. In that sense, he's not all that different from most college seniors. Saturday will be his final home game at Georgia. The Bulldogs are 21-0 at home since Rosemy-Jacksaint arrived on campus.

He's contributed at varying levels over that time. But his impact on the Georgia program is undeniable and will extend far past the four years he spent in Athens.

"When I first got here Rose was one of the guys that, you know, I went head to head with since I've been here," defensive back Kamari Lassiter said. "We've been going at it for about three years now, and just seeing him grow — we've run against each other, just going up against each other. I've just seen him grow, battle a lot of injuries and come back 10 times better."

Saturday is going to be a special day for Rosemy-Jacksaint. He's going to have to balance the emotions of his final home game with the fact that he'll have to lead Georgia in a matchup against the No. 9 team in the country.

It's undeniable though that Rosemy-Jacksaint has truly earned everything he's gotten in the Georgia program. As he hugs Smart in front of the Sanford Stadium crowd before Saturday's game, he'll get a chance to reflect back on all that he's done in his college career.

And for a brief moment, a thank you for everything he's poured into the Georgia program.

"I know it's going to be a special day for him. I'm very grateful to be on the team for him," Starks said. "He makes me better. We go at it in practice. Me, him and Bull, we all go at it with him. He's very competitive, as are all the other wide receivers. I know it's going to be a special day for him. I'm just happy and honored to be on the same team."

Quick Chat: Sedrick Van Pran

By: John Frierson

ATHENS – Sedrick Van Pran is a talented artist without a lot of time to sit down and create. When you're the starting center — a team-high 38 straight games and counting — for the two-time defending national championship Georgia football team, and perhaps its most vocal leader, then sometimes there just aren't enough hours in the day.

During a Quick Chat before practice Monday, Van Pran talked about being a leader, his favorite restaurant in his hometown of New Orleans, his plans for the future, and much more. Here's some of what he had to say:

Frierson: I've got to start at the obvious place: Tuesday is Halloween, so what is your favorite Halloween candy?
Van Pran: That's a good one. I feel like I have to go with something chocolate, so probably a Snickers or a Twix. For sure, those do it every time.
Frierson: Are you a big candy guy? Given how hard you work on the field and in the weight room, you can probably burn through a lot of candy every day if you wanted to.
Van Pran: Typically, I kind of just do what my heart desires. If that's eating healthy, I'll eat healthy. If that's maybe I've had a long day and I kind of just want to eat something to satisfy me, then I'll eat that. But I'm not a huge candy person; I'm not a person that's eating candy every day of the week. To be honest, I might eat candy once every two weeks or something. But, ice cream I absolutely love. I only have ice cream once or twice a week, usually only on the weekends. Ice cream is definitely me sweet vice.
Frierson: What is your No. 1 flavor?
Van Pran: Pecans Praline 'n Cream by Blue Bell Ice Cream. That's the one.
Frierson: Back to Halloween: do you have a favorite costume that you've ever worn?
Van Pran: I haven't dressed up much, but I do remember being Scream from the "Scream" movies. Probably that, but I didn't grow up dressing up a lot.
Frierson: I didn't either. And Kamari Lassiter and I were talking about that last week, and we both were like, whatever you have to do to get some candy.
Van Pran: [Laughs] I mean, that's valid. I definitely remember there were a couple of times when I had some unnecessary conversations just to get some candy in my bucket [laughs]. Hey, you've got to do what you've got to do.
Frierson: You've been one of the faces and voices of this program for a long time now, both in the locker room and in terms of doing media. Have you always been that guy? Were you a leader like this in high school?
Van Pran: In high school, I was one of the leaders. I believe I became a team captain my sophomore year. In all honesty, I think there's been a natural inclination in my life to want to look out for others. I think that's the biggest part of leading — just wanting to care for other people, wanting to look out for other people, and wanting to steer them in the right direction.
Frierson: Did that desire to lead and look out for others show up in other ways? Were you a student leader in high school or in other activities outside of sports?
Van Pran: I remember in high school, I was a part of a society called the Silverback Society. It was basically an organization that was looking to cultivate leaders, young Black men, and kind of guide them to be leaders in our community. I was a part of that in high school, and they did a tremendous job. That started in middle school and took us through high school. I was definitely the kid that tried to be a good example for others.
Frierson: You seem like a natural for getting into coaching one day. Is that something that you're thinking about? Or do you want to get away from football once you're done playing?
Van Pran: I don't want to say that I want to get away from football, definitely not that, but it's weird for me because I think I put so much time into football now, that I'm not 100% sure that I will want to coach and put the same hours in, if not more. I would love to coach when I'm done with football one day, but at the same time, it's like, are you willing to be 42, with a wife and kids, and you're coming home at 12 o'clock at night? Do you really want to be that?
I don't know, it's something that I've thought about. I don't know where God's going to take me, so we'll see.
Frierson: Is there something else after football that you'd like to get into? I know you're a talented artist.
Van Pran: I have so many things that I would like to get into, and the creative side of my brain kind of rambles and thinks about all of the different things that I could do. I've always had an artistic side, and I'd love to own my own clothing brand or something like that.
I also want to figure out ways to give back. I want to try to figure out a nonprofit or something where I can give back, especially to the city of New Orleans, because I'm so thankful for everything it's done for me.
Frierson: What is your favorite restaurant in New Orleans?
Van Pran: That would be New Orleans Food and Spirits. Specifically, the Gretna location, on the Westbank.
The appetizer I always get is the voodoo rolls. It sounds not so good, but it's just the whole Cajun thing. It's an egg roll, cheese and crawfish, and they give you this honey mustard dipping sauce that's one of the best things you'll have. It's amazing. And the entree I always get is the fried shrimp platter with fries. That's always my go-to.

Frierson: What is the best piece of art or art project that you've done in the past year or so? Is there one that stand out?
Van Pran: In the last year I don't think I've done much. I've been really, really busy. I did a portrait of my girlfriend for her birthday, and I enjoyed that. I wanted to give her something that she could keep forever.

Missouri Product Dominic Lovett A Perfect Fit With No. 1 Georgia

By: Chip Towers
Atlanta Journal-Constitution
Published October 30, 2023

ATHENS – Terry Fenton has a dilemma.

A receivers coach in East St. Louis, Illinois, nobody outside of the Georgia and Missouri fan bases is more excited about watching their Top 15 matchup in Sanford Stadium on Saturday.

The problem is, East St. Louis Senior High has a playoff game against Normal Community High at roughly the same time as the 3:30 p.m. kickoff in Athens. Fenton's hope is that the Flyers take care of business to the extent that everybody expects so he can take a peek or two at his cell phone during the game.

Without question, the DVR will be recording the proceedings on CBS back at the Fenton house.

"I'll be tuned in somehow," Fenton said Monday morning. "It's a bummer I won't be able to watch it live but I'm definitely excited about seeing how it turns out."

No. 1 Georgia versus No. 14 Missouri on Saturday is an intriguing matchup on its own for everything it means to the SEC East race and the College Football Playoffs. But there's a fascinating story behind that story and Fenton is right in the middle of it.

Fenton has the good fortunate of having coached both Missouri's Luther Burden and Georgia's Dominic Lovett. In fact, he still coaches them. The leading wide receivers for the respective teams in the marquee matchup still come back to East St. Louis when they can in the offseason and train with Fenton. And Fenton is a big reason each one of them ended up playing there.

He did not, however, have the good fortune of coaching both wideouts at the same time. A year ahead of Burden, Lovett graduated from East St. Louis the year before Burden arrived there as a transfer. Hailing from the same neighborhood in St. Louis, Missouri, both came across the river to play at for the powerhouse Illinois football program.

"ESL" also is known as a powerhouse both for winning and for gaining notice for its star players. That certainly happened for both Lovett and Burden, who each ended up signing with and playing for the state university Missouri Tigers.

But that's where things got very interesting about a year ago. Excited to play together as close friends both before and after Burden inked with the Tigers as a 5-star prospect last season, Lovett decided to enter the transfer portal last December and ended up inking with the Georgia Bulldogs just a couple of weeks later. Meanwhile, Burden, a star player who many Mizzou fans feared might do the same, chose to remain in Columbia.

And that, as it turns out, has been a great decision for both players.

Lovett was interested in finding a place where he could compete for championships, which he clearly has at Georgia. He also hoped to improve his NFL prospects. In that regard, one would have to say check and check in terms of filling those boxes. Only the recently-sidelined tight end Brock Bowers has more catches than Lovett's 35 (for 365 yards and a touchdown). The 5-foot-10, 187-pound junior quickly became an integral part of the Bulldogs' offensive attack, which features quarterback Carson Beck spreading the ball around among 12 regular targets. No UGA wideout has played more snaps this season than Lovett

"A great kid," Georgia coach Kirby Smart said. "What a quality young man he is. He works really hard. He's busted his butt since he's been here, been very humble and bought into what we've asked him to do in being selfless."

Conversely, when Lovett left for Georgia, that opened up the slot position at Missouri. Burden moved there from flanker and has flourished ever since. The 5-11, 208-pound sophomore leads the SEC in receptions with 61 and is second in the league with 905 yards receiving. Like last year, he's also the Tigers' punt returner.

"Size, speed, he looks like a running back," Smart said of Burden. "I mean, he's explosive, fast. He's different. They put him in the slot, they move him around and do a great job using his skill set."

Georgia wanted to utilize that skill set, too. In fact, the Bulldogs were a major player in Burden's recruitment. For a time, a lot of the recruiting sites "crystal ball" predictions had Burden coming to Georgia. But he committed to the Missouri in late October of 2021 and signed with the Tigers that December.

The word on the street was that Name, Image and Likeness (NIL) had a lot to do with Burden's decision. Nothing can be confirmed, of course, but coach Eliah Drinkwitz has vowed not to be outbid when it comes arranging NIL deals for the top recruits in what Missouri considers its primary recruiting footprint. That encompasses St. Louis, Missouri, and East St. Louis, Illinois.

It also includes Lees Summit, Missouri. That's where 5-star defensive end William Nwaneri hails from. He recently committed to Drinkwitz and the Tigers, choosing the home-state team over Georgia.

"They've got some really good players in their state," Smart said "Eliah does a really good job of taking that circle say in, say, a five-hour radius. Because of where they are geographically, they don't cross with a lot of the SEC schools like maybe we do with each other."

The Tigers have plucked some pretty good players from Georgia and Florida as well. Attracting great players, as always, has been the single most important development in Missouri's turnaround.

But the Tigers lost a good one in Lovett as well. Behind the scenes, there are several people with knowledge of the situation who say NIL might have had at least a little something to do with Lovett coming to Georgia, as well.

Coming from the same area of Greater St. Louis – really, the same neighborhood – Lovett's camp knows what Burden has going on in the mysterious arena of NIL compensation and vice-versa.

But Fenton, who knows these two star receivers better than anybody not directly related to them, insists that wasn't the case for Lovett.

"That's probably too cold of a way to look at it," Fenton said. "If Dom was going to go to the highest bidder he would have stayed at home. If he wanted more money, he could've have stayed at home or gone to Tennessee or Oregon. I know that for sure."

Indeed, Lovett's suitors after he went into the portal included those programs as well as Texas and others that are known for their well-heeled alumni. Georgia fits into that category, too.

The difference, though, is what they've been doing on the field these last few seasons. The Bulldogs

(8-0, 5-0 SEC) are on a record 25-game winning streak and will be seeking their 36th consecutive regular-season victory when the Tigers come to town on Saturday.

Simply put, UGA could give Lovett something he couldn't get anywhere else.

"It's all hindsight now," Fenton said. "For Dom, it's about the culture. It's like here at East St. Louis; we've built a winning culture and a great competitive environment and Georgia is the same way. He recognized that as soon as he got there."

It's doubtful that Smart will trot out Lovett in front of the media this week with all the attention and stakes that that will be on the line this Saturday. What's clear eight games into his incarnation as a Georgia Bulldog is that whatever the game plan will be against Missouri, Lovett will be an integral part of it.

However, Lovett has spoken to the Bulldogs' press corps several times this year. That included last week as they were getting ready to play Florida. Being the wily veteran and leader that he is, Lovett wasn't about to wax eloquent about playing his home-state team in the NEXT game. But neither did he ignore the question all together.

"We'll just kind of leave that game where it's at and focus on Florida," he said.

Then Lovett grinned and leaned ever so slightly into the microphone. "But, to answer your question, I am excited to play Mizzou."

So, is everybody -- in Georgia, in Missouri and all over the country, for that matter. The winner of Saturday's game is going to leave Sanford Stadium with control of the SEC East.

But for two East St. Louis kids and the guy who coached them, there's even more on the line.

"I know for Dom it's going to be a bittersweet moment," Fenton said. "I expect very big things from both of those guys because they're very competitive. In the offseason, we all work together; there's some brotherly love there. But it's a prime-time game and, at the end of the day, those two guys are going to want to win and put on a show."

Unfortunately for Fenton, he may have to wait a while to see how it all unfolds.

‘It’s Everything That I Remember About Playing Football’

ATHENS – Carson Beck had to work and wait for his chance to be Georgia’s starting quarterback. It took patience and belief to stick around, knowing that nothing was guaranteed. In the transfer portal era, and even long before it, Beck’s willingness to stay put and keep pushing to earn his spot atop the depth chart stands out.

But Beck believed in himself, and he believed in what the Bulldogs were doing.

“It’s something that I’ve dreamed of my whole life,” Beck said earlier this month, before helping the Bulldogs improve to 7-0 (4-0 SEC) with a 37-20 win over Vanderbilt on Oct. 14.

“I’d like to say that all the work that I’ve put in has made me built for these different moments that we’re experiencing throughout the season — and there will continue to be more moments. I’m just trying to improve and be confident in those moments, knowing that I have done what it takes to be confident and excel when those moments arise.”

Now, in his fourth season in the program and first as the Bulldogs’ starting QB — for the two-time defending national champions, no less — Beck is doing two important things. The 6-foot-4 and 220-pounder from Jacksonville, Fla., is playing well. He’s also enjoying every minute of this opportunity that was a long time coming.

On Saturday, Beck will be playing in his hometown when the top-ranked Bulldogs take on Florida (5-2, 3-1) at EverBank Stadium. If Beck keeps doing what he’s been doing, he and the Bulldogs should be in good position to extend Georgia’s school-record winning streak to 25 games.

Against the Commodores, Beck didn’t have his greatest game, turning the ball over twice, but he still was 29 of 39 passing for 261 yards, with a 1-yard touchdown run and a 4-yard TD pass. And for the season, his numbers rank among the best in the FBS.

Heading into Saturday, Beck ranks sixth in completion percentage (73.6), 12th in the FBS in passing yards (2,147), eighth in passing yards per game (306.71) and 14th in passing efficiency (163.81). Beck has thrown 12 touchdown passes, four interceptions (in 235 attempts), and he’s the starting QB of squad that ranks third in the nation in total offense with 509.4 yards per game.

“He’s a great processor,” Georgia coach Kirby Smart said recently. “I mean, Carson is very intelligent, guys. You can say what you want about the quarterback position. You have to process information rapidly, and the more information you can handle, the more flexibility your offense has. And the flexibility of an offense is usually tied to what the quarterback can handle, and our quarterback, not only because he’s smart, because he’s also of age and been in the same system for multiple years, has been able to grow from that. ...

“He knows how to use it, and he’s got good weapons around him to help him with it. So his intuition, along with ability, has helped him.”

Growing up, baseball was Beck’s primary sport. And for a while, he even wanted to be a Gator. Back in high school, he and his friend Colby Halter even committed to Florida’s baseball team. While Beck eventually developed into a four-star quarterback prospect and signed with the Bulldogs — “We were going to do that together, but then football blew up,” Beck said during a Quick Chat back in April — Halter went on to play for the Gators and is now in the Oakland A’s farm system.

Halter clearly made the right choice for him, and Beck is happy with how things are working out for him at Georgia. Before the Bulldogs’ season opener against UT-Martin, Beck hadn’t started a football game since 2019. That’s a long time to predominantly watch from the sideline on game days. That’s a long time to not be the guy at a position that demands confidence and leadership.

“Obviously it’s a lot of fun to be the guy. It’s definitely more fun than not being the guy,” he said with a laugh. “It’s everything that I remember about playing football — the adrenaline rush you get when you run out onto that field. It’s a lot different now, playing in front of 90,000 people, compared to however many I was playing on front of in high school. It definitely adds to the excitement.”

When you go as long as Beck did between football games, beyond the opportunities he had in blowouts while playing behind Stetson Bennett the past two seasons, it takes a lot of work to stay mentally and physically sharp. So where does Beck think he’s improved the most season the Bulldogs’ season opener?

“Just my confidence overall, as a whole. The one thing that I’ve been saying is, I’m just trying to learn how to play football again, you know? There’s no way to replicate a game,” he said. “You can practice all you want, and I’ve been practicing for the last 3-4 years, I’ve been here forever and it’s not like I haven’t been doing anything — I’ve been working my tail off — but there’s no way to replicate that in-game speed and those emotions that you feel in the game, and you’re just trying to level those things out.”

Jalon Walker: Connect to Compete

ATHENS – Connection.

While not as flashy as "Keep chopping wood," or Georgia head coach Kirby Smart's latest motivational phrase "Eat off the floor" inspired by the All Blacks rugby team, the importance of connection cannot be understated.

The expectations of a program that claimed the college football crown in back-to-back years requires a faith that the one at your side will catch you when you fall. A brother behind you rather than just another number on a flaming-red jersey.

Sophomore linebacker Jalon Walker understands this importance. From coach's kid to an ambassador of the most coveted team in the land, Walker lives his life forging bonds – bonds that spark both understanding and success.

Walker earned playing time as a true freshman in all 15 games of the 2022-23 season. He initially served on special teams units where he notoriously blocked a punt against Kent State that led to a safety, before earning his way into the defensive rotation. Nolan Smith's season-ending injury against Florida created a hole in which Walker was gladly willing to help fill.

The freshman phenom would go on to record his best stats in the most important of contests: three quarterback hurries in the College Football Playoff Semifinal against No. 4 Ohio State and four quarterback hurries in addition to a 10-yard tackle for loss in the National Championship against No. 2 TCU.

After only one year in the Bulldog football program, Walker was chosen as Georgia football's representative for the Southeastern Conference Football Leadership Council. A single athlete from each team is chosen by the coaching staff to travel to the SEC office in Birmingham, Ala., and "serve as a conduit of communication to the conference office on issues related to student-athlete experience and student-athlete wellness," as described by the SEC.

Walker took the opportunity to heed Coach Smart's words even outside of Athens and connect with the student-athletes from other institutions. The men from the other side of the line of scrimmage sat face-to-face, talking "smack" but more importantly establishing an understanding of one another.

"We play against each other throughout the year, but we don't know each other without our helmet," Walker explained. "Just getting that time to get to know them on a personal level, it really hits different. To see them in their own program, being a successful aspect for their program, and looking back like I really know that guy."

Relational leadership existed in Walker's life long before Smart came onto the scene as it was modeled for young Walker everyday by his father Curtis. For the majority of Walker's youth, the senior Walker was the head football coach at Catawba College in Salisbury, N.C.

"Seeing that role of my father being a head coach for many years … seeing him do his speeches and seeing him address players, just seeing that leadership role of him affecting the community and where we stayed, it just rubbed off on me and it's just part of my personality," Walker said.

Now halfway through his sophomore season with the Bulldogs, Walker continues to impact the defense even if his stats aren't gaudy. Always an edge threat when on the field with a killer first step and the mobility, as well as maturity, to drop into coverage when needed. Beyond his onfield performance, Walker is consistently the first to celebrate the success of his teammates – running to his brothers to congratulate them because he knows what they play for.

"I want to know why the person next to me is practicing so hard. I want to know what I can do and what I can say to motivate them to do better," Walker said. "You love to see the guy next to you have success."

Though in different fashion than the past two championship seasons, success still permeates the Georgia football program. Recruiting, impressive facilities, a talented coaching staff and a culture of excellence can all be credited with the recent success Georgia has acquired, but connection cannot be ignored.

And for Jalon Walker, it is prioritized.

How Baseball Helps Carson Beck Best Handle the Pressure of Being Georgia's Quarterback

By: Connor Riley
Dawg Nation
Published October 9, 2023

ATHENS – Baseball was on Kirby Smart's mind when speaking to reporters on Monday. Not because the Atlanta Braves host the Philadelphia Phillies in a crucial playoff game later this evening but because of how his quarterback played on Saturday against Kentucky. Carson Beck had a stellar game, throwing for 389 yards and 4 touchdowns in a 51-13 win over Kentucky. The performance earned Beck co-SEC Players of the Week honors.

Beck was at his best against the blitz, completing 13 of his 15 pass attempts for 200 yards and 4 touchdowns.

"A great mental processor. He's a great processor," Smart said of Beck. "I mean, Carson's very intelligent, guys. You know, you can say what you want about the quarterback position, but you have to process information rapidly. And the more information you can handle, the more flexibility your offense has. The flexibility of an offense is usually tied to what the quarterback can handle. Our quarterback — not only because he's smart but because he's also of age and been in the same system for multiple years — has been able to grow from that."

From there, Smart ended up raving about Beck's ability to handle pressure. Smart pointed to Beck's baseball background as to why he is so calm in the face of pressure.

At one point during his high school career, Beck was committed to play baseball at Florida. But that was prior to his pledge to Georgia, where he has quickly blossomed into one of the top quarterbacks in the league.

"I think, a baseball background, I've learned, gives you the ability to handle pressure," Smart said. "There's no greater pressure than you have to throw a strike. Nobody can help you throw that strike, no coach, no pitching coach. You've got to stand out there and throw a strike. That pressure is not the same as a man running in your face, but it is pressure. He does well under pressure."

Beck doesn't need to be Max Fried for the Bulldogs, in part because of the supporting cast he has around him. Having Brock Bowers and Sedrick Van Pran certainly makes things easier for the Georgia quarterback.

To that point, Beck seems to enjoy the interaction with pressure in football a little bit more than he did in the loneliness of baseball.

"I've been through a lot of things in my life that helped me to the point where I can handle pressure," Beck said. "Definitely being a pitcher and playing baseball, you're the only guy that's doing anything when you're up there pitching - baseball's a little bit more boring of a sport - but you're the guy. All the weight is on you to sit there and execute whether you're throwing 80, 90, 100 pitches a game. I definitely can say that could be a credit to the way that I handle pressure."

Georgia is reaping the benefits of the fact that this is Beck's fourth year in the Georgia program. In his first three years at Georgia, he teamed with Todd Monken as his offensive coordinator before Mike Bobo took the reins this offseason. Smart has repeatedly stressed the offense is the same structurally as it was under Monken.

Beck's performance on Saturday seemed to prove that.

He's now got 11 touchdown passes on the season and has thrown for 1,886 passing yards. Beck has thrown for at least 300 passing yards in each of Georgia's last three games, becoming the first Georgia quarterback since Aaron Murray to do so.

Beck's baseball background though isn't just limited to facing opposing blitzers. It shows up in the run game as well. Beck picked up a big third-down conversion early in the game using his legs. While some teams may not want their quarterback exposing themselves like that in the open field, Beck's ability to slide helps mitigate against that.

Later in the win over Kentucky, Georgia quarterback Brock Vandagriff got flipped into the air while taking a hit. Vandagriff bounced up like nothing had happened but it's always a nervy moment when a quarterback gets lit up as Vandagriff did.

"I was making fun of Brock after that play when he came to the sidelines," Beck said. "He kind of got whacked, did a little flip, and I was like, 'You need to make a decision. Either slide or go out of bounds or lower your shoulder. If you're going to get hit, lower your shoulder and run him over.' That was definitely funny to see."

Beck has clearly found a rhythm as Georgia's starting quarterback this past two weeks, as he led the Bulldogs in a come-from-behind road win over Auburn prior to the showing against Kentucky.

As Beck gets deeper and deeper into the season, it's clear his confidence is growing. There's no longer a trust but a genuine belief that Beck is going to be able to deliver when called upon.

The pressures in October don't seem to phase the ascending ace.

"I have standards and goals for myself, but as far as expectations, I just try to go out there and be myself every single game," Beck said. "I don't expect to go throw for X amount of yards or X amount of completions. It's never about the numbers. I said this on Saturday, but at the end of the day, it's about winning."

Quick Chat: Brett Thorson

By: John Frierson

Published October 4, 2023

ATHENS – Long before Georgia punter Brett Thorson was booting footballs for the Bulldogs, he was a kid playing Australian rules football back home in Melbourne.

Instead of pursuing the sport Australians call "footy" — the Australian Football League (AFL) just had it's Grand Final last weekend, essentially their Super Bowl, and 100,000 people were in attendance in Melbourne — Thorson opted to work with ProKick Australia and pursue the chance to punt in the United States. It's been a good thing for Thorson and the Bulldogs.

In his first season with the Bulldogs last fall, Thorson averaged 45 yards a punt and roughly half of them were downed inside the 20-yard line. Georgia's offense last season was so dominant that Thorson only punted 36 times all season. But when it mattered most, he delivered, like his 75-yarder against Tennessee that rolled out of bounds at the 1. So far this season, Thorson has punted 16 times and averaged 44 yards per boot, with eight downed inside the 20.

During a Quick Chat after practice Tuesday, the 6-foot-2 and 220-pound Thorson, both mustachioed and semi-mulletted, talked about Australian rules football, what his adjustment to life in the United States has been like, and more. Here's some of what he had to say:

Frierson: Did you watch the AFL Grand Final the other day?
Thorson: No, I didn't. It was the night before the (Auburn) game, and I think it started at 12:30 a.m. (EST) and would have gone through until about 4. It was Collingwood (Magpies versus the Brisbane Lions), as well, who I'm not a big fan of. I didn't watch it but I know a few Collingwood fans, so I was happy for them.
Frierson: Who is your favorite team?
Thorson: I'm a Hawks man, a Hawthorn fan. After playing all those years, I kind of drifted away from it and haven't watched as much. I wouldn't change my team because I'm not going to jump ship, and Hawthorn was my team growing up, and thankfully they were pretty good when I was growing up — but they're not so good now.
Frierson: I watch a lot of Collingwood games because they're on TV a good bit, but I don't have a favorite team yet.
Thorson: Collingwood's kind of like the Dallas Cowboys. They have one of the biggest fan bases and they're one of the most historic and successful teams. Their fans are well known by everyone.
Frierson: And they have a big American on their team.
Thorson: They do, Mason Cox. He's quite funny — he's brought in his American personality into AFL. Initially, he obviously had to learn the game, and it was interesting watching that, and now he's a key piece for them. With his height (6-11) and his athleticism, he's pretty hard to stop for everyone playing against him.
Frierson: Is there a guy on this Georgia team that could be a good Australian rules football player?
Thorson: He's not here anymore, but I always thought Kenny McIntosh would be good. With that kind of height and agility and speed, he could be really good. Obviously, Brock Bowers is an athlete, and you could put him out on the forward line. Anyone of the bigger-bodied guys could maybe do, because you're going to take a few hits. Someone like a Marcus Rosemy(-Jacksaint) would be really handy out there. Those boys would be the boys I'd take and try to teach 'em how to tear it up.
Frierson: As we sit here, the Major League Baseball playoffs are on the TV beside us. Is baseball a sport you ever paid much attention to?
Thorson: We have cricket, so I think cricket is a perfect substitution. How much you guys watch baseball is how much we watch cricket. It seems like there's the same amount of participation and interest. It's one of those where you either love it or you hate it; you either find it really boring or you're really interested in it.
Frierson: Is Vegemite another love it or hate it thing?
Thorson: Most Australians like it, but most Americans hate it. Usually, the main issue is they do it wrong. They just kind of eat it like Nutella, putting it (on toast) with Nutella thickness. There are a couple of secrets: You've got to have good bread, a bit of butter and the right amount of Vegemite. And it is an acquired taste. As I think about it now, it is definitely an acquired taste. No one I've given it to here has been like, "Wow, that's really good."
Frierson: Is there an American thing people have introduced you to that you didn't like?
Thorson: I did Christmas with the Stocktons (backup quarterback Gunner Stockton and his family) up in Rabun County, and I tried grits for the first time. And I haven't had them since. What else? Mac and cheese is a big thing over here as a side, and that can be good and bad depending on how it's made. There are a lot of little things that people have had me try. Cornbread is another thing the boys love that I'm not too sure about. Kamari Lassiter, me and him have a bit of joke: He puts whipped cream on ice cream, and I find that repulsive. It's like putting the same thing on each other, but he does that and he loves it, and I've seen more guys do it.

Brock Bowers Could Pass for a Georgian

By: Loran Smith
Published October 3, 2023

ATHENS – If you talk with Brock Bowers about his passions for hunting and fishing and know nothing about his background, you might take him for a native Georgian. He could hail from Americus, or Valdosta, or Albany. Or perhaps the hills of Habersham. You might assume he has a lot of camouflage hanging in his closet and a pickup truck with a "Support Wildlife" license plate in his driveway.

Instead, Brock arrived in Athens from the faraway outpost of Napa, California. Curiously, he is not into the stuff that makes his hometown famous. (That would be akin to a Vidalian who doesn't give two hoots about onions?)

"Since I was a little boy," Brock says, "my dad would take me out with him, and I fell in love with duck hunting and then deer hunting and find that to be an exciting experience."

Brock has also fallen in love with playing football at the highest level. In fact, it would be hard to find a player with more enthusiasm and respect for the game that took him far beyond his wildest dreams in 2021.

Several factors were responsible for bringing Brock from Napa to Athens, starting with CBS and ESPN. In the mid-1990s, the two networks agreed to broadcast games from the Southeastern Conference into homes all over the nation. Suddenly, southern football was a Saturday main-stay in talent-rich places such as California.

When Brock was a budding football star at Napa High School, he could play a Friday night game, celebrate a bit afterward, and still get a good night's sleep before tuning in to see the next day's first SEC game at 9:00 a.m. Almost 2,600 miles away, he could feel the intensity of the action at a game in Athens.

When the games came on, he would use his hands to create a furrow in the carpet the length of his living room. That represented a sideline. Then he would toss a ball up and try to catch it as he leaned away from his improvised sideline, as he would need to do in a live game. He became quite good at catching passes while staying inbounds in "Living Room Football."

Brock's first trip to Athens came on a day for high school juniors in 2019. He thought it was "cool" that Sanford Stadium was in the middle of campus. Further, he was amazed that one could play big-time college football in such a cozy environment and then go hunting or fishing an hour away.

He was duly impressed with what he saw on TV when Notre Dame played Georgia in 2019. He remembers it all: stadium lit up with innovative red LED lights, the passion of the fans, and the quality of football. It all made him think it would be nice to visit Athens. And he did, more than once. By the third trip, he announced he would wear red and black.

During one of his stays in Athens, Bowers was introduced to quarterback Brock Vandagriff. The two share a love of the outdoors, but because of their football obligations, they have had minimal chances to squeeze in dove hunting and bass fishing. Ultimately, Bowers would like to hunt quail in Thomasville and go fly fishing and turkey hunting in north Georgia. But those pursuits will have to wait. For now, football is his mission.

Brock hopes to continue playing football as long as he is physically able. He also wants to surpass his level of performance from last year, when many pundits thought him the nation's best at his position.

When he was in high school, Bulldog coaches knew Brock was a prospect with promise. But they were cautious in their evaluations. The COVID-10 pandemic forced the postponement of his senior season until January 2021, and by then, Brock had graduated from Napa High School and enrolled as a freshman at UGA.

He went seventeen months without playing in a live football game, and another five months before he played in the 2021 season opener against Clemson. Tight ends coach Todd Hartley had this scouting report on Bowers:

"We saw tape of his junior year and found him to be very impressive. He was versatile, a throwback to an old-school tight end who was skilled and could do a lot of things. He played tailback, returned kicks, played defense, and receiver. You could see that he was athletic, that he was tough and naturally gifted with the ball in his hands. He didn't participate in spring drills because of COVID and we couldn't evaluate him in camp for the same reason. We were very impressed with his family, his attitude. We knew that he ran a 4:53 forty-yard dash at a camp in Oakland, and that is pretty dang good for a tight end. Then there were the intangibles. He is extremely intelligent and very humble."

Brock comes from an athletic family, and his parents make every effort to see their son play, despite living so far away. His mother, DeAnna, who works as a math teacher, was an All-American softball player at Utah State and is in the Aggie's Hall of Fame. His father, Warren, now a partner in a construction firm, played offensive line in football, also at Utah State. Brock's sister, Brianna, played softball at Sacramento State.

Arriving in Athens in time for the off season conditioning program, Brock ran relentlessly. He was first in all the sprints and also the endurance runs. He didn't become tired physically or mentally. "You could tell," Hartley says, "he was really gifted with speed and athleticism."

What's more, Hartley adds, "he has good blocking skills and can pass protect." Anything else? "Oh, yes, he is a very good student."

While his surname, Bowers, is of Saxon origin, he would fit comfortably with the Greek philosophy of well-roundedness. He expects himself to perform in the classroom as well as on the field. He played other sports along the way and finds peace among the woods and streams which someday may get his undivided interest. Football and a degree are of such priority that he doesn't have the time to trout fish in North Georgia and quail hunt in South Georgia, but that day likely will come.

The most redeeming feature about him is his compelling modesty. He is without ego, but is driven with an unrelenting, competitive fire to do his best. The thrill of competition enraptures him, not the ensuing headlines that come with his being the best tight end in the country. He is the best tight end ever at Georgia and it is easy to promote him as the best player in the country. However, it is unlikely that he will win the Heisman trophy which is the domain for quarterbacks and running backs.

Brock is selfless, altruistic and ungrudging. He is given to sharing his NIL income with his teammates. He treats every practice as if it is a playoff game and is always first in line for any drill. He is the ultimate "Good Teammate." He is the Bulldogs "Captain America."

There's A Powerful Reason Why Georgia's Malaki Starks Wears No. 24

By: Chip Towers
Atlanta Journal-Constitution
Published September 20, 2023

ATHENS – It was a typical question for a college football star. Georgia's Malaki Starks was asked Monday by a student journalist what was his "why" for playing college football. Understandably, Starks didn't exactly bare his soul in an auditorium setting before sports reporters and television cameras. But he offered enough of a glimpse of himself while sharing the story of wearing the No. 24 in honor of a cousin who "had passed when he was 9" for those in the room to know something truly life-defining – and awful – occurred during Starks' youth.

Glossing over details, Starks revealed that when he was playing recreation football as a small child, he switched from No. 24 to 23 after he found out his cousin wore the No. 24 for another team.

"I told him, 'I don't want you wearing the same number as me; I don't want you copying me,'" Starks said Monday, grinning at the memory. "But when he passed away, I switched back to 24. That's why I wear 24. Some people just look at it as a number, but to me it's much more."

And there is much more to that story.

The only follow-up question time would allow at the end of the 10-minute interview session with Starks was, "what was your cousin's name and how did he die?"

"His name was Keion, and he got shot when he was 9," Starks said.

Thankfully, Malaki's mother would fill in some of the blanks later. In a telephone conversation Tuesday, Tisha Starks was not surprised to hear that her son shared that story, nor that he was somewhat cryptic about his cousin's death.

"That's really a touchy subject for him," she said. "It's still hard for him to talk about, hard to understand."

The incident occurred 13 years ago. According to Tisha, Keion Gresham actually was 7 at the time, Malaki just 6. Keion's brother Keionte, aka "Tay Tay," also died May 3, 2010. He was 4.

They both died at the hand of their father, Keith Gresham. Gresham took his own life on a dirt road that day in Commerce in what police determined was a murder-suicide.

Keith Gresham was Tisha Starks' cousin. Malaki always called him Uncle Keith, or just "Unc."

"He was confused," Tisha Starks said of her son. "It was hard for him to understand. He always liked his Uncle Keith."

Nobody really understands what happened. What's known is that Keith Gresham and the boys' mother, Catrina Doster, had separated from a relationship that was marred by domestic violence, according to Starks. Only recently estranged and going through a custody battle, Doster let Gresham have the boys for the weekend. She never suspected she would not get them back.

"There's really no way to explain it," Tisha sighed.

Tisha Starks and Tina Doster remain the closest of friends. They have always lived near each other in the same Jefferson neighborhood where Tisha and Larry Starks raised Malaki and his older sister, Mariah. They look out for each other.

Not surprisingly, there is no bigger fan of Malaki Starks than Keion's mother.

"Her work schedule doesn't allow her to come to games much, but she calls me every game day, and she's always wearing Malaki's No. 24 jersey," Tisha said.

Nobody could have dreamed all those years ago that Malaki would grow up to be kind of player that he is with the Georgia Bulldogs. Just a sophomore, he has started every game of his career at safety, except his very first one. In that one, his leaping interception against Oregon made the top 10 plays of the day on ESPN's "SportsCenter."

Starks is a consensus preseason All-American this year and was a consensus freshman All-American last season. He is among Georgia's team leaders in name, image and likeness opportunities, which now earn him a six-figure income, according to published reports.
The football part comes as no surprise to Kirby Smart. He and the Bulldogs have been aware of Starks since he was only 13 and would come to their camps. At Jefferson High School, he would develop into a 5-star prospect who was recruited by every major program in the country.

"He came on campus as a ninth-grader," Smart said after the Bulldogs' broke practice Tuesday. "I remember. Our DBs coach came over and said he and his dad were here, that he was coming off a broken leg from basketball and that he ran really fast for us and had a really big frame. And I saw him and just thought to myself, 'man, this kid is going to be a really good player.'"

Starks was playing quarterback at the time, but Smart and the Bulldogs identified him immediately as a big play-making free safety.

Starks has lived up to those visions. He finished with 68 tackles, two interceptions and seven pass break-ups as 14-game starter as a freshman last season. Starks is second on the team with 11 tackles this season, already has one highlight-reel interception and a team-best four pass breakups.

Only a sophomore, expectations for Starks couldn't be higher now. None of them, though, exceed what he has for himself.

"I've always had confidence in myself that I could go out there and play with the best of the best," Starks said at that press conference Monday. "If I couldn't, I wouldn't be here. So, I've always been confident. But that also plays into why I'm always trying to learn more about the defense and build a connection with the guys."

Amid his newfound stardom, Starks has tried to remain mindful of where he comes from and what's he's about. He's from a little neighborhood in Jefferson where he used to play ball with his cousin and argue over who should be the real No. 24. Starks is reminded of Keion every time he pulls that Georgia jersey over his shoulder pads. He also has writes "RIP Keion" and other such messages in marker on his cleats before every game.

At this point, Keion is as much a part of Malaki Starks as any piece of Georgia football equipment he might strap on.

"I think it made him grow up a little bit," Tisha Starks said of her son dealing with Keion's death 13 years ago. "And I think it made him more cautious. It made him look at people a little differently."

As it would anybody.

Quick Chat: Zion Logue

By: John Frierson
GeorgiaDogs.com
Published September 1, 2023

ATHENS – As Zion Logue watched the deciding play of Georgia's Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl win over Ohio State on New Year's Eve, as he saw Buckeyes kicker Noah Ruggles' 50-yard field-goal attempt sail wide left, allowing the Bulldogs to advance to their second straight College Football Playoff National Championship Game, the Bulldog defensive lineman immediately thought of his second cousin, Dekailus Dillard.

On Logue's cleats he'd written Dillard's name, birthdate and the day he died: Dec. 3, 2022. On the same day the Bulldogs were walloping LSU in the SEC Championship Game, Dillard, a huge Georgia fan long before Logue put on the red and black, passed away. And as Ohio State's attempt at a game-winner missed, Logue thought of Dillard, and thanked him for helping push the kick wide.

"I felt like he was the reason they missed that kick that day," said the 6-foot-5 and 310-pound Logue, a senior from Lebanon, Tenn.

Logue and the top-ranked Bulldogs open their season and begin their quest for a third straight national championship on Saturday against UT Martin at Sanford Stadium. During a Quick Chat after practice Tuesday, Logue talked about becoming a leader, whether he's interested in coaching one day, thinking of his second cousin at the end of the Peach Bowl, and much more.

Here's some of what he had to say:

Frierson: How was your summer?
Logue: It was great, man. Just trying to really grow into this leadership role, being a vocal guy. I was the guy who sat behind Nolan (Smith) and J.D. (Jordan Davis) and Devonte (Wyatt), and now I'm trying to break out of my shell a little bit and be more vocal. I can be vocal at times, but I'd rather sit back and let my actions show rather than my words.
Frierson: You seem like you'd be a natural at being a leader. You have that air about you.
Logue: It's definitely been tough, but I know God wouldn't put it on my plate if I couldn't handle it. My mom's always telling me that I've been a leader since day one, so I'm just really trying to tap into it and take it to the next level and lead my guys to where I know we want to go.
Frierson: Have you done anything to prepare for this, like talk to coaches, read books or watch videos?
Logue: Two things that really helped: we do this thing called leadership retreat during the middle of the summer, where we take a group of guys to the Anderson, S.C., area, and we get away for about 24 hours with our sports psychologist, Drew Bannon. He really breaks everything down to what a leader is and what a leader's about. Stripping it down and getting a group of guys to echo it when we get back to the team, if that makes sense.
The second thing: I watch a lot of guys who played with LeBron (James), guys like Iman Shumpert, Richard Jefferson, J.R. Smith, those types of guys, and I watched their podcasts and listened to how they speak about LeBron and how he makes the game better for his teammates; how he simplifies the game for his guys, and how he's overall a great person.
I've tried to put different parts of those things into my life and into how I talk to the guys, and I feel like it goes pretty well.
Frierson: Does any of that make you think about coaching one day?
Logue: A little bit. I've always told myself that if I have a great NFL career, I'd get out of that and go back to my high school and coach there. I feel like I have the resources to do something good there. My coach there, Chuck Gentry, he's been there for the past seven or eight years, and he's really turned our program around. After he's done, I'd love to go in and keep it going.
Frierson: What are you doing with all of your championship rings?
Logue: I had a gala back in April, and I wore them to that. Other than that, I really don't wear them much. They're locked away, put away, and I don't really plan on doing much with them right now. I know that they will be something very valuable to me — they're valuable now, but I know that when it sets in probably 10 years from now, I'll be like, Wow, I really accomplished those things.
Frierson: Was there one moment last season that stands out above the rest?
Logue: When we played LSU in the SEC Championship, my second cousin, he had passed away during halftime. I didn't find out until after the game, and I went to the funeral a couple of weeks before the Ohio State game. I put a couple of things in his casket, like a (Georgia) hat, some gloves and things like that, and as the (last-second) kick is happening, I saw it veer off. I got up and looked to the ceiling, and I actually had his name, birthdate and the day he died on my cleats.

I looked down, I pointed up and I cried for a little bit. That was probably the thing that I thought was pretty special. He was a huge Georgia fan, even before I even thought about coming to Georgia. When he found out I was coming here, he was like, "Bro, I've got to come to a game." But he never was able to get here. I felt like he was the reason they missed that kick that day.
Frierson: You've played with a lot of funny guys during your time here, so who is the funniest on this year's team?
Logue: I'd probably say the all-time funniest guy I ever played with is Mark Webb, and then there's another funny guy, another Philly guy, Tykee Smith, and he's very funny. I think we have a team full of jokesters, but nobody's that guy that everybody recognizes as the funniest. Everybody goes to different people for their laughter. Everybody has their own, different sense of humor, but we're all connected.

I think the reason we're all so connected is because we can joke on each other and know that when it's time to work, it's time to work. When we take the helmet and pads off, that's when we start laughing and having fun.

True to their school: Kirby Smart's Georgia football staff loaded with UGA grads

ATHENS – Kirby Smart's return to Georgia football as head coach put a UGA graduate atop the program.

As he chases a third straight national championship this year, his roster of on-field coaches is chock full of UGA grads and it carries over to all corners of the support staff.

It's a notable change from when Smart filled out his first coaching staff in 2016 without any Bulldog flavor. None of his assistant coaches that season had a degree from Georgia.

Now there's more than two dozen total on staff, either in the program or that work closely with it in athletics.

"We have 26 UGA grads on our staff," Smart, who has a finance degree from Georgia, said in his opening statement at SEC Media Days in Nashville. "Retention for us is the key to sustaining success."

That number of 26 spans from quality control assistant Blake Biltz to the athletic director's suite.

Josh Brooks graduated from LSU but has a master's degree in sports management from UGA.

Four of the 10-on field assistants graduated from Georgia: offensive coordinator Mike Bobo, co-defensive coordinator Will Muschamp, wide receivers coach Bryan McClendon and tight ends coach Todd Hartley.

"We actually use that in our recruiting presentations," Hartley said. "What that illustrates is Georgia's willingness to welcome people back. The university's willingness to say it's not a four-year decision, it's a 40-year decision. I'm not just going to take care of you in your time in Athens, but it does have the ability to help you find a career."

Smart played with Bobo and Muschamp in the 1990s, and they are close friends. McClendon was a wide receiver in 2005 when Smart was running backs coach. Hartley didn't play college football, but was a student assistant when Smart was an assistant, served as a graduate assistant and later director of player personnel and then returned under Smart in 2019.

"When you're recruiting a young man, there is never going to be 100 percent stability," Bobo said. "They're looking for stability. You hear the old saying, don't go for the coach. Go for the school and where you fit in. At the same time, recruits are going to be attracted to certain coaches. And I think that's a selling point. You've got coaches on this staff that love the University of Georgia. That are here to help the University of Georgia be the best that they can be in all areas, not just on the field. And it's important, to guys that graduated from here that it is successful in all areas. I think that is a selling point to the recruits."

The winding road of college coaches mean oftentimes they end up at a rival of their alma mater.

Smart cut his teeth at Alabama under Nick Saban. McClendon was on staff at South Carolina with Bobo, who also worked at Auburn. Muschamp was head coach at Florida and South Carolina and was an assistant at Auburn.

"This profession is different than a lot of professions," Muschamp said in 2011 before facing Georgia for the first time at Florida. "You do your job for the school that you're working for. … I don't mean disrespect to anybody, but I'm loyal to people not places."

Back at Georgia, Muschamp said last year of working with several UGA alums on the coaching staff: "All of those guys have a vested interest in the University of Georgia. Not that we didn't at other places, but at the end of the day, this is where you went to school."

Bobo bypassed other jobs last year to return to Georgia where he took an analyst position. He was promoted this year to offensive coordinator.

"Athens is a great place," Bobo said. "I met my wife here. My kids were born here. You're at a place working for an administration that believes what we're doing. Our head coach has a plan how to do things. To be a part of this program that I played at, went to school, graduated from the University of Georgia, I couldn't pass that opportunity up."

Hartley worked at Marshall and Miami, but returned from both places to coach at Georgia. "It's a great place to raise a family, build a career, it's a great place to go to school," he said. "There is no place like this anywhere in the country. I'm very thankful to have the opportunity to coach at my alma mater."
